Vol. 31.

HARRISBURG, PA., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 27, 1949.

No. 53.

SENATE

WEDNESDAY, April 27, 1949.

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. WILLIAM D. McLEAN offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, who pourest out on all who desire it the spirit of grace and of supplication, we ask Thee to be present with this Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as they convene for their duties this day.

We praise Thee for Thy many past blessings to us, for Thy preservation of us from the beginning of our lives to this day. We are thankful for whatsoever Thou hast given us richly to enjoy, for health and vigor, for joys of friendship, for every good gift of happiness and strength, and for all Thy servants who by their example and encouragement have helped us on our way.

Now, we pray Thee, that these gentlemen now present may by wise legislation and faithful administration, protect the rights of all people so that this Commonwealth may be enabled to fulfill Thy purposes. Grant to them clean hands, pure hearts and unfailing devotion to the cause of righteousness, so that Thy work in our midst may be promoted for Thy glory and the establishment of good government. Give them patience, justice and uprightness in all their dealings; quiet, peace and compassion, a readiness to do good to all men according to their ability and opportunities.

These things, and whatever else Thou shalt see to be necessary and convenient for them and the people, we humbly ask in the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. TALLMAN, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY THE FINANCIAL NEEDS OF THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE FIRST CLASS

Mr. LORD, JR. offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949.

Whereas, For the past several years the matter of raising funds by taxation for the support of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia has been a paramount question before each session of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth and

Whereas, With each year this problem has become more difficult to solve since the cost of maintaining adequate school facilities and the salaries of teachers have risen and because the general tax burden has become heavier; and

Whereas, The school district coterminous with Philadelphia has been existing from hand-to-mouth so to speak, from biennium to biennium on temporary taxes prescribed by the General Assembly; and

Whereas, It is necessary that a fixed adequate solution be found to the financial problems of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia in order that the schools there can be maintained on a level with schools in this State and in cities outside this Commonwealth of comparable size, in order that the tax burden of supporting such schools may be reasonably placed with certainty, and in order that the General Assembly need not concern itself biennium after biennium with such an involved problem over such a local matter; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to investigate, study and determine the present and future financial needs of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia with particular emphasis on a comparison of Philadelphia's problems as compared with those of other large cities and considering all factors including trends in school population pupil-teacher ratio, and school building construction; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall attempt to formulate a basis for permanent forms of taxation to meet the financial requirements of such school district; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the next session of the General Assembly and shall propose legislation embodying the results thereof

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE MESSAGE

SENATE CONCURS IN HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO STUDY AND REVISE CERTAIN LAWS AND TO STUDY AND INVESTIGATE CERTAIN CONDITIONS

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RECESS

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until one o'clock p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I second the motion. The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS OF LANCASTER CITY AND COUNTY PRESENTED TO SENATE

The PRESIDENT. At this time the Chair would like very much to introduce to the Senate a group of students from the various high schools of Lancaster City and County, who are here under the direction of Miss Sara Ann Stauffer.

They are interested in the problems of government, and we are very glad to have them with us.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 761, as follows:

An Act providing for the payment into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue without escheat of certain unclaimed funds held under policies of life or endowment insurance or annuity contracts and owing to persons whose last known address was in this Commonwealth by life insurance companies doing business in this Commonwealth requiring reports of such funds by such life insurance companies requiring notices and publication by the Department of Revenue of certain information pertaining to such unclaimed funds conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers boards and departments indemnifying and agreeing to hold harmless life insurance companies upon payment of such funds to the Department of Revenue providing for refunds of such funds requiring the Department of Revenue to keep certain records exempting certain unclaimed funds making certain other statutes inapplicable and prescribing penalties

Section 1 Title This act shall be known as the "Unclaimed Funds Act for Life Insurance Companies"

Section 2 Scope This act shall apply to all unclaimed funds as hereinafter defined of any life insurance company doing business in this Commonwealth where the last known address according to the records of such company of the person entitled to such funds is within this Commonwealth provided that if a person other than the insured or annuitant insured shall be entitled to such funds and no address of such person is known to such company or if it be not definite and certain from the records of such company what person is entitled to such funds then in either event it shall be presumed for the purposes of this act that the last known address of the person entitled to such funds is the same as the last known address of the insured or annuitant according to the records of such company

Section 3 Definitions The term "unclaimed funds" as used in this act shall mean and include all monies held and owing by any life insurance company doing business in this Commonwealth which shall have remained unclaimed and unpaid for seven years or more after it is established from the records of such company that such monies became due and payable under any life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract which has matured or terminated but shall not include amounts of less than five dollars ($5) which on the effective date of this act shall have been unclaimed and unpaid for more than ten years A life insurance policy not matured by actual proof of the prior death of the insured shall be deemed to be matured and the proceeds thereof shall be deemed to be "due and payable" within the meaning of this act if such policy is still in force when the insured shall have attained the limiting age under the mortality table on which the reserve is based Monies otherwise admittedly due and payable shall be deemed to be "held and owing" within the meaning of this act although the policy or contract shall not have been surrendered as required "Department" shall mean the Department of Revenue of this Commonwealth

Section 4 Reports Every such life insurance company shall on or before the first day of April of each year make a report in writing to the department of all unclaimed funds as hereinbefore defined held and owing by it on the 31st day of December next preceding Such report shall be signed and sworn to by an officer of such company and shall set forth (1) in alphabetical order the full name of each insured or annuitant his last known address according to the company's records and the policy numbers (2) the amount appearing from the company's records to be due on each policy or contract (3) the date such unclaimed funds became payable (4) the name and last known address of each beneficiary or other person who according to the company's records may have an interest in such unclaimed funds and (5) such other identifying information as the department may require

Section 5 Notice and Publication

(a) When the proceeds of any policy of life insurance or annuity contract shall be first reported to the department the department shall notify the persons entitled thereto of such fact by mail so far as possible and shall publish once a week for two weeks during the month of July in each year in one or more general newspapers in each county of this Commonwealth in which is located the last known address of each person appearing to be entitled to such funds a true and accurate statement containing the names addresses and amounts of money

owing to such person or for whose benefit the same is held

(b) The department if it deems it to the best interest of the Commonwealth may make such publication in a legal periodical designated by rules of court for the publication of legal notices in addition to publication in a general newspaper

(c) It shall not be obligatory upon the department to publish any item of the above described monies where the amount involved is less than fifty dollars ($50) but publication of any such item may be made if the department thinks such publication is in the best interest of the Commonwealth

Section 6 Payment to Department of Revenue All unclaimed funds contained in the report required to be filed by section 4 of this act excepting those which have ceased to be unclaimed funds since the date of such report shall be paid over to the department on or before the following November 1st

The department shall have the power for cause shown to extend for a period of not more than one year the time within which a life insurance company shall file any report and in such event the time for publication and payment required by this act shall be extended for a like period

Section 7 custody of unclaimed funds in commonwealth insurers indemnified Upon payment of such unclaimed funds to the department the Commonwealth shall assume for the benefit of those entitled to receive the same and for the safety of the money so paid the custody of such unclaimed funds and the life insurance company making such payment shall immediately and thereafter be relieved of and held harmless by the Commonwealth from any and all liability for any claim or claims which exist at such time with reference to such unclaimed funds or which thereafter may be made or may come into existence on account of or in respect to any such unclaimed funds

Section 8 Refunds

(a) Any person legally entitled to any monies which have been paid to the department may at any time apply to the Board of Finance and Revenue for a refund of the same and upon his making proof to the satisfaction of the Board of (1) ownership or right of possession and (2) that such person shall not have made claim for or received such monies from the life insurance company under whose policy or policies or contract or contracts they were due and payable such monies shall be paid to such person on the requisition of the Board and the warrant of the Auditor General drawn on the State Treasurer in conformity therewith out of any monies in the State Treasury appropriated for the purpose with interest thereon at the rate of two per centum per annum from the date when the said monies were paid to the department to the date of refund thereof

(b) Any life insurance company which has paid to the department monies deemed unclaimed funds pursuant to the provisions of this act may make payment to any person appearing to such company to be entitled thereto and upon proof of such payment and proof of the payee's ownership or right to possession to the satisfaction of the Board of Finance and Revenue such monies shall be paid to such life insurance company on the requisition of the Board and the warrant of the Auditor General drawn on the State Treasurer in conformity therewith out of any monies in the State Treasury appropriated for the purpose or if the monies so appropriated are inadequate or if no such appropriation has been made the amount to be refunded shall be entered by the department as a credit to the account of the claimant Such credit or any part thereof shall be assignable to any other person firm association or corporation and may be used by any such assignee in payment and satisfaction of any obligation or liability then or thereafter due by such assignee to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

(c) Any claimant for any such refund of money under either subsection (a) or (b) of this section may appeal by petition to the court of common pleas of Dauphin

County from an adverse decision of the Board of Finance and Revenue which court shall thereupon hear such testimony as may be offered in support of the claim and determine whether or not the claimant is entitled to any refund of money and if so the amount thereof or the nature or character thereof. If the court find that he is so entitled it shall report its findings to the Board and order the making of a refund of the proper amount of money. Thereupon the refund shall be made in the manner hereinbefore provided. No such appeal shall be entertained however unless the claimant shall file with his petition an affidavit that all proof which he proposes to offer in support of the claim had been presented to the Board of Finance and Revenue before that Board acted adversely upon his claim.

(d) An appeal may be taken by either party from the judgment of the court of common pleas of Dauphin County in any action arising under the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section as in other cases.

Section 9 Records Required. The department shall keep in its office a public record of each payment of unclaimed funds received by it from any life insurance company. Such record shall show in alphabetical order the name and last address of each insured or annuitant and of each beneficiary or other person who according to the company's reports may have an interest in such unclaimed funds and with respect to each policy its number the name of the company and the amount due.

Section 10 Payments to other States. This act shall not apply to or affect any unclaimed funds which have been paid to another state or jurisdiction prior to the effective date hereof.

Section 11 Other Acts not applicable. No other statute of this Commonwealth now in force relating to escheat or payment into the State Treasury without escheat of unclaimed funds of life insurance companies shall apply to any unclaimed funds covered by this act nor shall any such statute hereafter enacted so apply unless specifically made applicable by its provisions.

Section 12 Penalties failure to make reports false oath in report.

(a) If it shall appear that any company has wilfully failed at any time to make any report required under the provisions of this act such company shall be liable to pay to the Commonwealth interest at the rate of twelve per centum per annum from the time such report should first have been made to be computed upon the value of said reportable items as finally established in any proceedings under the provisions of this act and to be recovered in such proceedings.

(b) The making of a wilful false oath in any report required under the provisions of this act shall be perjury and punishable as such according to law. If any officer or employe of any company required to make a report under the provisions of this act shall wilfully fail to make such report when and as required by this act he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000) or imprisonment not exceeding three months either or both in the discretion of the court.

Section 13 Bar of Statutes of Limitation. The bar of statutes of limitation and presumptions of payment shall not affect the duty of making reports and payments to the Commonwealth under the provisions of this act.

Section 14 Effective Date. This act shall take effect January 1 1950.

Such tolls shall be so fixed and adjusted as to provide a fund at least sufficient with other revenues of the turnpike if any to pay (a) the cost of maintaining repairing and operating the turnpike and (b) the bonds and the interest thereon and all sinking fund requirements and other requirements provided by the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or by the trust indenture as the same shall become due. Such tolls shall not be subject to supervision or regulation by any other state commission board bureau or agency. The tolls and all other revenues derived from the turnpike except such part thereof as may be required to pay the cost of maintaining repairing and operating the turnpike and to provide such reserves therefor as may be provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or in the trust indenture shall be set aside at such regular intervals as may be provided in such resolution or such trust indenture in a sinking fund which is hereby pledged to and charged with the payment of (1) the interest upon such bonds as such interest shall fall due (2) the principal of the bonds as the same shall fall due (3) the necessary fiscal agency charges for paying principal and interest and (4) any premium upon bonds required by call or purchase as herein provided. The use and disposition of such sinking fund shall be subject to such regulations as may be provided in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds or in the trust indenture but except as may otherwise be provided in such resolution or trust indenture such sinking fund shall be a fund for the benefit of all bonds issued hereunder without distinction or priority of one over another. Subject to the provisions of the resolutions authorizing the issuance of bonds or of the trust indenture any moneys in such sinking fund in excess of an amount equal to one year's interest on all bonds then outstanding may be applied to the purchase or redemption of bonds. All bonds so purchased or redeemed shall forthwith be cancelled and shall not again be issued.

Section 16 The commission is hereby authorized to provide by resolution for the issuance of turnpike revenue refunding bonds of the Commonwealth for the purpose of refunding any turnpike revenue bonds issued under the provisions of this act and then outstanding. The issuance of such turnpike revenue refunding bonds the maturities and other details thereof the rights of the holders thereof and the duties of the Commonwealth and of the commission in respect to the same shall be governed by the foregoing provisions of this act in so far as the same may be applicable and by the following provisions:

(a) No turnpike revenue refunding bonds shall be delivered unless delivered in exchange for turnpike revenue bonds to be refunded thereby except in the amount necessary to provide for the payment of matured or redeemable turnpike revenue bonds or turnpike revenue bonds maturing or redeemable within three months including any redemption premium thereon.

(b) No turnpike revenue refunding bonds shall be issued unless issued to refund turnpike revenue bonds which have matured or will mature within three months or unless the interest rate of the turnpike revenue refunding bonds shall be at least one-fourth of one per centum less than the interest rate borne by the turnpike revenue bonds to be refunded.

Section 17 Any holder of bonds issued under the provisions of this act or any of the coupons attached thereto and the trustees under the trust indenture if any except to the extent the rights herein given may be restricted by resolution passed before the issuance of the bonds or by the trust indenture may either at law or in equity by suit action mandamus or other proceedings protect and enforce any and all rights granted hereunder or under such resolution or trust indenture and may enforce and compel performance of all duties required by this act or by such resolution or trust indenture to be performed by the commission or any officer thereof including the fixing charging and collecting of tolls for the use of the turnpike.

Section 18 When all bonds and the interest thereon shall have been paid or a sufficient amount for the payment of all bonds and the interest to maturity thereon shall have been set aside in trust for the benefit of the bondholders and shall continue to be held for that purpose the turnpike and the connecting roads tunnels and bridges shall become a part of the system of state highways and shall be maintained by the Department of Highways free of tolls and thereupon the commission shall be dissolved and all funds of the commission not required for the payment of the bonds and all machinery equipment and other property belonging to the commission shall be vested in the Department of Highways.

Section 19 The foregoing sections of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing. Such sections being necessary for the welfare of the Commonwealth and its inhabitants shall be liberally construed to effect the purposes thereof.

Section 20 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

Section 21 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE RECALLED FROM GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 456, as follows:

An Act to amend section seventeen of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are practically and commercially suitable for use in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" by temporarily providing for partial reimbursement of taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed in the operation of nonlicensed farm tractor or licensed farm tractor when used off the highways for agricultural purposes or non-licensed powered farm machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products Providing penalties and making appropriations from the motor license fund for the payment of such reimbursements and expenses in connection therewith

Whereas On the theory that the use of highways and bridges and air transportation are the means by which revenue from taxes on motor fuels are derived the people of the Commonwealth by constitutional amendment have earmarked such revenue for public highways and bridges and air navigation facilities and

Whereas Large quantities of motor fuels are consumed in agricultural pursuits without the use of public highways or bridges or air navigation facilities and

Whereas the agriculture industry of the Commonwealth fully recognizes the importance to it of the further improvement of farm to market roads and its obligation to assume a proper share of the cost of such improvement and is appreciative of the fact that any decrease in taxes on real estate for road purposes brought about by the appropriation of liquid fuels tax funds for local road purposes amounts in some degree to an indirect reimbursement to the industry of liquid fuels taxes paid by it and

Whereas the agriculture industry of the Commonwealth takes the position that full payment of the liquid fuels tax on fuels consumed in farm equipment for the use of public highways or bridges or air navigation facilities places an unfair and excessive burden upon the industry and

Whereas Our appellate courts have held that farmers constitute a proper classification for exemption from taxation and that there is nothing in the Constitution of Pennsylvania prohibiting the Legislature from granting them such exclusion and

Whereas Agriculture is the largest single industry of the Commonwealth and its costs of production directly affect the living costs of the average citizen and

Whereas A reduction to the farmer in the cost of producing farm products should result in a corresponding reduction to the consumer therefore

Section 1 Section seventeen of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) entitled as amended "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herei ndefined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are practically and commercially suitable for use in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropriation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 17 Refunds The Board of Finance and Revenue may refund to distributors taxes penalties and interest paid by them on liquid fuels delivered to the United States government or paid as the result of an error of law or of fact or of both law and fact Claims for [refund] such refunds shall be made under the procedure prescribed by The Fiscal Code

Any person who shall use or buy liquid fuels on which the tax imposed by this act shall have been paid and shall consume the same in the operation of any non-licensed farm tractor or licensed farm tractor when used off the highways for agricultural purposes or non-licensed powered farm machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products shall be reimbursed one-half the amount of such tax

All such claims for reimbursement shall be made upon a form to be furnished by the board of finance and revenue and shall include in addition to such other information as the board may by regulation prescribe the name and address of the claimant the period of time and the number of gallons of liquid fuels used for which reimbursement is claimed a description of the farm machinery in which such liquid fuels have been used and the purposes for which such machinery has been used the size of the farm and part thereof in cultivation on which such liquid fuels have been used each such claim shall contain statements that the liquid fuels for which reimbursement is claimed have been used only for purposes for which reimbursements are permitted that records of the amounts of such fuels used in each piece of farm machinery have been kept and that no part of such claim has been paid except as statede each such claim shall contain a declaration that it and accompanying receipts are true and correct to the best of claimant's knowledge and shall be signed by the claimant or the person claiming on his behalf Every claim shall be accompanied by receipts indicating that the fuels tax was paid on the liquid fuels for which reimbursement is claimed All records of purchases of liquid fuels and use in each tractor or powered machinery shall be kept for a period of two years Every such claim shall be made quarterly for a period represented by the preceding three months and shall be submitted to the Board of Finance and Revenue not later than the fifteenth day of April July October and January following the end of each three-months period and the board shall refuse to consider any claim received or post-marked later than such date The claimant shall satisfy the board that he has paid the tax and that the liquid fuels have been consumed by him in the operation of a tractor or piece of powered machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products The board may require any claimant to furnish such further information proof or fuller explanation as it shall deem necessary The action of the Board of Finance and Revenue in granting or refusing reimbursement shall be final The board shall deduct the sum of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) which shall be considered as a filing fee from every claim for reimbursement granted Such filing fees are hereby specifically appropriated to the Board of Finance and Revenue and to the Department of Revenue for expenses of any nature whatsoever incurred in the administration of the reimbursement provisions of this act the Board of Finance and Revenue shall have the power to refer to the Department of Revenue for investigation any claim for reimbursement filed under the provisions of this act and it shall be the duty of the Department of Revenue to investigate such application and report to the Board of Finance and Revenue relative thereto Any person making any false or fraudulent statement for the purpose of obtaining reimbursement shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1000) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than six (6) months or both

All refunds and reimbursements of moneys allowed hereunder shall be paid from the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund in amounts equal to the original distribution and payment of such moneys into said funds Provided however That reimbursement for taxes paid on liquid fuels consumed in the operation of tractors and powered machinery for purposes relating to the actual production of farm products shall be paid out of the motor license fund

As much of the moneys from time to time in the Motor License Fund and the Liquid Fuels Tax Fund as may be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Board of Finance and Revenue for the purpose of making refunds and reimbursements as herein authorized Estimates of the amounts to be expended from these funds for refunds and reimbursements from time to time by the board shall be submitted to the Governor for his approval or disapproval as in the case of other appropriations to administrative departments boards and commissions and it shall be unlawful for the Auditor General to honor any requisition of the Board of Finance and Revenue for the expenditure of moneys hereunder in excess of the estimates approved by the Governor

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-nine and shall apply only to liquid fuels purchased on and after said date and before the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

Such retirement allowance shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the contributor's accumulated deductions standing to his credit and (b) a State annuity equal to 50% of the final salary of the contributor less the amount which is paid to any such widow or children or dependent parent or parents under the Workmen's Compensation Laws of this Commonwealth during the period such compensation is paid or payable

Section 12 Superannuation Retirement Allowance Any contributor may retire for superannuation by filing with the board a written application for retirement duly attested setting forth on what date he desires to be retired Said application shall make the superannuation retirement allowance effective on the date so specified if such application was filed in the offices of the board or deposited in the United States mail addressed to the board before the date specified in the application and before the death of the contributor Provided however That the date so specified in the application shall not be more than thirty days from the date of filing or despositing the application in the mail

When a contributor retires for superannuation under the provisions of this section he shall be paid a retirement allowance disbursed according to his election as provided in section 15 Such retirement allowance shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account and (b) a State annuity equal to two one-hundredth (2/100) of his final salary for each year of total service and if an original member in addition thereto of two one-hundredth (2/100) of his final salary for each year of prior service but the State annuity shall not exceed fifty (50%) per cent of the contributor's final salary

Section 13 Disability Retirement Allowance In case of the disability of a contributor regardless of the length of service of the contributor a retirement allowance shall be granted the contributor which shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account and (b) a State annuity equal to two one hundredth (2/100) of his final salary multiplied by the number of years service but in any case not less than thirty per centum (30%) nor more than fifty per centum (50%) of said salary

Section 14 Involuntary Retirement Allowances Should a contributor be discontinued from service not voluntarily after having completed ten years of total service or voluntarily after having completed twenty-five years of total service but before reaching superannuation retirement age he shall upon filing of application in the manner herein provided for superannuation retirement be paid as he may elect as follows (a) The full amount of the accumulated deductions standing to his credit or (b) a member's annuity of equivalent actuarial value to his accumulated deductions standing to his credit and in addition a State annuity having a value equal to the present value of a State annuity beginning at superannuation retirement age as provided in this act with respect to State annuities for superannuation retirement The same options shall be available to beneficiaries in case of involuntary retirement as provided herein in the case of superannuation retirement

Section 15 Options on Superannuation Retirement At the time of superannuation retirement any contributor may elect that the retirement allowance be payable in conformance with any one of the following plans

(1) There shall be paid to the beneficiary the actuarial equivalent of the member's and State annuity as a retirement allowance payable throughout his life and upon the beneficiary's death all retirement allowance payments shall cease

(2) If the retirement allowance would be less than ten ($10.00) dollars per month there shall be paid to the beneficiary the full amount of the accumulated deductions standing to his individual credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account

(3) There shall be paid to a beneficiary the actuarial equivalent of the member's and State annuity in a lesser retirement allowance payable throughout life with any one of the following provisions

(a) If the beneficiary die before receiving in payments the present value of his member's annuity and State annuity as it was in the time of his retirement the balance shall be paid to his legal representatives or to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board

(b) Upon his death his member's annuity and State annuity shall be continued through the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board

(c) Upon his death one-half of his member's and State annuity shall be continued through the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board at the time of his retirement

Section 16 Monthly Payments of Retirement Allowances The retirement allowances granted under the provisions of this act shall be paid in equal monthly installments and shall not be increased decreased revoked or repealed unless by an act of Assembly

Section 17 Refunds in Case of Withdrawal or Death Where a contributor resigns from service before becoming entitled to a retirement allowance or where a contributor has died and no application for a retirement allowance shall have been made by a person entitled to claim under the provisions of this act within six months after resignation or death then the amount standing to the credit of the contributor in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account shall be paid to him or to the person nominated by him by written designation duly acknowledged and filed by the contributor with the board or in lieu of such designation such amount shall be paid to his estate

Section 18 Exemption from Taxation and Execution Etc Any money received or to be paid as a member's annuity state annuity or return of deductions or the right to any of these shall be exempt from any State or municipal tax and from levy sale garnishment attachment or any other process whatsoever and shall be unassignable except for a loan not in excess of three hundred ($300) dollars the interest of which shall not exceed six (6%) per centum per annum received by a contributor from a credit union now or hereafter organized or incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth the membership of which credit union is limited solely to officers and employees of the Commonwealth

Section 19 Nomination of Beneficiary Every contributor shall have the authority to change the person nominated by him as the beneficiary by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board up until but not after the time of retirement

Section 20 Fraud Correction of Errors (a) No person shall knowingly make any false statement or shall falsify or permit to be falsified any record or records of the retirement system herein established in any attempt to defraud such system

(b) Should any such change in records fraudulently made or any mistake in records inadvertently made result in any contributor or beneficiary receiving more or less than he would have been entitled to had the records been correct then on the discovery of such error the board shall correct such error and shall adjust the payments which shall be made to the contributor or annuitant in such manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which he was correctly entitled shall be paid

Any person violating any of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand ($1000) dollars or suffer imprisonment not exceeding one year or both in the discretion of the court

Section 21 Medical Expenses The Fund shall upon approval by the board be available for the payment of the necessary and proper medical surgical and hospital expenses incurred as a direct and proximate result of illness contracted or injuries received in the course of a contributor's employment except as otherwise expressly herein provided The fund shall upon approval by the board also be available for the payment of that portion of the necessary and proper medical surgical and hospital expenses not exceeding two hundred ($200) dollars but in excess of twenty-five ($25) dollars incurred by a contributor for any one other illness in the calendar year except as otherwise expressly herein provided However in no event shall any charge for medical surgical or hospital expenses of a contributor whether incurred because of illness contracted or injuries received in the course of or outside of the course of employment be allowed until the contributor has resorted to all other funds that may be rightfully charged with such expenses and there is a balance remaining unpaid

Section 22 Subrogation Where a third person is liable to the member or his dependents for injury or death the Commonwealth shall be subrogated to the right of the member or the dependents against such third person but only to the extent of the State annuity payable under this act by the Commonwealth Any recovery against such third person in excess of the State annuity theretofore paid or thereafter to be paid by the Commonwealth shall be paid forthwith to the contributor or the person designated by the contributor

Section 23 Payments Under Other Laws All payments provided for in this act are in addition to any other benefits now or hereafter provided for under any Workmen's Compensation Law or any other law except as otherwise herein provided

Section 24 Amendments to Law The Legislature shall have the right and the authority to alter strike out add to or amend or supplement any of the provisions of this act or to repeal the entire act and the board shall have the same right and authority with reference to its regulations excepting that no law or regulation shall deprive a contributor of the money standing to his credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account

Section 25 State Employees' Retirement Law to Apply Generally Except as otherwise provided in this act the retirement system established by this act shall be administered in accordance with the laws rules and regulations applying to the State Employees' Retirement System

Section 26 Appropriation The sum of forty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($47,500) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of State for payment into the State Employees' Retirement Fund to cover the additional liability for reserve required by reason of the provisions of this act for the period commencing the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty and ending the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

Section 27 Constitutional Provisions The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 28 Effective Date This act shall become effective January first one thousand nine hundred and fifty

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 438, as follows:

An Act to encourage the suitable useful continual and gainful employment of service disabled veterans through the creation and administration of the Service Disabled Veterans Employment Disability Trust providing for its administration by the Workmen's Compensation Board and payments therefrom in cases of additional disability through accidents in employment and making an appropriation

Section 1 Declaration of Policy and Legislative Intent As a guide to the interpretation of this act the policy and intent of the Legislature is declared to be that (a) this Commonwealth and its people have and should bear the direct responsibility of providing the opportunity for and facilitating the suitable gainful employment of all of its service disabled veterans (b) every veteran in this Commonwealth who is able to work for a living is entitled to a reasonable opportunity to maintain his independence and self-respect through self-support even though he is handicapped by a service connected compensable disability (c) any plan which will reasonably equitably and feasibly operate to break down hinderances and remove obstacles to the employment of service disabled veterans is of vital importance to the Commonwealth and its people (d) it is the considered judgment of this Legislature that the system embodied in this act which makes a logical and equitable adjustment of the liability which the Commonwealth must assume constitutes a practicable and reasonable approach to a solution of the problem for the employment of service disabled veterans

Section 2 Definitions The following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section unless the context clearly requires otherwise

(a) "Service Disabled Veteran" shall mean a person who has a service connected compensable disability as certified to by the Veterans Administration of the United States

(b) "Previous Disability" shall mean the service connected compensable disability of a service disabled veteran

(c) "Additional Disability" shall mean any physical or mental condition including the aggravation of a previous disability which (1) arises out of or in the course of employment and (2) substantially hinders the full and normal functioning of the body or any part thereof

(d) "Consequent Increased Disability" shall mean the degree by which an additional disability by reason of its combination with a previous disability is greater than that which would have resulted from the additional disability alone

(e) "Board" shall mean the Workmen's Compensation Board of the Commonwealth

Section 3 Trust Created Administration (a) There is hereby created the Service Disabled Veterans Employment Disability Trust for the purpose of paying to disabled veterans for additional disability or consequent increased disability compensation payments under the provisions of this act The sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) is hereby appropriated to the Department of Labor and Industry for compensation payable by the Commonwealth under this act for the biennium 1949-1951

(b) The Department of Labor and Industry shall be charged with the conservation of the assets of said appropriation and the Workmen's Compensation Board is hereby authorized and directed to administer the provisions of this act and to promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to so administer the same

(c) The Department of Labor and Industry is hereby authorized to receive and credit to said trust any sum or sums that may at any time be granted given bequeathed or otherwise contributed to the Commonwealth from any source whatsoever for the purpose for which the said trust is established

Section 4 Operation of the Trust (a) The liability of an employer of a service disabled veteran or the liability of the employer's insurance carrier shall be limited to the liability imposed upon him or under the provisions of the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 736) as reenacted and amended by the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1552) entitled as amended "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for injuries received by an employee in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder and prescribing penalties"

(b) When a service disabled veteran incurs an additional disability or a consequent increased disability which is not compensable under the provisions of the aforementioned act compensation for such additional disability or consequent increased disability shall be payable from the Trust

(c) The employer or insurance carrier shall in the first instance pay to the service disabled veteran any benefits due under this act but such employer or insurance carrier shall thereupon be entitled to reimbursement from the said Trust for all payments for additional or consequent increased disability compensable under this act

(d) In the event that liability of said Trust arises under circumstances creating a liability upon any person other than the employer of the service disabled veteran said trust shall share ratably with any other person and shall be subrogated to all rights and remedies of the service disabled veteran

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 780, as follows:

An Act to further amend sections one seven and eighteen of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" by changing the definitions of "week" and "day" and by deleting the wartime provision increasing hours of labor and temporarily suspending certain restrictions on employment and changing the penalty provision

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 1024) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" as last amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 389) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 [Be it enacted &c that the] The term "establishment" when used in this act shall mean any place within this Commonwealth where work is done for compensation of any sort to whomever payable

The term "person" when used in this act shall be construed to include any individual partnership or other unincorporated association corporation Commonwealth and any political subdivision thereof

The term "week" when used in this act shall mean seven consecutive days which may begin on any day of a week and which shall begin on the same calendar day each week [and the] the term "day" shall mean any twenty-four consecutive hours [which may begin at any hour of a day]

Section 2 Section seven of said act as last amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P L 389) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 7 No female shall be employed or permitted to work for more than five hours continuously in or in connection with any establishment without a meal or rest period of at least thirty minutes which period shall not be considered a part of the hours of labor and no period of less than thirty minutes shall be deemed to interrupt a continuous period of work

Employees shall not be required to remain in the work-rooms during the meal or rest periods required by this section [Provided however That where the strict application of the thirty minutes' meal or rest period impedes or interferes with the war effort the Department of Labor and Industry with the approval of the Industrial Board may suspend the provisions of this section]

Section 2 Section eighteen of said act as amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 617) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 18 Any person who whether by himself or for another or through an agent servant or foreman shall violate any provisions of this act shall be subject to the following penalties

Upon conviction for violation of any provision of sections three four five six or seven of this act he shall be punished for a first offense by a fine of not less than ten ($10) dollars and costs or more than fifty ($50) dollars and costs and upon nonpayment thereof be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ten days for a second or subsequent offense by a fine of not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs or more than two hundred ($200) dollars and costs and upon nonpayment thereof by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than sixty days and whenever any person shall have been notified by the Department of Labor and Industry or by the service of a summons in a prosecution that he is violating such provision he shall be punished by like penalties in addition for each and every day that such violation shall have continued after such notification

Upon conviction for a violation of any of the provisions of sections eight nine ten eleven twelve thirteen fourteen or fifteen of this act the punishment shall be without regard to the number of females employed for a first offense not less than twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs or more than fifty ($50) dollars and costs and upon nonpayment thereof imprisonment in the county jail for not more than twenty days for a second or subsequent offense a fine or not less than fifty ($50) dollars and costs or more than two hundred ($200) dollars and costs and upon nonpayment thereof imprisonment in the county jail for not more than sixty days and whenever any person shall have been notified by the Department of Labor and Industry that he is violating such provisions and shall have been given a reasonable time in which to remedy the condition which shall constitute such violation he shall be punished in addition to the penalties aforesaid by like penalties for each and every day that such violation shall have continued after the expiration of the time allowed by the Department of Labor and Industry for remedying the aforesaid condition Provided

First That any person who shall demand evidence such as shall be required by law for the issuing of employment certificates to minors that any applicant for employment or permission to work in or in connection with his establishment is [twenty-one] eighteen years of age and shall receive the same before employing or permitting such applicant to work and who shall have kept the same on file and in the case of such applicant shall have complied with all the requirements of this act applying to a female of the age stated in such evidence of age shall not be liable to punishment for the violation of section five of this act though it shall subsequently appear that such applicant was in fact less than [twenty-one] eighteen years of age Provided That this provision shall not apply to any person who shall demand and receive the evidence herein provided for if he knows at the time of receiving such evidence that the applicant is in fact less than [twenty-one] eighteen years of age nor shall this provision prevent the punishment of any person for violating section five of this act after knowledge of the true age of the female employed

Second Whenever a violation of any provision of this act shall also be a violation of another provision or other provisions of this act penalties may be imposed for the violation of each and every such provision

Third That under no circumstances shall any person be sentenced to imprisonment for more than one year for any one violation of this act

Fourth That whenever a violation of any of the provisions of this act shall also be a violation of the laws of this Commonwealth regulating the hours of labor and conditions of employment of minors penalties shall be imposed under only one of such acts

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Should any dependent of a deceased employe die or remarry or should the widower become capable of self-support the right of such dependent or widower to compensation under this section shall cease. Provided however That upon remarriage of any widow the compensation of such widow shall continue as hereinbefore provided for one-third of the period during which compensation then remains payable to her. Provided further That if upon investigation and hearing it shall be ascertained that the widow or widower is living with a man or woman as the case may be in meretricious relationship and not married or the widow living a life of prostitution the board may order the termination of compensation payable to such widow or widower. If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall for any cause cease the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased.

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed [thirty dollars] thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents per week nor be less than [seventeen dollars] twenty-one dollars and twenty-five cents per week.

This compensation shall be paid during three hundred weeks and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section the compensation of each child shall continue after said period of three hundred weeks until such child reaches the age of sixteen at the rate of seventeen and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [four and a half dollars] five dollars and seventy-five cents per week if there is one child twenty-seven and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [seven dollars] eight dollars and seventy-five cents per week if there are two children thirty-eight and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [ten dollars] twelve dollars and fifty cents per week if there are three children fifty per centum of wages but not in excess of [thirteen dollars] sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents per week if there are four children fifty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of [fourteen dollars] seventeen dollars and fifty cents per week if there are five children and sixty per centum of wages but not in excess of [sixteen] twenty dollars per week if there are six children or more.

The board may if the best interest of a child or children shall so require at any time order and direct the compensation payable to a child or children or to a widow or a widower on account of any child or children to be paid to the guardian of such child or children or if there be no guardian to such other person as the board hereinafter provided may direct. If there be no guardian or committee of any minor dependent or insane employe or dependent on whose account compensation is payable the amount payable on account of such minor dependent or insane employe or dependent may be paid to any surviving parent or to such other person as the board may order and direct and the board may require any person other than a guardian or committee to whom it has directed compensation for a minor dependent or insane employe or dependent to be paid to render as and when it shall so order accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the moneys received by such person.

Section 2 Section three hundred nine of said act as last reenacted and amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 520) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 309 Whenever in this article the term "wages" is used it shall be construed to mean the average weekly wages of the employe ascertained as follows:

(a) If at the time of the accident the wages are fixed by the week the amount so fixed shall be the average weekly wage.

(b) If at the time of the accident the wages are fixed by the month the average weekly wage shall be the monthly wage so fixed multiplied by twelve and divided by fifty-two.

(c) If at the time of the accident the wages are fixed by the year the average weekly wage shall be the yearly wage so fixed divided by fifty-two.

(d) If at the time of the accident the wages are fixed by the day hour or by the output of the employe the average weekly wage shall be the wage most favorable to the employe computed by dividing by thirteen the total wages of said employe earned in the employ of the employer in the first second third or fourth period of thirteen consecutive calendar weeks in the fifty-two weeks immediately preceding the accident or in case the employe receives wages monthly or semi-monthly by dividing by thirteen the total wages of said employe earned in the employ of the employer in the first second third or fourth period of three consecutive calendar months in the year immediately preceding the accident.

If the employe has been in the employ of employer less than thirteen calendar weeks (or three calendar months) if the employe receives wages monthly or semi-monthly immediately preceding the accident his average weekly wage shall be computed under the foregoing paragraph taking "total wages" for such purpose to be the amount he would have earned had he been so employed by employer the full thirteen calendar weeks (or three calendar months) immediately preceding the accident and had worked when work was available to other employes in a similar occupation unless it be conclusively shown that by reason of exceptional causes such methods of computation does not ascertain fairly the "total wages" of employe so employed less than thirteen calendar weeks (or three calendar months).

(e) In occupations which are exclusively seasonal and therefore cannot be carried on throughout the year the average weekly wage shall be taken to be one-fifth of the total wages which the employe has earned from all occupations during the twelve calendar months immediately preceding the accident unless it be shown that during such year by reason of exceptional causes such method of computation does not ascertain fairly the earnings of the employe in which case the period for calculation shall be extended so far as to give a basis for the fair ascertainment of his average weekly earnings.

The terms "average weekly wage" and "total wages" as used in this section shall include board and lodging received from the employer and when so received the board shall be rated at [fifty cents] one dollar per day and board together with lodging shall be rated at [one] dollar two dollars per day but such terms shall not include gratuities received from the employer or others nor shall such terms include amounts deducted by the employer under the contract of hiring for labor furnished or paid for by the employer and necessary for the performance of such contract by the employe nor shall such terms include deductions from wages due the employer for rent and supplies necessary for the employe's use in the performance of his labor.

Where the employe is working under concurrent contracts with two or more employers and the defendant employer has knowledge of such employment prior to the accident his wages from all such employers shall be considered as if earned from the employer liable for compensation.

If under clauses (a) (b) (c) (d) and (e) of this section the amount determined is less than if computed as follows this computation shall apply viz divide the total wages earned by the employe during the last two completed calendar quarters with the same employer by the number of days he worked for such employer during such period multiplied by five.

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-nine

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, in discussing House Bill No. 1048, I hope that the remarks that the speakers make will pertain to the entire list of so-called labor bills.

Mr. President, we have before us House Bill No. 1048, House Bill No. 1049, and House Bill No. 1060, commonly called the Workmen's Compensation, Workmen's Unemployment Compensation, and Workmen's Occupational Disease Compensation bills.

Mr. President, all of us know that the primary struggle in the passage of this legislation was the inclusion within the framework of the Workmen's Compensation and the Occupational Disease Compensation Acts, the so-called "Romig Decision". For those who do not understand is as such, I would like to explain that no matter what the top limit may be in Workmen's Compensation, unless there is a reasonable base from which to compute the payments to the injured workmen, the top limit would mean absolutely nothing. In other words, as it was understood, the bills, preliminary to the inclusion of the "Romig Decision" within the acts, provided that if an injured workmen happened to work in an industry where they were employed on a part time or short time basis, such as the anthracite industry has been experiencing over the years, an individual could be injured on a work day, on a Monday or Tuesday, in an industry that was based on a two day work week, and he would find himself receiving even below the minimum that is contained within the act. Labor's primary struggle, therefore, and labor's primary aim was contained in the amendments offered yesterday by the gentleman from Potter, Senator Berger. These amendments brought this particular legislation up to a par with the base computation period used in any state in the Union. In fact, considering that our state has as its basic industry, coal and steel, I would say that we are far ahead of other states in that particular department, and I want to join with all the others who believe that labor is intitled to certain rights in the legislation passed here in the Senate and House, and I want to join with all the others in complimenting those who had anything to do with the inclusion of these amendments into the acts of Unemployment Compensation, Workmen's Compensation, and Occupational Disease Compensation.

For many, many years, Mr. President, we have tried to raise the so-called benefit period, and benefit payments. At this time, although the labor groups in Pennsylvania, through their representatives made a very valiant fight in the House of Representatives to increase the weekly payments to $35 on the part of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, and $32.50 on the part of the American Federation of Labor, and although the votes were taken in the House, and upon one or two occasions were only defeated by one vote and two votes, the House did succeed in passing one amendment, and that was the one pertaining to the "Romig Decision".

We, the Members of the Senate, who believe that the payments could go a little higher in order that they would compare with states such as New York, Oregon, South Carolina, Texas, and Washington, yet there are a great many persons who, when you mention the fact that they are asking for $35 a week in Workmen's Compensation and Occupational Disease Compensation, throw their hands up in horror, and say, "That is an impossibility. How could anybody pay such an enormous sum for an injured workman?" Yet, we find states like the State of Washington, with $38 a week maximum payment for injured workers, the State of New Jersey with $25, and these figures, mind you, are the figures of the states before this year's meetings of their General Assemblies, and it is understood, of course, that in almost every instance there has been a revision upward in compensation payments in the various states in the Union.

Mr. President, Pennsylvania, up until these amendments were added to these three bills, paid a maximum of $20, and at that particular time, while we were paying and are paying $20 as of the moment, thirty-one other states started the year 1949 paying higher workmen's compensation benefits. I think that is important to know here because I understand that some of the Members of the Senate are voting for this legislation, voting loudly, yes, but shaking their heads negatively, very vigorously, because they feel that the payments are entirely out of line, and too high.

Mr. President, if you understand that workmen's compensation is paid only to injured workmen, then you can see, and I want to lay down at this moment a belief that I have, and a feeling that I have, that we are making one grievous mistake here, and that is when we set the payments for Workmen's Compensation, Occupational Disease Compensation, and Unemployment Compensation on the same basis, and on the same weekly payments. I do not think there is any comparison whatsoever between the three types of compensation. I think Unemployment Compensation ought to stand entirely on its own, because when you are paying a man that is out of work temporarily, that is entirely a different basis of need than when you are paying a man who is injured in employment because I think that the three ought to be separated, and I think we are getting off to a false start in setting up a precedent that some day may injure those of us who are aiming to increase in the future, as the time demands, the payments for occupational and injured workmen's compensation. It does not necessarily follow that the other compensation ought to come up on the same grade. I say that, although there may be a great deal of criticism because of the remarks that I make, but I believe that to be the sounder method of the two, and that we ought to keep that in mind when we again sit down to revise Workmen's Compensation.

Mr. President, it has been a great struggle in Pennsylvania because under our present set up, the basic industry of coal in Pennsylvania suffers very much when payments are increased in Workmen's Compensation, and that because years ago the coal industry allowed itself to be dicriminated against, they allowed themselves to be set up into a seprate classification, and into a fund of their own. Now, knowing the coal industry is a high risk industry, it probably was never called to the attention of the Members of the General Assembly until 1935, 1936 and 1937 that coal was the determining factor in the limited amounts of compensation to be paid because those of us who want to pay the maximum amounts are always confronted with the very serious charge that we are injuring an already injured industry.

Now, if I had my way, and if the coal industry had its way, Mr. President, I am sure that coal would be put into the common pool in order that the rates would then be set upon the total injuries sustained all over the industry. It seems to me that we deal in compensation from the viewpoint of economics too much when, basically and truthfully, workmen's compensation is more or less social legislation than it is economic legislation, and yet however, it is true that if you let economics out of it, we would have no social legislation because of the fact that there must be some relationship between cost and benefits.

Mr. President, I would like to see the day come when we could take and place in Pennsylvania a limit by law, as they have in the state of West Virginia, where they try to protect their coal industry. The state of West Virginia puts the coal industry in a highly favorable competitive position as against Pennsylvania because of increased cost of Compensation as reflected in higher sales cost of the coal production of this Commonwealth, and we all know, as I have already stated on the floor, that we find that industry now rather prostrate and in a difficult situation when it comes to commercial competition. I, for one, will say that sooner or later we must come to it, sooner or later we must take all the risks, and put them together so that we can give greater payments to the injured workmen without doing damage to one industry.

Mr. President, it is too bad that the general commercial industry, the general industry of this Commonwealth of ours, has always been able to use coal as the bulwark of its fight against increased payments for workmen. This $25 maximum is long over due. We, the Democratic Party, have fought for it since 1937. If those of you will allow your minds to go back, you will remember that in 1935 we introduced the first $25 maximum, in 1937 we passed the first $25 maximum compensation law, and had it partially destroyed by a decision of the Supreme Court. I have not thought out the consequences as to whether or not the Supreme Court will maintain the same position if and when this particular bill is taken before them. However, I do say that it is long overdue, but we are not going to be so blind as to say to you that because it is long overdue, we are not welcoming it. We welcome this increased payment to the injured workmen in Pennsylvania. We do say that it could be more, we do say that it should be more, but we are not going to say that we will be against it because it is insufficient. That is one of the oldest tricks in the legislative books.

Years ago they tell me there were certain men who used to serve in the Halls of this Senate, who, when a proposal was made to increase workmen's compensation $1 or $2 per week, would always stand up and demand that it should be increased $8 or $10 per week, and then they would stand in the position and say "If you won't give us $8 or $10, we don't want any", and as a result of that, from 1915 until 1935, there was no increased workmen's compensation benefits in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. We do not take that blind and arrogant attitude. We are grateful for the fact that we, at this time, can say to labor, "Something has been added, some additional benefit has been given", and we also will say that we will continue to believe, and will continue to strive for better and greater benefits as the time demands, so that greater benefits will be paid.

Mr. President, I want to say, in order that all of you understand, there are a great many things I am not going to cover. I am not going to cover the whole field, but in order that you know that we have not reached, as I said last night, the ultimate, we have not reached the ultimate, it might interest you to know this, that Pennsylvania's minimum payment is $7.48 a week, and twenty-two other states in the Union pay more. When you figure that out of the forty-eight states, there are at least twenty-seven of the forty-eight states that are non-industrial in character that are more or less of the agricultural state, you can see that we do not fit very high up on the ladder.

Up until the passage of the act, Pennsylvania's maximum, as I told you before, was $20. Thirty-one states paid more. Pennsylvania's minimum actual wage, if the actual wage is not under $5, is $10 under workmen's compensation, and sixteen states pay more than that. Pennsylvania's total maximum by law is $10,000, and twenty-three states pay more, and I think that it is important that you know this.

Mr. President, I would like to give you one illustration here which ought to be very interesting to those of you who have any compunctions about voting for this legislation today. As to the maximum amount payable for scheduled injuries, twenty-five states in the Union pay more than Pennsylvania. For instance, Wisconsin pays, for the loss of an arm up at the shoulder, $12,950. A great many other states pay sums ranging from $7,000 to $12,950. We find ourselves, in Pennsylvania, in the position of being twenty-sixth on the list of States.

Now, Mr. President, it might interest some of you to know that we are not increasing the benefit period by this legislation, we are increasing benefit payments over the specified weeks now contained within the law. I think that one of the greatest humanitarian and social acts ever passed in this Commonwealth was the original Workmen's Compensation Act. I believe that many helpless workmen were aided in the early days, when under the old act, or rather under the old common law, unless they were influential they could not hope to gain for their families some relief when injured in employment.

Mr. President, I think this is one of the greatest steps forward since 1937, and I want to say at this moment, if the Members of the Senate will analyze the situation, that this step is a very important step in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I join with all friends of labor in the Commonwealth in saying that for the moment we will take this legislation, and hope that in the future, when the need arises, and it does and will arise, we will fight for greater payments.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, in concurring in the remarks of my colleague from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, I would like to add this comment. By the Senate going along in a great part in what was done in the House in computing compensation by the wage rate, a considerable measure of justice is being shown. All of us are glad to see this. The wording used to accomplish this desirable purpose is clear. As we understand it, two purposes are intended, to be fair to both employer and employee. First, compensation is based on the wage rate. If a man is injured and he is thereby prevented from working full time, at least so long as the injury lasts, his compensation should be on the five day week as the standard working time could he work. Secondly, compensation, plus earnings thereafter, should be limited by what the injured man could have earned full time had he not been hurt at his previous occupation. This is important, especially where the man can no longer do what he previously did, and has to accept a job at lower pay. On the other hand, Mr. President, an injured fellow employee does not want the injured man going home with more in his pocket for the week than he got before he was injured.

Under these circumstances, we can accept the amendments, and find in the wording, as we agreed to and understand it, what is fair to all concerned.

Mr. NEFF. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, I might well say that I am in complete accord with everything said by my distinguished colleagues from Westmoreland and from Philadelphia, and it is difficult, and it seems without purpose for me to rise here and speak on these measures when I, too, am going to vote in the affirmative.

Mr. President, I would first like to express my sincere appreciation to those majority Members of the Senate Committee on Labor and Industry who worked so dilligently to see that labor was treated equitably in the matter of the "Romig Decision". I am appreciative for their efforts, and for those Members of the Majority Caucus who also voted in favor of inserting this amendment in this act, but labor has asked for greater consideration than we are being given by the Senate of Pennsylvania, and the House of Pennsylvania in this 1949 Session. We have not asked for anything that we have not found was justified, and to say that by voting for these measures that the trade unionists in this state are getting their full share, were being treated in fairness and with equity, would not be true.

For example, Mr. President, myself and other Members of the Minority Group here in the Senate have introduced for consideration a great number of bills during this session. For instance, Senate Bill No. 360, if acted upon favorably, would have adequately liberalized the Compulsory Occupational Disease Act; Senate Bill No. 361 would have adequately liberalized the Compulsory Workmen's Compensation Act; Senate Bill No. 520 would have made vocational rehabilitation complete; Senate Bill No. 314 would have removed experience rating; Senate Bill No. 316 would have adequately liberalized benefits; Senate Bill No. 518 would have extended the coverage footing; Senate Bill No. 166 would have repealed the 1947 law against state employes; Senate Bill No. 256 would have extended Civil Service to qualified 1943 employes; Senate Bill No. 79 would have equalized the anti-injunction laws; and Senate Bill No. 309 would have established a standard forty hour work week for women, and so on.

Mr. President, we have introduced many measures during this Session, and the sum total of our gains for labor and for the working people of the Commonwealth has been an increase of $5 per week in unemployment Compensation, $5 per week additional to the Occupational Disease Act, and $5 per week to the Workmen's Compensation Act. Now, these things we have asked for, we have felt fair. For instance, in the Occupational Disease Act, we find that a worker in Pennsylvania, disabled because of silicosis contracted in the mills and the mines of Pennsylvania, receives as a total payment the sum of $5,000, or an amount that he might well be able to have earned, had he not been disabled because of silicosis, in a year or two years at the most.

Mr. President, we have had in the last four years in Pennsylvania 1,546 eligible claims submitted to the Workmen's Compensation Bureau because of silicosis. Now, it is my contention that a man who is disabled because he has contractor silicosis, is just as disabled as though he had had his legs cut off, or his arms cut off, or were blinded. Yet, if a man is blinded in Pennsylvania, if he is totally disabled, he will receive far greater benefits than a man who is afflicted with silicosis.

So, Mr. President, I submit that to eliminate silicosis from full coverage under the Occupational Disease Act is an injustice to those workers in the foundries, mills, factories, mines and quarries of this state who are subject to this type of industrial disease.

Mr. President, I had hoped when I came down here that we might do something in the 1949 Session of this legislature to correct this inequity. Well, we have done nothing except raise the benefits from $4500 to $5000. As the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, has painted out, there are a great many states in the Union that more adequately cover and protect the workmen than we do here in Pennsylvania, the greatest of all industrial states. In Pennsylvania, for death in a mine, or factory, or if a workmen is totally disabled, with certain exceptions, the limit in payment under this new amended Act amounts to $12,500. We have at least twenty other states that pay, for total disability, $20, $25, and $31 a month for life, and for death, to the widow, for the term of her widowhood, and scale payments for children up to the age of eighteen.

Now, Mr. President, it seems to me that we have not fully considered the responsibilities of industry, and of the Commonwealth, and of the Senate of Pennsylvania in saying to our peoples in the mills and the mines, that if you are killed in industry, $12,500 is the total payment that will be paid to your heirs, or if you are totally disabled $12,500 is the total that you can receive under the Workmen's Compensation Act, or the Occupational Disease Act. I think that we here in Pennsylvania should not be second to any state in the Nation in the care and consideration of our workmen.

And the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1049, as follows:

An Act to further amend section four hundred four of the act approved the fifth day of December one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897) entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis requiring employers to keep records and make reports and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons providing procedure and administrative details for the determination payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer and prescribing penalties" by increasing benefits

Section 1 Section four hundred four of the act approved the fifth day of December one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2897) entitled "An act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis requiring employers to keep records and make reports and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons providing procedure and administrative details for the determination payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer and prescribing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the thirtieth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1186) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 404 Rate and Amount of Compensation Compensation shall be paid to each eligible employee in accordance with the following provisions of this section except that compensation payable with respect to weeks ending in benefit years which begin prior to the first day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-nine shall be paid on the basis of the provisions of this section in effect at the beginning of such benefit years

(a) The employee's weekly benefit rate shall be that rate which appears in "Part B" and which is on the same horizontal line in "Part A" as the interval which includes his "highest quarterly wage"

(b) The "highest quarterly wages" of an employee shall be the total wages (computed to the nearest dollar) which were paid to such employee in that calendar quarter in which such total wages were highest during the base year

(d) Each eligible employee who is unemployed with respect to any week shall be paid with respect to such week compensation in an amount equal to his weekly benefit rate less that part of the remuneration if any paid or payable to him with respect to such week which is in excess of three dollars ($3.00) such compensation if not a multiple of one dollar ($1.00) shall be computed to the next higher multiple of one dollar ($1.00) Provided That if at the end of any calendar quarter the balance in the Unemployment Trust Fund to the credit of Pennsylvania is less than one and one-half times the highest amount paid out for compensation less any refunds during any twelve consecutive months the maximum amount of compensation payable to any employee for a week of unemployment ending during the next calendar quarter shall not be in excess of [eighteen dollars ($18)] twenty dollars ($20)

(e) Any otherwise eligible employee shall be entitled during his benefit year to an amount equal to his weekly benefit rate multiplied by the number which appears at the top of a column under "Part C" to be ascertained by locating on the same horizontal line on which his weekly benefit rate appears the interval which includes the total wages paid to him during his base year Provided That if at the end of any calendar quarter the balance in the Unemployment Trust Fund to the credit of Pennsylvania is less than one and one-half times the highest amount paid out for compensation less any refunds during any twelve consecutive months no employee shall be paid compensation with respect to weeks of unemployment ending during the next calendar quarter in an amount which together with any amounts previously paid with respect to the same benefit year would be in excess of [sixteen] twenty times the employee's weekly benefit rate or [two hundred and eighty-eight dollars ($288)] four hundred dollars ($400) whichever is the lesser [And provided further That no employee shall be paid compensation in excess of twenty times his weekly benefit rate with respect to any benefit year which begins prior to the first day of October one thousand nine hundred forty-seven]

(f) For purposes of this section and of section four hundred one (a) wages paid with respect to employment performed under Shipping Articles shall be considered as having been paid in the respective calendar quarters in which the services of the employee were being performed

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,
The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House bill No. 1060, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employe arising out of and in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry the Workmen's Compensation Board Workmen's Compensation Referees and deans of medical schools creating a medical issues establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases making an appropriation and prescribing penalties" by making beryllium poisoning an occupation disease changing the maximum and minimum rates and total amounts and aggregate of compensation extending the time in which disability must occur and further defining conditions for payment

Section 1 Clause (a) of section one hundred eight and section two hundred four of the act approved the twenty-first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566) entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employe arising out of and in the course of employment establishing an elective schedule of compensation providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry the Workmen's Compensation Board Workmen's Compensation Referees and deans of medical schools creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases making an appropriation and prescribing penalties" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 108 The term "occupational disease" as used in this act shall mean only the following diseases

(A) Poisoning by arsenic lead mercury [or] maganese or beryllium their preparations or compounds in any occupation involving direct contact with handling thereof or exposure thereto

Section 204 No agreement compensation or release of damages made before the date of any disability or death resulting from occupational disease except the agreement defined in article three of this act shall be valid or shall bar a claim for damages for such disability or death and any such agreement other than that defined in article three herein is declared to be against the public policy of this Commonwealth The receipt of benefits from any association society or fund shall not bar the recovery of damages by action at law nor the recovery of compensation under article three hereof and any release executed in consideration of such benefits shall be void provided however that if the employee receives unemployment compensation benefits such amount or amounts so received shall be credited as against the amount of the award made under the provisions of the occupational disease act

Section 2 Clauses (A) and (C) of section three hundred one clause (A) of which was amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (Pamphlet Laws 661) clauses (A) (B) (C) and (F) of section three hundred six and section three hundred seven of said act as amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five P. L. 661) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 301 (a) When employer and employee shall by agreement either express or implied as hereinafter provided accept the provisions of article three of this act compensation for disability or death of such employee caused by occupational disease arising out of and in the course of his employment shall be paid by the employer without regard to negligence according to the schedule contained in sections three hundred and six and three hundred and seven of this article but

1 No compensation shall be paid when the disability or death is caused by the employee's violation of law but the burden of proof of such fact shall be upon the employer

2 The maximum compensation payable under this article for disability and death resulting from silicosis anthraco-silicosis or asbestosis shall not exceed the sum of [four thousand dollars ($4000)] five thousand dollars ($5000) which shall be full and complete payment for all disability present or future or for death from such occupational diseases arising out of employment by any and all employers in this Commonwealth

(c) Compensation for the occupational diseases enumerated in this act shall be paid only when such occupational disease is peculiar to the occupation or industry in which the employee was engaged and not common to the general population [and occurring within one year after the date of his last employment in such occupation or industry] whenever compensable disability or death is mentioned as a cause for compensation under this act it shall mean only compensable disability or death resulting from occupational disease and occurring within three years after the date of his last employment in such occupation or industry

Section 306 The following schedule of compensation is hereby established for total disability resulting from occupational disease subject to the limitations of section 301

(a) For the first five hundred weeks after the seventh day of total disability sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the wages of the disabled employee as defined in section three hundred and nine but the compensation shall not be more than twenty-five dollars per week nor less than [ten dollars] twelve dollars and fifty cents per week and shall not exceed in the aggregate the sum of [ten thousand] twelve thousand five hundred dollars Provided That if at the date when disability begins the employee receives wages of less than [ten dollars] twelve dollars and fifty cents per week then he shall receive the full amount of such wages per week as compensation but in no event less than six dollars and twenty-five cents per week Nothing in this clause shall require payment of compensation after disability shall cease Should partial disability be followed by total disability the period of five hundred weeks mentioned in this clause of this section shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which compensation was paid for such partial disability

(b) For disability partial in character (except the particular cases mentioned in clause (c) ) sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the difference between the wages of the disabled employee as defined in section three hundred and nine and the earning power of the employee thereafter but such compensation shall not be more than [seventeen dollars] twenty-one dollars and twenty-five cents per week This compensation shall be paid during the period of such partial disability not however beyond three hundred weeks after the seventh day of disability Should total disability be followed by partial disability the period of three hundred weeks mentioned in this clause shall be reduced by the number of weeks during which compensation was paid for total disability The term "earning power" as used in this section shall in no case be less than the weekly amount which the employee receives after disability begins and shall in no case be less than five times his actual daily wage as fixed by the day hour or by the output of the employee and in no instance shall an employee receiving compensation under this section receive more in compensation and wages combined than a fellow employee in similar employment

(c) For all disability resulting from loss or loss of the use of members resulting from occupational disease the compensation shall be exclusively as follows

Section 307 In case of death resulting from occupational disease compensation shall be computed on the following basis and distributed to the following persons subject to the limitations of section 301

1 If there be no widow nor widower entitled to compensation compensation shall be paid to the guardian of the child or children or if there be no guardian to such other persons as may be designated by the board as hereinafter provided as follows

(a) If there be one child twenty-five per centum of wages of deceased but not in excess of [seven] eight dollars and seventy-five cents per week

(b) If there be two children thirty-five per centum of wages of deceased but not in excess of [ten dollars] twelve dollars and fifty cents per week

(c) If there be three children forty-five per centum of wages of deceased but not in excess of [thirteen] sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents per week

(d) If there be four children fifty-five per centum of wages of deceased but not in excess of [sixteen dollars] twenty dollars per week

(e) If there be five children sixty-two and one-half per centum of wages of deceased but not in excess of [eighteen] twenty-two dollars and fifty cents per week

(f) If there be six or more children sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of wages of deceased but not in excess of twenty-five dollars per week

2 To the widow or widower if there be no children forty-four per centum of wages but not in excess of [twelve] fifteen dollars per week

3 To the widow or widower if there be one child fifty-three per centum of wages but not in excess of [fifteen dollars] eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents per week

4 To the widow or widower if there be two children sixty-two and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [eighteen] twenty-two dollars and fifty cents per week

5 To the widow or widower if there be three or more children sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of wages but not in excess of twenty-five dollars per week

6 If there be neither widow nor children entitled to compensation then to the father or mother if dependent to any extent upon the employee at the time of his death twenty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of [six] seven dollars and fifty cents per week. Provided however That in the case of a minor child who has been contributing to his parents the dependency of said parents shall be presumed. And provided further That if the father or mother was totally dependent upon the deceased employee at the time of his death the compensation payable to such father or mother shall be forty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of [eleven] thirteen dollars and seventy-five cents per week

7 If there be neither widow or widower children nor dependent parent entitled to compensation then to the brothers and sisters if actually dependent upon the decedent for support at the time of his death fifteen per centum of wages for one brother or sister and five per centum additional for each additional brother or sister with a maximum of twenty-five per centum such compensation to be paid to their guardian or if there be no guardian to such other person as may be designated by the board as hereinafter provided

8 Whether or not there be dependents as aforesaid the reasonable expense of burial not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars which shall be paid by the employer or insurer directly to the undertaker (without deduction of any amounts theretofore paid for compensation or for medical expenses)

Compensation shall be payable under this section to or on account of any child brother or sister only if and while such child brother or sister is under the age of sixteen. No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widow unless she was living with her deceased husband at the time of his death or was then actually dependent upon him and receiving from him a substantial portion of her support. No compensation shall be payable under this section to a widower unless he be incapable of self-support at the time of his wife's death and be at such time dependent upon her for support. If members of decedent's household at the time of his death the terms "child" and "children" shall include stepchildren adopted children and children to whom he stood in loco parentis and shall include posthumous children. Should any dependent of a deceased employee die or remarry or should the widower become capable of self-support the right of such dependent or widower to compensation under this section shall cease. Provided however That upon remarriage of any widow the compensation of such widow shall continue as hereinbefore provided for one-third of the period during which compensation then remains payable to her. Provided further That if upon investigation and hearing it shall be ascertained that the widow or widower is living with a man or woman as the case may be in meretricious relationship and not married or the widow living a life of prostitution the board may order the termination of compensation payable to such widow or widower. If the compensation payable under this section to any person shall for any cause cease the compensation to the remaining persons entitled thereunder shall thereafter be the same as would have been payable to them had they been the only persons entitled to compensation at the time of the death of the deceased.

The wages upon which death compensation shall be based shall not in any case be taken to exceed [thirty dollars] thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents per week nor be less than [seventeen dollars] twenty-one dollars and twenty-five cents per week.

This compensation shall be paid during three hundred weeks and in the case of children entitled to compensation under this section the compensation of each child shall continue after said period of three hundred weeks until such child reaches the age of sixteen at the rate of seventeen and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [four and a half dollars] five dollars and seventy-five cents per week if there is one child twenty-seven and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [seven] eight dollars and seventy-five cents per week if there are two children thirty-eight and one-half per centum of wages but not in excess of [ten dollars] twelve dollars and fifty cents per week if there are three children fifty per centum of wages but not in excess of [thirteen] sixteen dollars and twenty-five cents per week if there are four children fifty-five per centum of wages but not in excess of [fourteen] seventeen dollars and fifty cents per week if there be five children and sixty per centum of wages but not in excess of [sixteen dollars] twenty dollars per week if there be six children or more.

The board may if the best interest of a child or children shall so require at any time order and direct the compensation payable to a child or children or to a widow or a widower on account of any child or children to be paid to the guardian of such child or children or if there be no guardian to such other person as the board as hereinafter provided may direct. If there be no guardian or committee of any minor dependent or insane employee or dependent on whose account compensation is payable the amount payable on account of such minor dependent or insane employee or dependent may be paid to any surviving parent or to such other person as the board may order and direct and the board may require any person other than a guardian or committee to whom it has directed compensation for a minor dependent or insane employee or dependent to be paid to render as and when it shall so order accounts of the receipts and disbursements of such person and to file with it a satisfactory bond in a sum sufficient to secure the proper application of the moneys received by such person.

Section 3 Clause (a) of section three hundred eight of said act as last amended by the act approved the twelfth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-one (Pamphlet Laws 125) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 308 (a) When compensation is awarded because of disability or death caused by silicosis anthracosis-silicosis asbestosis or any other occupational disease which developed to the point of disablement only after an exposure of five or more years the compensation for disability or death due to such disease shall be paid jointly by the employer and the Commonwealth in accordance with the following provisions if disability begins between October 1 1939 and September 30 1941 both dates inclusive the employer shall be liable for and pay fifty per centum of the compensation due and the Commonwealth fifty per centum thereof thereafter depending upon the date when disability begins the proportions of compensation for which the employer and the Commonwealth shall respectively become liable shall be if disability begins between October 1 1941 and September 30 1943 the employer sixty per centum and the Commonwealth forty per centum if between October 1 1943 and September 30 1945 the employer seventy per centum and the Commonwealth thirty per centum if between October 1 1945 and September 30 1947 the employer eighty per centum and the Commonwealth twenty per centum if between October 1 1947 and September 30 [1949] 1951 the employer ninety per centum and the Commonwealth ten per centum the employer shall pay the full amount of compensation provided in this act for disability or death in all cases where disability begins on or after October 1 [1949] 1951.

Section 4 Section three hundred nine and four hundred two of said act are hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 309 Wherever in this article the term "wages" is used it shall be construed to mean the average weekly wages of the employee ascertained as follows:

(a) If at the time of the disability the wages are fixed by the week the amount so fixed shall be the average weekly wage.

(b) If at the time of the disability the wages are fixed by the month the average weekly wage shall be the monthly wage so fixed multiplied by twelve and divided by fifty-two.

(c) If at the time of the disability the wages are fixed by the year the average weekly wage shall be the yearly wage so fixed divided by fifty-two.

(d) If at the time of the disability the wages are fixed by the day hour or by the output of the employee the average weekly wage shall be the wage most favorable to the employee computed by dividing by thirteen the total wages of said employee earned in the employ of the employer in the first second third or fourth period of thirteen consecutive calendar weeks in the fifty-two weeks immediately preceding the accident or in case the employee receives wages monthly or semimonthly by dividing by thirteen the total wages of said employee earned in the employ of the employer in the first second third or fourth period of three consecutive calendar months in the year immediately preceding the accident.

If the employee has been in the employ of employer less than thirteen calendar weeks (or three calendar months) if the employee receives wages monthly or semi-monthly immediately preceding the disability his average weekly wage shall be computed under the foregoing paragraph taking "total wages" for such purpose to be the amount he would have earned had he been so employed by employer the full thirteen calendar weeks (or three calendar months) immediately preceding the disability and had worked when work was available to other employees in a similar occupation unless it be conclusively shown that by reason of exceptional causes such method of computation does not ascertain fairly the "total wages" of the employee so employed less than thirteen calendar weeks (or three calendar months).

(e) In occupations which are exclusively seasonal and therefore cannot be carried on through the year the average weekly wage shall be taken to be one-fiftieth of the total wages which the employee has earned from all occupations during the twelve calendar months immediately preceding the disability unless it be shown that during such year by reason of exceptional causes such method of computation does not ascertain fairly the earnings of the employee in which case the period for calculation shall be extended so far as to give a basis for the fair ascertainment of his average weekly earnings.

The terms "average weekly wage" and "total wages" as used in this section shall include board and lodging received from the employer and when so received the board shall be rated at fifty cents per day and board together with lodging shall be rated at one dollar per day but such terms shall not include gratuities received from the employer or others nor shall such terms include amounts deducted by the employer under the contract of hiring for labor furnished or paid for by the employer and necessary for the performance of such contract by the employe nor shall such terms include deductions from wages due the employer for rent and supplies necessary for the employe's use in the performance of his labor

"New Member" a person who became a fish warden subsequent to December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred twenty-four

"Prior Service" shall mean State service prior to January first one thousand nine hundred twenty-four

"Regular Interest" interest at the rate of four per centum compounded annually

"Retirement Allowance" the State annuity plus the member's annuity

"State Annuity" payments for life derived from contributions made by the Commonwealth

"Superannuation Retirement Age" shall mean sixty years of age

Section 2 Fish Warden's Retirement System A retirement system is hereby established for the fish wardens of the Board of Fish Commissioners which system shall be administered by the State Employees' Retirement Board of the Department of State

Section 3 Administrative Expenses The expense of the administration of this act exclusive of the payment of retirement allowances and other benefits shall be paid by the Commonwealth by biennial appropriations out of the General Fund made on the basis of estimates submitted by the board

Section 4 Payments into State Employees' Retirement Fund All payments or appropriations made from the Fish Fund all contributions by fish wardens of the Fish Commissioners in the amount hereinafter specified and all interest on and increase of the investments and moneys under this act shall be paid into the State Employees' Retirement Fund and shall be credited to the proper accounts in said fund as provided by law applying to said fund. The Fish Commissioners shall on receiving the certification of the board periodically contribute such sums of money as the actuary shall estimate shall be required to annually meet the obligations incurred or to be incurred and to establish the reserves provided for in this act

Section 5 Rules and Regulations Actuarial Data Appropriations to Fund The board shall from time to time establish such rules and regulations for the administration of this act as may be deemed necessary. It shall keep such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuation purposes. The actuary of the board shall periodically make an actuarial investigation into the mortality and service experience of the contributors to and beneficiaries of the fund and shall adopt for the retirement system one or more mortality tables and certify to the board biennially the amount of contributions required to be made by the Fish Commissioners to the fund to build up and maintain adequate reserves for the payment of the State's share of the retirement allowances and other disbursements provided by this act

Section 6 Compulsory Membership Every fish warden of the Board of Fish Commissioners shall be required to become a member of the retirement system established by this act on January first one thousand nine hundred fifty and thereafter when first becoming a fish warden of the Fish Commissioners. Contributions by members under this act shall commence with the first payroll after January first one thousand nine hundred fifty. If any fish warden of the Board of Fish Commissioners shall have been at any time theretofore in the Commonwealth employed he shall receive credit for all such service prior to January first one thousand nine hundred fifty upon complying with the provisions of this act

Section 7 Commonwealth Guarantee Biennial Budgets The regular interest charges payable and the creation and maintenance of the necessary reserves for the payment of the State and members' annuities in accordance with this act are hereby made obligations of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The board shall prepare and submit to the budget secretary on or before the first day of November of each even-numbered year an itemized estimate of the amounts necessary to be paid or appropriated by the Fish Commissioners to complete the payments of the obligations of the Commonwealth during the fiscal biennium beginning June first of the following year

Section 8 Service Allowance In computing the length of service of a contributor for retirement purposes full credit shall be given to each contributor for each year of service rendered to the Commonwealth including service rendered prior to January first one thousand nine hundred fifty upon complying with the provisions of this act. As soon as practicable the retirement board shall issue to each original member a certificate certifying the aggregate length of his service prior to January first one thousand nine hundred twenty-four. Such certificate shall be final and conclusive as to his prior service unless thereafter modified by the board upon application of the contributor. The time during which a contributor is absent from service without pay shall not be counted in computing the service of a contributor unless approved by the board

Section 9 Payments by Contributors All original and new members shall be required to contribute into the fund at the same rate of contribution according to age as is required of State employees contributing at the one one-hundredth rate under the State Employees' Retirement Act. All fish wardens who were not members of the State Employees' Retirement System shall have the option of becoming original members of the retirement system established by this act but shall be required to pay into the fund a sum equal to all back payments which such person would have made had he become a member of the State Employees' Retirement System when the same was established. In like manner any new member may elect to make back payments to the date when he first entered the service of the Board of Fish Commissioners. Such back payments or original and new members may be spread over a period of years by having the regular payroll deduction of the contributor increased by not less than one-third of the amount thereof which deduction increase shall be credited to such back payments owing and shall be continued until the full amount of such back payments have been completed. Any such deduction increase may be anticipated in part or in full by the contributor at any time and shall be anticipated in full at the time of retirement before a retirement allowance is granted and if not so anticipated then his member's annuity shall be calculated on the total accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the fund and the State annuity shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the reduction which occurs in the member's annuity due to the amount of back payments not so anticipated

Every contributor who was a member of the State Employees' Retirement System shall receive full credit under this act for all contributions made into the fund and for all service credits to which he was entitled under the State Employees' Retirement System

Section 10 Contributions by the Commonwealth The Board of Fish Commissioners of the Commonwealth shall contribute from time to time sufficient moneys to build up the reserves required to pay to each contributor upon superannuation retirement a State annuity equal to two one-hundredth (1/100) of his final salary for each year of total service and in addition thereto if an original member of two one-hundredth (2/100) of his final salary for each year of prior service

The amounts to be paid by the Fish Commissioners into the State Employees' Retirement Fund shall be apportioned in the same ratio as the salaries of the employees of the Board of Fish Commissioners

Section 11 Payments Upon Death If the board shall find that a contributor died as a direct and proximate result of injuries received in the course of his employment or while on disability retirement allowance resulting from such injuries a retirement allowance shall be paid to his widow so long as she remains his widow and if and when such widow dies or remarries then to his children under eighteen (18) years of age while they are under eighteen (18) years of age and if and when there are no children under eighteen (18) years of age then to the members parent or parents if they are dependent

Such retirement allowance shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the contributor's accumulated deductions standing to his credit and (b) a State annuity equal to fifty per centum (50%) of the final salary of the contributor less the amount which is paid to any such widow or children or dependent parent or parents under the Workmen's Compensation Laws of this Commonwealth during the period such compensation is paid or payable

Section 12 Superannuation Retirement Allowance Any contributor who has reached the superannuation retirement age may retire for superannuation by filing with the board a written application for retirement duly attested setting forth on what date he desires to be retired. Said application shall make the superannuation retirement allowance effective on the date so specified if such application was filed in the offices of the board or deposited in the United States mail addressed to the board before the date specified in the application and before the death of the contributor provided however That the date so specified in the application shall not be more than thirty days from the date of filing or depositing the application in the mail

When a contributor retires for superannuation under the provisions of this section he shall be paid a retirement allowance disbursed according to his election as provided in section fifteen. Such retirement allowance shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account and (b) a State annuity equal to two one-hundredth (2/100) of his final salary for each year of total service and if an original member in addition thereto of two one-hundredth (2/100) of his final salary for each year of prior service but the State annuity shall not exceed fifty per centum (50%) of the contributor's final salary.

Section 13 Disability Retirement Allowance. In case of the disability of a contributor regardless of the length of service of the contributor a retirement allowance shall be granted the contributor which shall consist of (a) a member's annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated deductions standing to his credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account and (b) a State annuity equal to two one-hundredth (2/100) of his final salary multiplied by the number of years service but in any case not less than thirty per centum (30%) nor more than fifty per centum (50%) of said salary.

Section 14 Involuntary Retirement Allowances. Should a contributor be discontinued from service not voluntarily after having completed ten years of total service or voluntarily after having completed twenty-five years of total service but before reaching superannuation retirement age he shall upon filing of application in the manner herein provided for superannuation retirement be paid as he may elect as follows: (a) The full amount of the accumulated deductions standing to his credit or (b) a member's annuity of equivalent actuarial value to his accumulated deductions standing to his credit and in addition a State annuity having a value equal to the present value of a State annuity beginning at superannuation retirement age as provided in this act with respect to State annuities for superannuation retirement. The same options shall be available to beneficiaries in case of involuntary retirement as provided herein in the case of superannuation retirement.

Section 15 Options on Superannuation Retirement. At the time of superannuation retirement any contributor may elect that the retirement allowance be payable in conformance with any one of the following plans:

(1) There shall be paid to the beneficiary the actuarial equivalent of the member's and State annuity as a retirement allowance payable throughout his life and upon the beneficiary's death all retirement allowance payments shall cease.

(2) If the retirement allowance would be less than ten dollars ($10) per month there shall be paid to the beneficiary the full amount of the accumulated deductions standing to his individual credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account.

(3) There shall be paid to a beneficiary the actuarial equivalent of the member's and State annuity in a lesser retirement allowance payable throughout life with any one of the following provisions:

(a) If the beneficiary die before receiving in payments the present value of his member's annuity and State annuity as it was in the time of his retirement the balance shall be paid to his legal representatives or to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board.

(b) Upon his death his member's annuity and State annuity shall be continued through the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board.

(c) Upon his death one-half of his member's and State annuity shall be continued through the life of and paid to such person having an insurable interest in his life as he shall nominate by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board at the time of his retirement.

Section 16 Monthly Payments of Retirement Allowances. The retirement allowances granted under the provisions of this act shall be paid in equal monthly installments and shall not be increased decreased revoked or repealed unless by an act of Assembly.

Section 17 Refunds in Case of Withdrawal or Death. Where a contributor resigns from service before becoming entitled to a retirement allowance or where a contributor has died and no application for a retirement allowance shall have been made by a person entitled to claim under the provisions of this act within six months after resignation or death then the amount standing to the credit of the contributor in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account shall be paid to him or to the person nominated by him by written designation duly acknowledged and filed by the contributor with the board or in lieu of such designation such amount shall be paid to his estate.

Section 18 Exemption from Taxation and Execution. Etc. Any money received or to be paid as a member's annuity State annuity or return of deductions or the right to any of these shall be exempt from any State or municipal tax and from levy sale garnishment attachment or any other process whatsoever and shall be unassignable except for a loan not in excess of three hundred dollars ($300) the interest of which shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum received by a contributor from a credit union now or hereafter organized or incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth the membership of which credit union is limited solely to officers and employees of the Commonwealth.

Section 19 Nomination of Beneficiary. Every contributor shall have the authority to change the person nominated by him as the beneficiary by written designation duly acknowledged and filed with the board up until but not after the time of retirement.

Section 20 Fraud Correction of Errors. (a) No person shall knowingly make any false statement or shall falsify or permit to be falsified any record or records of the retirement system herein established in any attempt to defraud such system.

(b) Should any such change in records fraudulently made or any mistake in records inadvertently made result in any contributor or beneficiary receiving more or less than he would have been entitled to had the records been correct then on the discovery of such error the board shall correct such error and shall adjust the payments which shall be made to the contributor or annuitant in such manner that the actuarial equivalent of the benefit to which he was correctly entitled shall be paid.

Any person violating any of the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1000) or suffer imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year or both in the discretion of the court.

Section 21 Medical Expenses. The fund shall upon approval by the board be available for the payment of the necessary and proper medical surgical and hospital expenses incurred as a direct and proximate result of illness contracted or injuries received in the course of a contributor's employment except as otherwise expressly herein provided. The fund shall upon approval by the board also be available for the payment of that portion of the necessary and proper medical surgical and hospital expenses not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200) but in excess of twenty-five dollars ($25) incurred by a contributor for any one other illness in the calendar year except as otherwise expressly herein provided. However in no event shall any charge for medical surgical or hospital expenses of a contributor whether incurred because of illness contracted or injuries received in the course of or outside of the course of employment be allowed until the contributor has resorted to all other funds that may be rightfully charged with such expenses and there is a balance remaining unpaid

Section 22 Subrogation Where a third person is liable to the member or his dependents for injury or death the Commonwealth shall be subrogated to the right of the member or the dependents against such third person but only to the extent of the State annuity payable under this act by the Commonwealth. Any recovery against such third person in excess of the State annuity thereto-for paid or thereafter to be paid by the Commonwealth shall be paid forthwith to the contributor or the person designated by the contributor

Section 23 Payments Under Other Laws All payments provided for in this act are in addition to any other benefits now or hereafter provided for under any Workmen's Compensation Law or any other law except as otherwise herein provided

Section 24 Amendments to Law The Legislature shall have the right and the authority to alter stroke out add to or amend or supplement any of the provisions of this act or to repeal the entire act and the board shall have the same right and authority with reference to its regulations excepting that no law or regulation shall deprive a contributor of the money standing to his credit in the Member's Annuity Reserve Account

Section 25 State Employees' Retirement Law to Apply Generally Except as otherwise provided in this act the retirement system established by this act shall be administered in accordance with the laws rules and regulations applying to State Employees' Retirement System

Section 26 Appropriation the sum of fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of State for payment into the State Employees' Retirement Fund to cover the additional liability for reserve required by reason of the provisions of this act for the period commencing the first day of January one thousand nine hundred fifty and ending the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred fifty-one

Section 27 Constitutional Provisions The provisions of this act are severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions. It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included herein

Section 28 Effective Date This act shall become effective January first one thousand nine hundred fifty

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR SENATE BILL
No. 688, PRINTER'S No. 349

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WALKER, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), that Senate Bill No. 688, Printer's No. 349, entitled "An act to further amend sections two hundred ten and five hundred eleven of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1242) entitled 'An act relating to roads streets highways and bridges amending revising consolidating and changing the laws administered by the Secretary of Highways and by the Department of Highways relating thereto' establishing one procedure for changing altering or establishing the width lines locations or grades of State highways in townships and boroughs and incorporated towns," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO MAKE A STUDY OF THE LAWS RELATING TO ALL FISH, ANIMALS OF AQUATIC HABITS, AMPHIBIANS AND OTHER AQUATIC LIFE

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. SNOWDEN and KEPHART, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949

Whereas, There is an urgent need to investigate and study existing laws concerning fish, frogs, terrapin, animals of aquatic habits, amphibian and other aquatic life, in the waters of this Commonwealth; Therefore, Be It

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed and authorized to review, investigate, study and consider all of the laws relating to fish, frogs, terrapin, animals of aquatic habits, amphibian and other aquatic life, in the waters of this Commonwealth, the laws providing for control over the same, the laws regulating the aquisition and improvement of lands and waters for the protection of animals of aquatic habits, to restate and codify all such laws, and to report its findings, with drafts of proposed legislation embodying its recommendations, to the next regular session of the General Assembly.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STIEFEL asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, several weeks ago there was placed on our desks a publication known as the Catalogue of Historical Scenes and Buildings in Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I want to pay tribute to the Joint Government Commission for this fine publication. There is no more fascinating subject than the glorious past of Pennsylvania, and unfortunately many buildings, many historical sites, have been demolished and carelessly erased by people who are not attuned to the historical and glorious past of Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. President, this study is not complete because legislation was not evolved that would help us to cope with the situation. Accordingly, on behalf of my colleagues, the gentleman from Somerset, Senator Hare, the gentleman from Warren, Senator Chapman, the gentleman from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, the gentleman from York, Senator Leader, the gentleman from Berks, Senator Ruth, the gentleman from Lancaster, Senator Diehm, the gentleman from Union, Senator Wolfe, and myself, I offer the following resolution, and ask for its immediate adoption.

SENATE RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION TO CONTINUE ITS STUDY AND SURVEY OF THE RESTORATION AND PRESERVATION OF HISTORIC BUILDINGS IN THE COMMONWEALTH

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Messrs. STIEFEL, HARE, JR., CHAPMAN, DENT, LEADER, RUTH, DIEHM and WOLFE, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949

Whereas The Joint State Government Commission has submitted an excellent report listing the historic buildings, sites and remains which constitute the tangible remains of Pennsylvania's rich and inspiring historic past, but no provision has been made for the protection and preservation of such historic buildings, sites and remains;

Whereas, There may be other historic buildings, sites and remains which should be added to this list; and

Whereas, All historic buildings, sites and remains throughout Pennsylvania are of inestimable educational and civic value and thus ought to be preserved for the benefit of present and future citizens of the Commonwealth, now therefore be it Resolved, That the Senate of Pennsylvania hereby instruct the Joint State Government Commission to make a study of appropriate legislation to assure the safety and preservation of the historical buildings, sites and remains, as listed in the Catalog of Historical Buildings, Sites and Remains reported by said Commission to the General Assembly, and to report the results of this study with definite recommendations for legislation at the next regular session of the General Assembly; Resolved, That the Senate hereby instruct the Joint State Government Commission with the cooperation of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission to continue its survey and revise its Catalog of the Historical Buildings, Sites and Remains in Pennsylvania which it deems to be of distinctive significance and value to the history or archaeology of this Commonwealth, and to report the revised Catalog to the General Assembly at its next regular session; and be it further Resolved, That the Senate hereby urgently request any person or persons owning or having custody of buildings, sites or remains which the Joint State Government Commission has deemed to be of distinctive significance and value to the history or archaeology of this Commonwealth not to destroy, alter or damage such buildings, sites or remains until the General Assembly at its next regular session has had an opportunity to take appropriate action.

SENATE RESOLUTION

MEMORIAL SERVICES TO BE HELD THURSDAY,
APRIL 28, 1949 AT FOUR O'CLOCK

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. FRAZIER, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949

Resolved that the Senate meet in special session on Thursday, April 28, 1949, at four o'clock P.M., for the purpose of holding Memorial Services for the following former State Senators who have died since the last meeting of the Senate: Hon. The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Table of Contents, page 2, by inserting a new line after "Section 15 Estates Affected" to read as follows: "Section 16 Repealer"; Amend the last line of the Table of Contents, page 2, by striking out the numeral: "16"; and inserting the numeral: "17"; Amend page 4, line 2, by inserting after the word "agreement" and before the word "Unless" the following: "Such agreement shall finally and conclusively fix and determine the amount of tax payable to this State, without regard to any other provision of the laws of this State." Amend page 4, line 6, by adding after the word "penalties" the following: "In the event the aggregate amount payable under such agreement to the states involved is less than the maximum credit allowable to the estate against the United States estate tax imposed with respect thereto, the personal representatives forthwith shall also pay to the department so much of the difference between such aggregate amount and the amount of such credit as the amount payable to the department under the agreement bears to such aggregate amount. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed in the office of the proper register of wills, and any existing appraisement shall be deemed modified according to said agreement. In the event no appraisement has been made and filed prior to said agreement, the Department of Revenue shall direct an appraisement to be made and filed in the office of the proper register of wills in accordance with said agreement." Amend Section 15, page 7, line 14, by striking out after the word "to" and before the word "of" the word:

"states" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "estates"; Amend page 7, by inserting between lines 14 and 15 the following: "Section 16 Repealer The act approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred and forty-one (Pamphlet Laws 815) entitled 'An act to add section forty-three to the act, approved the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (Pamphlet Laws, five hundred twenty-one), entitled, 'An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death, and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death; and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth, or national banking association located therein, to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association, standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid; and providing penalties; and citing certain acts for repeal', authorizing compromise of tax claims in cases where there is a dispute as to the domicile of the decedent," is hereby repealed. Amend page 7, line 15, by striking out after the word "Section" and before the word "Effective" the numeral: "16" and substituting in lieu thereof the numeral: "17".

STUDENTS FROM BRADFORD HIGH SCHOOL PRESENTED TO SENATE

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I would like to introduce to the Chair and to the Members of the Senate, eight students from the Bradford High School, who with their coaches, Messrs. Walker and Cummings, are on their way to participate in a state debating society contest in Pottstown.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair, on behalf of the Members of the Senate, would like to welcome the students from Bradford High School, and we hope you will enjoy the Session.

PRESENTATION TO LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR DANIEL B. STRICKLER, PRESIDENT OF SENATE

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I had hoped to get through the Session of 1949 without coming to the microphone, but my colleagues on this side of the Senate have imposed upon me a pleasant duty to perform.

Mr. President, we have gone through more than four months of almost continuous Session here, and during that time, the going at times was rough. We have had to prevail upon our Presiding Officer, who has been most patient with us, and has persevered with us. During the time of the little squabbles that we get into from time to time he has been most fair in his decisions to this body.

Mr. President, the gentlemen on our side of the Senate desire to express to you in some manner, by a small token, their keen appreciation of your patience, perseverance and excellent service in presiding over the body of this Senate.

It is my pleasure, on behalf of my colleagues, to present you with this small token.

The PRESIDENT. Senator Homsher, Members of the Senate and those of my colleagues on the Majority Side, I want to thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in giving me this token. It is a remembrance of my fond association with you gentlemen, and I want to say in return that I appreciate your courtesy and your kindness in cooperating with me in presiding over this end of the desk, and in expediting the business of the Senate.

In addition to that, I want to thank you for the fine hospitality shown me while away from the desk, and on official duties around the Capitol.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR M. HARVEY TAYLOR,
PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE OF SENATE

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I have a very pleasant duty to perform this afternoon, together with some of the other of my colleagues, and I want to make clear what mine is at the outset.

Mr. President, it has been the choice of my colleagues on the Majority Side that I should be privileged to make a presentation to the President pro tempore, Senator Taylor, and I want to make it quite clear that I was going to do that so that Senator Taylor, because I know that he is entirely unaccustomed to receiving gifts, both within and without the Senate, could prepare himself to answer in the very capable fashion that we are all so well acquainted with.

Mr. President, I also want to make it clear for an additional reason. When it was determined by the Members on this Side of the Senate to present Senator Taylor with a token of our esteem, behind closed doors, Mr. President, we decided that we ought not say anything at all about the hope and wish of most of the Members of this Side that Senator Taylor, State Chairman, would think of us kindly in connection with our applications for jobs over in the Auditor General's and Treasurer's office, come within a few days.

Having made that very clear, Mr. President, I would like to turn to the more serious side of the presentation, and say that those of us on the Majority Side, and I am sure not in any small measure, the men on the other side of the aisle, share our very high esteem for Senator Taylor.

Mr. President, in the performance of his official duties in the Senate, both on and off of the rostrum, he has been patient, he has been kindly, he is mindful of the many and varied different personalities that are represented in this Chamber, he has been courteous and he has been anxious to be of assistance to every Member of this Senate. Aside from his personal duties, we have had the pleasure and privilege of sharing with him many hours of good camaraderie, and for that we are mutually happy.

Mr. President, on behalf of the Members of the Majority, it is my very happy privilege to present to the President pro tempore, Senator M. Harvey Taylor, a small token of our warm affection for him, and with it goes our good wishes for continued success and a lot of happiness.

Mr. TALLYOR. Mr. President and Senator Tallman, as far as the Auditor General and State Treasurer are concerned, until May 1st, 2nd, or 3rd, I am in pretty good shape to help you fellows, but after that, I do not want to guarantee too much.

Mr. President, I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart for this gift, and especially since you gave it to me.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR JOHN M. WALKER, MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER OF SENATE

Mr. T. NEWELL WOOD. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, some months ago we had a little meeting and drafted our Floor Leader, much against his wishes, to serve for us during this Session. I believe that I can truthfully say, in speaking for all of the Members of the Senate, that he has served us well and with distinction.

Mr. President, those of us on our side of the aisle have appreciated his ability and industry in caucus and here on the floor. I would also like to say, Mr. President, that he is a man of tastes, expensive tastes, and the Members of this Committee, of which I happen to be one, wish to compliment him on the selection of his gift.

Seriously, Mr. President, I am deeply honored and happy to be able to present to our distinguished Floor Leader, the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator John M. Walker, a slight token of our esteem and appreciation for his wonderful service to us this year.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, after looking at this wonderful gift, I might say that it is the same one I picked out. May I say, Mr. President, I would be very happy if the Senate would assign two Sergeants-at-Arms to carry it around for me.

Mr. President, it certainly has been a rare experience to be the Majority Leader in this Senate. I have enjoyed it very much, I have enjoyed the cooperation of my colleagues, I have enjoyed and appreciated their patience with what might be called and termed a wild Irish temper.

I also want, at this time, to pay my very deep respect and appreciation to my good friend, John Dent, and his colleagues, for their cooperation. I think, Mr. President, that we have had one of the quietest and most dignified Sessions that it has ever been my privilege to witness here in the Senate of Pennsylvania, and at this time I know the newspaper men who wrote those news stories, predicting what a wild Irish Donegal we would have here with Senator Dent and Senator Walker trying to tear the building down, feel kind of disappointed that the fireworks were not forthcoming.

Mr. President, I want at this time to take the opportunity to pay my very sincere respects to the personnel of the Senate who have made this job so enjoyable, and have given me so many short cuts in discharging my responsibilities.

Then, Mr. President, I come to another phase in our procedure. Every good team has a quarterback, and every good team has a coach. For years we have said, half in fun and all in earnest, "Beware of that Walker. He is 'Taylor' made". Mr. President, I have enjoyed my many years of association with Harve Taylor. I first became acquainted with him in 1934, during the gubernatorial election (it takes courage to mention that) and when the roll was called we discovered that for the first time in a generation we had lost the front office. Since that time I have learned to love and respect Harve, and he has been very patient and helpful in attempting to teach me some of the things that a person should know if he is going to discharge a public responsibility in a public office.

Then, Mr. President, at the same time that I was appointed Majority Floor Leader by the Republican Caucus, we elected a Chairman of the Caucus and a Caucus Whip. It is remarkable the assistance, the cooperation and the help that I have received from Fred Hare and Jimmy Berger.

They have been anticipatory in the discharge of their duties and in helping me get along in this office. It is not an easy task. Anybody who has served on it ought to know that at times it is so easy to make mistakes of the head, when at the same time one is trying not to make mistakes of the heart, and as a result, Mr. President, these two fellows have been remarkable in helping me, and in a way helping Harve. We have factiously called it the backfield, but it has not been by any means the "Four Horsemen", or nearly as effective, but at least, we have had remarkable teamwork.

Mr. President, the success of the efforts of this Session will have to be judged by a cauculating public after the Session has adjourned, but I want to say that in my heart the success of the cooperation of these three fellows, as far as I am concerned, is judged right now. I will never be able to repay them, I will never be able to repay the Republican Caucus, but I would like at this time, if I might, to interject and present to Fred Hare, Jimmy Berger, and Harve Taylor, a slight token as an expression of my appreciation for their cooperation.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, I am, of course, very grateful for the token of esteem that Senator Walker has given to me today, but I am even more grateful to the Republican Caucus, rather than for the gift, for the cooperation that they have shown to me when I was chosen to preside over the deliberations of the caucus, and for the kindness and consideration that they have shown in exhibiting forbearance to the faults which I know I have.

Mr. President, I think it would not be amiss at this time for me to thank the entire Membership of the Senate for the courtesies and kindnesses that they have shown to me during this Session, and also, Mr. President, I want to compliment as greatly as I can the work that has been done on the floor by Senator Walker, whom we selected at the outset of this Session to be our Floor Leader, and to thank Harve Taylor and Fred Hare for the very great cooperation and pleasantness that they have shown with me.

Again, I want to say, thank you, all of you.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, Senator Walker, and Members of the Senate, I deeply appreciate this gift of brotherly love and brotherly affection in token form from the Majority Floor Leader of the Senate, Johnny Walker, and my associations with him, with Senator Taylor, and with Senator Berger, will go down in my lifetime as one of the bright spots of my life.

Mr. President, it was always a pleasure to look around the floor of the Senate and see how many votes John needed to pass a bill, and at times, I was very thankful I was trained as a school teacher, for sometimes the Senators, through forgetfulness, would leave their places, and they always reminded me when they left in such a hurried fashion—Senator Lord was faster than any 200-yard dash man I ever saw—they always reminded me of the little Amish girl up home who went with a fellow for twenty years in hopes, and finally, after twenty years, he went West, and she sat down and wrote in Pennsylvania Dutch a little squib, which reminds me somewhat of the Senators who were absent from their seats. This is what she wrote:

"My love has flew, him did me dirt,
"I never knew he was a flirt.
"To them in love I now forbid
"Lest they be dood,
"Like I've been did."

Mr. President, "I've been did well" by John, and Harve, and Jimmy Berger, and Johnnie Dent, whose word I always found to be his bond, and by the Members of the Republican Caucus and the Members of the Democratic Caucus as well. To them, Mr. President, I extend my humble thanks and deep appreciation.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR JAMES S. BERGER, CHAIRMAN OF REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

Mr. WATSON. Mr. President, I, too, have a very happy duty to perform. The Republican Caucus has been honored during this Session by having as their Chairman the gentleman from Potter, Mr. Berger. Jimmy has worked very hard, and in spite of the many hours he has put in, he has been fair, he has been even kind with us when we got a little unruly, and so on behalf of the Republican Caucus, Senator Berger, a swell fellow, we want to present to you this slight token of the appreciation of our association with you.

Mr. BERGER. I just want to say one thing in addition to the remarks I made a few moments ago. This reminds me somewhat of the closing moments of the Session of 1945, when one of the Senators on the Democratic Side, at about four o'clock in the morning, made a very splendid address on a bill in which he was interested. There were only a few of us in the Chamber at the time, and we applauded heartily, and he made the same speech over again, word for word.

I certainly thank the Members of the Republican Caucus for this token of their good will.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR FRED P. HARE, JR., MAJORITY WHIP

Mr. MAHANY. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker, gave my speech a little while ago because I was supposed to tell you how we of the Senate feel about the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare.

Mr. President, I think it is quite appropriate that they did pick on the Senator from Crawford County to do this job for the Senator from Somerset because, perhaps, and I think I can say without any contradiction, that Crawford County is the only county in the state of Pennsylvania which produces better maple syrup than Somerset County. I also was very fortunate when we went out on that little party and drafted Senator Walker for our Majority Floor Leader in that they left one job nobody seemed to think about, and that was the Majority Whip. So, at the opportune time, I was fortunate in getting up and nominating my good friend, Senator Hare, for that job, and I think it can also be said without any fear of contradiction that the Senator from Somerset has done a very fine job.

Mr. President, I noticed in the dictionary that the word "whip" is defined as one who belabors by some stinging language, and I know that he has not done that, but it also means one who has preserved party harmony and who has seen that the Members of the Legislature of his particular party are in their seats at the proper time.

Mr. President, the job of Majority Whip has been considered to be more or less of a lowly one, but he has made a great thing of it. He had installed on his desk a lighting arrangement, with telephone communication, and so on, and that thing lights up like one of Murray Peelor's sparklers, and I know that it has been of considerable aid to Senator Hare in preserving decorum.

Mr. President, to show Senator Hare that we all feel very kindly toward him for the job he has done, without using these stinging words, I want to present to him, on behalf of my colleagues, this small token. I hesitate to present it to him right now after that lavish gift which he got from the Majority Floor Leader. By comparison, this perhaps is not quite as large, but it carries the hearts of all of us with it.

Mr. HARE. Senator Mahany and Members of the Pennsylvania Senate, the Whip, at the close of the Session, has sort of lost his snap.

Johnny Walker has aptly said that he is "Taylor made," and I suppose, as a result of the Hershey Caucus, I am "Mahany made."

Mr. President, it was my privilege this week to run second best to Rowland Mahany when he was selected by our colleagues at one of our dinners as the champion in his given field, and I want to pay tribute to him, not only as a grand colleague, but as a champion in his own right. However, he had no business to insert county colloquialisms in this discussion by bringing up the merits of Crawford and Somerset Counties. Anyone who reads history knows that Somerset is the grandest county in the state, famous for its red barns, its green grass, and its beautiful women, and maple sap isn't the only thing that flows there.

Mr. President, at the risk of becoming repetitive, I do want to thank the grand Members of the greatest club on earth for this token of their love and appreciation.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR A. EVANS KEPHART, SECRETARY OF REPUBLICAN CAUCUS

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I have the honor and privilege today of rising to pay tribute to a great colleague. It certainly is a pleasure to be here today under these circumstances.

Mr. President, we have in our midst the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Kephart, who has served as our Entertainment Chairman during this whole Session, and as Secretary of the Caucus. I want to say that I do not think any man has worked any harder to serve the Members of this great Assembly than our friend, Senator Kephart.

Mr. President, I found myself just last week singing in the bathroom. The theme song of the Senate is very dear to my heart, as well as the rest of my colleagues, and I think that is accomplishing a great bit. When men can sing in the bathrooms, they have happy hearts, and certainly he was instrumental in a great part for it.

Mr. President, I have had the pleasure of eating some wonderful food that he planned, I have had the pleasure of seeing him amend bills, and amend bills, and amend bills for the sake of all of us, and I think Senator Kephart has contributed a great deal to the benefit of his fellow colleagues by the tireless work that he has displayed, and he is tired quite a bit.

Mr. President, it is my privilege to present to my friend, Senator Kephart, a small token of appreciation from his colleagues. We all wish him well, and hope that he will be back with us next year to continue with his good work.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, I sort of got wind a couple hours ago that Senator Watkins was going to make this presentation, and I have been quite worried during that length of time. I did not know whether I was going to get it or not.

Mr. President, I want to express my appreciation to Senator Walker also for having such expensive tastes; aside from that, I wouldn't have had it either. There is a little secret between a few of us.

Seriously speaking, Mr. President, I desire to thank all of the Members of the Senate for all the help they have given me in the trials and tribulations that I have put them through with regard to the legislation for Philadelphia. I want to say that aside from that, for which I am deeply appreciative, I also appreciate the good fellowship of you men in the Senate. As Fred Hare said, it is the greatest club in the world, and I am certainly glad to be a part of it, and hope, too, that I will be back with you next Session. If I am not, I will certainly be here in spirit, and maybe I will get up and sing for you once in a while.

PRESENTATION TO SENATOR JOHN H. DENT, MINORITY FLOOR LEADER, SENATOR JOHN J. HALUSKA, MINORITY WHIP, AND SENATOR FRANK W. RUTH, CHAIRMAN OF DEMOCRATIC CAUCUS.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, this is the pause, fortunately, that occurs at every Session, and it is a very pleasant refresher for all of us. Here we are fifty-one of us from different walks of life, from different localities of the Commonwealth, of different backgrounds, different characteristics, and different temperaments, with only three things holding us together. First, our political ideologies, secondly, our feelings for each other as men, and finally, the total sympathy we have for each other knowing what we must suffer in the course of a Legislative Session.

Under the circumstances, on behalf of my colleagues on this side of the House, we want all of our colleagues to know that we share in the joy of giving and receiving by any Member of this body. More specifically, it affords me extreme pleasure, and I deem it a personal honor, to be asked to make a few presentations to the leaders on this Side of the Senate, where with fifteen different factions to contend with, our Minority Leader, our Minority Whip, and the Chairman of our Caucus, have been able to maintain a solid front on matters that required strong discipline. If, under these circumstances, they have been able to teach us that notwithstanding our differences of opinion, and no matter how deeply they cut, we must learn and have learned to live together and respect each other, then they certainly deserve the praise that men reserve for each other only where their finest sensitivities are touched.

Mr. President, in this momentary surcease from our arduous duties which may perhaps lessen the feeling of turmoil in the dying moments of this Session, I am extremely pleased, on behalf of my colleagues, to present to our honored leader a gift of a chime clock. Its beauty is surpassed only by the beauty of the spirit in which it is given, and in its tolling of time in the years to come, I know Johnny Dent will look at it longingly and lovingly, and if turning the hands of time back to moments like these will add to his happiness, he has our permission to turn the hands back.

Mr. President, to our Minority Whip, Senator Haluska, whose genial nature and amiability have had more than a little to do with the successful operation of this Side of the House, I have the pleasure to present to him a beautiful pitcher and tray. We hope that he, too, in the course of time will know the deep spirit attached to this presentation.

I do want to caution him, however, by warning him that unlike the pitchers of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who may from time to time be knocked out of the box, this one has such perfect control that it need never be taken out or traded.

Mr. President, to Reverend Ruth, Chairman of our Caucus, whose spiritual and kindly feelings were needed to keep us together, I offer the thanks of all of my colleagues. We jumped the gun with Senator Ruth, and presented our gift to him at our Caucus. We know he will use it well.

Mr. President, may these of my colleagues make use of these tokens of our real and sincere appreciation in good health and happiness for many, many years to come.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it goes without saying that I deeply appreciate the spirit displayed here this afternoon. I was a little bit afraid at first because, in proportion to the representation in the Senate, when they gave Senator Walker the golf clubs, I was wondering what I was going to get. However, Mr. President, sitting over here during the presentations, I was wondering to myself, here we are fifteen Members over here, and I know that all of us, each of the fifteen Members, dreams of the time when we will be thirty-five, and they will be fifteen. Then I started to think, now, who would I eliminate, who would I strike off the list, and as I look around the Senate and see the smiling and friendly faces of the opposition, at the present moment, with the feeling that I find in my heart, I'll be darned if I wouldn't want to keep it just as it is.

Now, some other time, of course, in the heat of a debate, I would probably wish there were no Republicans here. However, at this moment I cannot think of a place in the whole world where I would rather be, and I can't think of anybody I would rather be with.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I want to thank my colleague for the kind thoughts which go with the gift that was just presented to me. I shall cherish it as long as I live, but beyond the gift is the memory of the spirit in which it is given and that will be a happy memory to me until my dying day.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, Members of the Democratic Party, and Members of the Senate, I have been here for quite a long time, but this is the first time in my twenty sessions that I was on the receiving end of a gift, and since the Caucus gave me my gift this week in the form of a check, I determined to use it and share it with the one who has made my being here possible and with whom it will be forty years this coming Sunday that we walked together through life. So, I shall be very happy to share it with her because she has made my work possible in being patient and carrying on with my work at home when I was here.

I want to thank you sincerely.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I deeply appreciate the suggestion from my associate on the other side of the aisle, and I know my Republican Colleagues will not feel it amiss if I share my gift with my good friend, Johnny Dent. He asked for it, and he will get it.

(At this point, Senator Walker tossed several golf balls over to the Minority Floor Leader, Senator Dent.)

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, it has been my extreme pleasure during this Session of the Senate to act as Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations. As Chairman of that Committee, it has also been my pleasure to present to the Senate many able and outstanding men for various positions of honor and trust in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, today I have a distinct privilege in presenting a nominee of His Excellency, the Governor, for a position of honor and trust in the Commonwealth, and I just want to take a moment of my colleagues time to say that the committee report I am about to make today, with favorable recommendation, is on a man I have known for almost thirty years. He and I went to night school in order to pass a preliminary examination, Mr. President, to be entitled to register as law students and eventually become lawyers. We were successful jointly in passing the preliminary examination, and thereafter for four years at night we went to law school in the city of Philadelphia. We took the bar examination together and became lawyers together.

Since that period of time, or during the time we were going to night school studying law, we were both stenographers in law offices. Since that period of time we have been associated together in the practice of law in the same office, where the Honorable Francis Shunk Brown, Jr., former Attorney General of Pennsylvania, was our preceptor and guide.

Mr. President, little did I know, thirty years ago, that my colleague and friend, and he is a friend, would be nominated for this very high office, and that I would have the privilege of being the Chairman of the Committee on Executive Nominations in the Senate of Pennsylvania, and that I would have the distinct honor, Mr. President, to present his name as one of the nominees of His Excellency the Governor.

Mr. President, as I said, I presented many other able men, but this man I have known personally, and I am sure he is going to serve with distinction, with trust and with fidelity.

Therefore, Mr. President, it is again with a great deal of pleasure that I say to you that I have been directed by the Committee on Executive Nominations to report the name of Arthur P. Bretherick, of Delaware County, for appointment as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the Thirty-second Judicial District, with favorable recommendation.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I would like to add a few remarks to the remarks made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Senator Lord, concerning my good friend, Arthur P. Bretherick. I want to say, Mr. President, that I have known Arthur Bretherick for over twenty years. I think he is one of the most outstanding Americans that I have ever met. He has worked tirelessly for the Republican Party ever since the very inception of my entrance into Delaware County.

Mr. President, Arthur Bretherick is a man of great knowledge. He has served in this great Legislature for three terms. He has been Register of Wills in our county, and he has been our County Chairman for the last six years. It is, indeed, a great day for me to be able to stand here in my humble way, and say a few words in reference to Arthur Bretherick. He is loved by all of us in Delaware County.

I might add that, too, in selecting Arthur P. Bretherick to this great honor as Judge of the Common Pleas Court, he was nominated by the Supervisors of Delaware County unanimously. I understand there was not one single vote against him, and I understand that while there were three other names mentioned for judge in our county, every one withdrew and said that they would not be a candidate if Arthur Bretherick wanted the position.

I think, Mr. President, that this body here today has confirmed a great man. I know he will be a credit to the bench in Delaware County, and a credit to the State of Pennsylvania.

Mr. LORD, JR., from the Committee on Executive Nominations reported with a favorable recommendation the following nomination, made by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth:

JUDGE OF THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF THE THIRTY-SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 27, 1949

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate Arthur P. Bretherick, 12 Golf Road, Lansdowne, Delaware County, for appointment as Judge of the Court of Common Pleas of the Thirty-second Judicial District, composed of the County of Delaware, until the first Monday of January, 1950.

JAMES H. DUFF.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATION RULE 38 SUSPENDED

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. LORD, JR. and Mr. WATKINS,

To grant unanimous consent to immediate consideration of the nomination just reported from the Committee on Executive Nominations, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting upon the nomination reported.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. LORD, JR. and Mr. WATKINS,

That the Senate do advise and consent to the nomination reported.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—50

Barr,	Geltz,	Meade,	Tarr,
Barrett,	Haluska,	Neff,	Taylor,

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. LORD, JR. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. WATKINS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I know the hour is late, but I want to take a moment here to make an observation before House Bill No. 1330 passes second reading.

Mr. President, in looking over this bill on my desk, I find that this is an act to amend Section 1 of the Act of 1949, and then upon reading over the bill, I find that there are thirty-two pages which contain only five words.

Now, Mr. President, I recognize the fact that in order to amend a section, that act must be on the books, but so that we might save the time tomorrow, it is my firm opinion that the act known as the "Pop Tax Act," passed by this Legislature early in the Session, has been found to be defective, and by voting for this bill, the majority of us, if we are going to tax soft drinks, would like to see fizz water in the bill. However, this bill is so drawn that in voting for the amendments to this bill, I think we are going to vote for the pop tax in toto.

Mr. President, I have been wrong on other occasions—the Majority Floor Leader shakes his head—but I cannot for the life of me see why we have a thirty-two page bill reenacting many sections which are not to be changed at all by House Bill No. 1330.

Mr. President, I am merely talking about it today, because I want to call it to the attention of the Membership so that they might give some study to the bill before it comes up for final passage tomorrow.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I refer the gentleman from Fayette, Senator Tarr, to a very distinguished Member of the Philadelphia Bar, Senator Rosenfeld, who, although he may have been fooled by the gentleman from Cambria, Senator Haluska, is never fooled by the law.

I am sure that Senator Rosenfeld will explain to the gentleman from Fayette that lawyers move in mysterious ways, and I am sure the gentleman from Philadelphia will explain to the gentleman from Fayette that notwithstanding the fact that this bill contains thirty-two pages, I am sure he does not need to worry about reenacting the pop tax, and he can vote for this with a clear conscience, knowing that he will be joined by a large group of his colleagues.

Mr. TARR. Mr. President, I thank the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker. I might vote for it, but not with a clear conscience.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL DROPPED FROM POSTPONED CALENDAR

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 365, on second reading, postponed, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by making it unlawful for any person to hunt with any shotgun or rifle when such firearm is loaded with live ammunition in either the chamber or magazine if the firearm is ready to be discharged by normal finger pressure on the trigger or if the safety device or mechanism is in the "off safe" position except during the momentary interval of time necessary to discharge such firearm and providing penalties be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, as the Floor Leader for the Majority Party, in making the motion to drop this bill from the Postponed Calendar, I want to say that I do so with by very deepest and sincere respect to a fine Pennsylvanian, John M. Phillips of Allegheny County, who has attempted for years to get this particular bill through the General Assembly.

Mr. President, I have had the privilege of sponsoring this identical measure at several other Sessions, but it is a little difficult to get the sportsmen's organizations convinced that this is good legislation. Nothing creates a greater difference of opinion than legislation of this type. Some men sincerely believe that this is not good legislation, while others think it is a very fine safety measure.

Mr. President, I want to say to John Phillips that we will try again in 1951.

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, whenever in the course of our legislative work I note on the Calendar an amendment to the Fish Code or the Game Code, I get a queer feeling in my throat that takes me back some ten years ago when I was first sent out to help the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Believe it or not, on my first day there, a very excitable, newly elected Member of the House of Representatives, a sportsman, was assigned to see me about preparing a host of amendments to the Fish Code and the Game Code. He came in and sat down with me at one o'clock, and he talked to me about changes until five-thirty that afternoon. I made many, many notes, and by five-thirty the gentleman was calling me by my first name, and when we were through he turned to me, looked at me and said, "Max, have you ever gone hunting?" and I said, "No." He said, "Have you ever gone fishing?" and I said, "No." He said, "How do you know what I have been talking about all afternoon?" and so I said to him, "Who knows what you have been talking about all afternoon?"

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I want to say to the gentleman from Philadelphia that if you get the sportsmen together, they will argue about every issue involved in hunting or fishing.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced presented communication in writing from his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which was read as follows:

APPROVED AND SIGNED SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECALLING SENATE BILL No. 688, PRINTER'S No. 349

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call from the table for consideration at this time, Senate Bill No. 688, recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendments.

RECONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL No. 688

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now reconsider the vote by which Senate Bill No. 688, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections two hundred ten and five hundred eleven of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1242) entitled "An act relating to roads streets highways and bridges amending revising consolidating and changing the laws administered by the Secretary of Highways and by the Department of Highways relating thereto" establishing one procedure for changing altering or establishing the width line locations or grades of State highways in townships and boroughs and incorporated towns.

passed finally.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority?

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move to reconsider the vote by which the bill passed third reading.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I voted with the majority.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. BARR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, and Members of the Senate, before offering this resolution, I have a few brief remarks to make, and I will try to make them as quickly as possible, because I know how anxious we all are to get out of here.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, some few weeks ago, I told the members of the Senate about the recent purchases of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, wherein the distillers changed their back label taking the older whiskies out of their blends and selling them to the Liquor Control Board at no reduced price. I, at that time, said that I have the minutes of the Liquor Control Board meeting and I still have them in my desk if any Member of the Senate cares to look at them for the sake of verification.

Today, I am going to give you, in detail, some more of the irregularities practiced by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, one of the most common unlawful practices used by the Board and a wilful violation of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Act is the one called "Floor Stock Adjustment".

Prior to 1937, the Board could use its own judgment as to mark-ups, even within class of liquors and could thus discriminate against products exactly similar. However, in 1937, the Legislature amended Section 201(b) of the Liquor Control Act, which section up to that time had contained no limit on the authority of the Board to fix wholesale and retail prices of liquors, by providing:

"That in fixing sale prices the board shall not give any preference or make any discrimination as to classes, brands, or otherwise, except where special sales are deemed necessary to move unsaleable merchandise."

The Board's floor stock adjustment procedure operates as follows. After the Board has purchased liquors from the vendor at a contracted price, the retail price of such liquors is fixed by a uniform percentage mark-up applicable to the type of product.

It frequently happens that after a vendor having sold his product to the Board desires, for various reasons, to have the public be able to purchase the product at a lower price. He then advises the Board of the new cost on any subsequent orders and also the date for which he desires the new retail price to be effective. It is then proper for the Board to demand and collect from the vendor, a "floor stock adjustment" or reimbursement of the difference between the old and the new cost for all inventories on hand on the effective date of the lowered retail price.

It is in the application of this procedure that the Board very often violates the Liquor Control Act, Section 201(b). To illustrate the preference, discrimination and inconsistency practiced by the Board, in cases involving "floor stock adjustments", I cite the following examples:

(1) Some cases are properly handled and the full amount of the adjustment paid immediately, or deducted from monies due the Vendor from the Board.

(2) Other preferred cases are exempt, no reimbursement collected, the Board allowed the reduction out of the markup, or taking a direct loss.

(3) In other cases, Vendors are only charged a portion of the adjustment.

(4) In other cases, Vendors are given an extended credit plan and adjustments deducted on a case basis, on future orders.

The above illustrations are a violation of Section 201(b) because they clearly indicate that in fixing sale prices, the Board did give preference, or make discrimination as to classes, brands, or otherwise.

Another regularity and one which also reflects preference and discrimination is the Board's policy regarding sales promotion and interior store advertising.

The Liquor Control Board gives products of some companies free advertising and promotional advantage in the interior of state stores. This is "discriminatory" and unfair to competitors who are compelled to promote the sale of their products through normal advertising channels of newspapers, bill boards, magazines, radio and the employment of sales personnel.

Some years ago, in a previous Administration, it was proposed and approved, that advertising, window displays, and etc., be discontinued on state store premises. This "no advertising and display order" has continued on to the present time. However, the Board has resorted to indoor displays on what they term "close out items".

A "close out item", is one in which the inventory is being sold and on which no re-orders of this identical product are to be made. In many cases, the price are reduced and in order to call the public's attention to the supposed "bargain", signs, placards, displays are placed in the interior of the store and prominent shelving display is given to the items. The intention of this plan is to assist in the promotion of slow moving and inactive unsaleable items. This method would seem to be in order were it not abused as follows

The Board gives some companies the benefit of this free advertising in this manner. The favored company takes a standard brand item and after having considerable inventory on hand, changes the formula slightly, then notifies the Board that on subsequent purchases, the merchandise will be supplied in accordance with the new formula which entails minor changes in the price or the various ages or percentages of the whiskies and spirits.

The Board approves the company's request to "close out", the merchandise with the old formula and proceeds to offer the product on "close out sale", giving the company the benefit of the above free "interior promotional and store advertising method". The benefit to the vendor is twofold. He not only receives free store advertising but after the brand has enjoyed increased sales because of the store promotion, a reorder is placed on the brand under the new formula based on the sales record made during the advertised period.

It is important to remember that through all this juggling the "brand name" remains the same and does not change. The minor formula changes are made simply to comply with the board's theory that the identical product on "close out" will not be reordered. Therefore, the Pennsylvania Liquor Control administration is not only violating the legislative intent of the Liquor Control Law but is being used as a medium to promote the products of certain vendors and to hoax the public into believing they are getting bargains.

Now, Mr. President and Members of the Senate, the Michigan Liquor Control Law is very similar to ours. The abuses which I have cited in previous speeches in this Senate were pretty much the same in the State of Michigan. The Legislature there, at this Session of the Legislature, passed a resolution, which I am going to offer to the Senate, I am not going to ask for immediate consideration of this resolution because I think it should go before the Liquor Control Committee tomorrow, but I would ask that they do give it consideration and study.

Mr. President, if they will report it out and pass it tomorrow, these abuses will not exist anymore in the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board.

RESOLUTION

DIRECTING THE PENNSYLVANIA LIQUOR CONTROL BOARD TO PREPARE A COMPLETE COMPILATION OF ALL RULES AND REGULATIONS ETC., TO CONFORM WITH THE PROVISIONS OF THE PENNSYLVANIA LIQUOR LAWS

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

THE PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARR, offered the following resolution which was twice read, and referred to the Committee on Rules:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board does not have a setup of uniform rules, regulations and policies of procedure, and

Whereas, Because of this lack of uniformity, some of the decisions and rulings of the Board are contradictory, and

Whereas, Because of this confusion, courts very often overrule the Boards' decisions and criticise the Board for overstepping its authority in its interpretation of the Liquor Control Acts, and

Whereas, A printed compilation of the Board's rulings regulations, policies and procedure would be useful, necessary and informative to Legislators, Attorneys, Licensees, Vendors, Officials and others having business with, or interested, in the administration of liquor control in Pennsylvania; Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, immediately prepare a complete compilation of all rules, regulations, policies and procedure and the booklet be made available after it has been approved by the Attorney General, to conform with the provisions of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Laws.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Thursday, April 28, 1949, at 9:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 4:59 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time, until Thursday, April 28, 1949, at 9:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The board shall complete its labors and the hearing and determination of all appeals on or before the [first day of December] fifteenth day of March of each year [or as soon thereafter as practicable] after which the assessment shall be copied by wards into a tax duplicate or duplicates for the use of the city. The assessment so corrected and copies shall be and remain a lawful assessment for the purpose of city taxation until altered as provided in this article.

Section 5. Section 2551, of said act as amended by the act, approved the third day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1233) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 2551. Tax Levies.—The council of each city may by ordinance levy and provide for the collection of the following taxes,

1. A tax for general revenue purposes not to exceed fifteen mills on the dollar in any one year on all persons and property taxable according to the laws of the Commonwealth for county purposes the valuation of such property to be assessed as hereinbefore provided.

2. A tax in addition to the above on all persons and property taxable for county purposes for the payment of interest on bonded indebtedness and for sinking fund requirements for the payment of loans.

3. A poll-tax for general revenue purposes not exceeding five dollars annually on all inhabitants above the age of twenty-one years.

Any ordinance of council fixing the rate of taxation for any year at a mill rate shall also include a statement expressing the rate of taxation in dollars and cents on each one hundred dollars of assessed valuation of taxable property.

The council shall make its tax levy on or before the seventh day of May of each year commencing with the year 1950. For the temporary fiscal period from the first Monday of January 1950 and ending with the thirtieth day of June 1950 council may but need not make a tax levy but if made it shall be made on or before the thirty-first day of December 1949 and the rate of the tax shall not exceed one-half of the maximum rate specified in this section.

Section 6. Section 2557 of said act, as amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (Pamphlet Laws 363) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 2557. Date of Delivery of Duplicate, Collection.—The council of each city [and the poor authorities now empowered or which may be hereafter empowered to levy taxes upon property and persons within the city] shall [on or before the first day of March in] for each fiscal year or fiscal period make out and deliver their [respective duplicates] duplicate of taxes assessed to the city treasurer as the collector of said taxes which shall be collected by the city treasurer by virtue of his office as aforsaid. Such duplicates shall be delivered on or before January 25th, 1950 for the temporary fiscal period commencing on the first Monday of January 1950 and ending with June 30th 1950 and on or before June 15th 1950 and each year thereafter for each fiscal year. The proper county and school authorities shall make out and deliver the county and school duplicates of their respective taxes in such city at the time and in the manner provided by the county and school laws of the Commonwealth. All duplicates of taxes placed in the hands of said treasurer shall at all times be open to proper inspection of the taxpayers and of the proper auditing and examining officers of said city, county, or school district as the case may be and shall be delivered by said treasurer at the expiration of his term to his successor in office.

Section 7. Section 2576 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 2576. Time of Holding Sales.—Such sales shall be made on the [first Monday of June, in the year succeeding the year in which the respective taxes are assessed and levied] on the dates hereinafter specified or on any day to which such sale may be adjourned or on [any first Monday of June] the day fixed for such a sale succeeding year.

In the year 1950 the date for such sale for delinquent taxes for the year 1949 and previous years shall be the first Monday of June. The sale for delinquent taxes for the temporary fiscal period commencing on the first Monday of January 1950 and ending with June 30th 1950 shall be held on August 15th 1951. Thereafter sales shall be held on the 15th day of August of the year succeeding the end of each fiscal year for which the taxes are delinquent."

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 27, 1949.

Whereas, For the past several years the matter of raising funds by taxation for the support of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia has been a paramount question before each session of the General Assembly of this Commonwealth; and

Whereas, With each year this problem has become more difficult to solve since the cost of maintaining adequate school facilities and the salaries of teachers have risen and because the general tax burden has become heavier; and

Whereas, The school district coterminous with Philadelphia has been existing from hand-to-mouth, so to speak, from biennium to biennium on temporary taxes prescribed by the General Assembly; and

Whereas, It is necessary that a fixed adequate solution be found to the financial problems of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia in order that the schools there can be maintained on a level with schools in this State and in cities outside this Commonwealth of comparable size, in order that the tax burden of supporting such schools may be reasonably placed with certainty, and in order that the General Assembly need not concern itself biennium after biennium with such an involved problem over such a local matter; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to investigate, study and determine the present and future financial needs of the school district of the first class coterminous with the city of Philadelphia with particular emphasis on a comparison of Philadelphia's problems as compared with those of other large cities and considering all factors including trends in school population, pupil-teacher ratio, and school building construction; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall attempt to formulate a basis for permanent forms of taxation to meet the financial requirements of such school district; and be it further

Resolved, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the next session of the General Assembly and shall propose legislation embodying the results thereof.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

Referred to the Committee on Rules.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announce that immediately upon calling the recess the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Watkins, who is the Chairman of the Committee on State Government, plans a very brief but extremely important meeting of that Committee in room 324.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. BOWER from the Committee on Rules reported as committed House Resolution No. 72.

CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Chair announces that there will be a Republican Caucus in the new House Caucus Room at 1:15 p. m. E.S.T.

There will be a Democratic Caucus in the old House Caucus Room at the same time.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess until 2:00 p. m., E.S.T. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 33, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Act No. 14) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further regulating reimbursement by the Commonwealth.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SCHMIDT offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 2501), page 2, by inserting between lines 11 and 12, the following: "(4) 'Minimum Subsidy' shall designate the minimum amount per teaching unit payable by the Commonwealth to any school district or vocational school district under the provisions of this act. The minimum subsidy shall be [eight hundred dollars ($800)] one thousand dollars ($1000)".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, the amendments as offered change the minimum subsidy to be paid to the school districts from eight hundred dollars, as now appears in the bill, to one thousand dollars.

I know whereof I speak when I say to this House that unless the minimum subsidy is raised it will be impossible for the teachers, particularly in the city of Pittsburgh who are receiving little salaries, to receive any increase other than what is provided for by the act which we passed prior to the presentation of the bill to the Senate. I am asking you in all fairness to the teachers of this state to increase the state subsidy to the various school districts so that they will be able to receive an increase over and above the minimum as set forth in the state act.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, may I call attention to the fact that it is unfair to the teachers to insert this amendment. I don't believe that I have ever been blamed for working against the teaching profession in this House, but here is a case in which we must object.

An agreement has been reached upon this bill, this subsidy bill, Senate Bill 33. Any change in the amount upward of the subsidy means more state money, and we cannot procure the money. We have come to an agreement and have been told that this much is the amount that we are to have in the bill and therefore we do not want anything to happen on the floor that will in any way hinder the passage of this bill. We must have this bill become law if House Bill 454 is to be workable and the money is to be paid to the various districts to carry out the provisions of that bill. I certainly must ask the members of this House to vote down these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. I wish to interrogate the Chairman of the Education Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. When, where and with whom was an agreement made concerning legislation pending on this floor with regard to matters discussed in Senate Bill No. 33.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the Committee that met on House Bill 454 discussed the amount of money that would be available for that bill, which naturally brought this bill into the picture.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, a further inquiry.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Who, where and when, who determined the amount of money? From what source did the Committee on Education receive the final decree that governed its action?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman's question, the three Members of the Senate and three or four Members of the House in conference discussed this proposal and then discussed it with the budget office and with other people who would have some say in these results, and this amount of money was the conclusion of that conference.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, one further question. Who other than the Members of this General Assembly are in a position to say how much shall or shall not be spent for a particular purpose?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I presume that the amount of money that can be spent for any particular item is definitely settled by the House and the Senate, but in having a bill signed it might mean that others have something to do with that, and we wanted to make sure that the two bills would have the proper signature and that both of them would become law.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman. He has answered the question on the third inquiry that he could and should have answered on the first inquiry. The responsibility has been placed by the Chairman of the Education Committee squarely where it belongs, on the desk of his Excellency, The Governor, who has indicated in advance of legislation the amounts that he will or will not approve, thus circumscribing and circumventing legislative discretion upon the part of the Members of the General Assembly.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appear to have it,

Whereupon, a division was called for, eighty-three Members voting in the affirmative, and ninety-eight in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to

On the question recurring

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SCHMIDT offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, Page 2, line 1, by inserting after the word "Clauses" "(4)".

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 2501), page 2, by inserting between lines 11 and 12, the following: "(4) 'Minimum Subsidy' shall designate the minimum amount per teaching unit payable by the Commonwealth to any school district or vocational school district under the provisions of this act. The minimum subsidy shall be [eight hundred dollars ($800)] eight hundred and fifty dollars ($850)".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, the prior amendment which was voted upon would have increased the minimum subsidy from eight hundred to one thousand dollars. The amendment which is now before the House would increase this minimum subsidy from eight hundred dollars to eight hundred fifty dollars. We arrived at that figure because of the fact that under this bill there is an increase in the maximum subsidy of fifty dollars. We, therefore feel that if the maximum subsidy is raised fifty dollars, there is no reason why the minimum subsidy should not likewise be raised fifty dollars.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I likewise must object to these amendments as I did to the other amendments and for the same reason. There is not enough money provided for the raising of the minimum subsidy, and for the same reasons and the same explanation that I gave a while ago I reiterate in thought at least and object to the insertion of these amendments into the bill.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Sollenberger, is it not a fact that the maximum subsidy as provided for in the bill before us increases that subsidy fifty dollars?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Yes, that is true.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, was there any reason why the maximum was chosen for a fifty dollar increase and no increase whatsoever provided for the minimum subsidy?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker in reply to the gentleman, may I state that in setting the minimum subsidy, it was placed at that amount because they felt that any district that would have the amount of money available, that is the wealth of the district per teacher pupil unit, would have a sufficient amount of money to carry the program, and that is the reason that it was set at eight hundred because they must be comparatively wealthy or they would not be at eight hundred or less.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, the maximum subsidy was twenty-four hundred, is that correct?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. The maximum subsidy at the present time is twenty-four hundred.

Mr. SCHMIDT. No, the present time for this coming year it would be twenty-four hundred and the maximum subsidy is twenty-six hundred, if I recall correctly. Now that would increase fifty dollars, is that not correct?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. The maximum subsidy has been increased fifty dollars in this bill.

Mr. SCHMIDT. For the coming year you mean. What is the increase for the following year.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker if I recall correctly, it is thirty-three fifty. I did not have time to study the bill.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Does the minimum subsidy rise in any way?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Not the maximum amount under the present bill, with the amount in this bill; that remains the same.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I feel and I know that I have expressed the feeling of quite a few Members of this House that as to the minimum subsidy, it is tragic to say that a state or Commonwealth that has the wealth that this Commonwealth has, cannot afford even a fifty dollar increase in the minimum subsidy that it proposes to reimburse these various school districts with. I want to say to you that this money in some districts is practically the only means by which these school teachers are going to receive their salaries.

I would like to relinquish some of my time to the gentleman from York. Mr. Seyler, who desires to say a few words on this matter.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to say on this bill in corroborating the arguments of my friend and colleague from Allegheny, it has been traditional that the ratio between the maximum and the minimum subsidy has been three to one, not only in this state, but this is practiced throughout the other states.

Now, Senate Bill 33 changes that ratio radically to the disfavor of the first class district. The problem of the first class districts is this, that they have also felt that they have needed a differential in their salaries, between their salaries and those in other parts of the state, due to the fact that they have higher living expenses. With no increase in the salary bill in favor of the teachers in first class districts the only way in which this can be raised is locally, and these districts will be unable to do that unless some help is given to them in the form of a subsidy. For that reason it does seem that the fifty dollars asked in this amendment is not too much to ask for the first class districts in the form of subsidy.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, there are two items that ought to be cleared up here before we vote on this. First is this fifty dollars—it may sound to the membership of the House as if this is just dealing with fifty dollars. It isn't, it is dealing with fifty dollars of added money for each pupil-teacher unit that the number of districts would require from the state that had the assessed valuation, the wealth that set this amount at eight hundred, and there are quite a number of districts in the state that are wealthy or comparatively wealthy or they would go above the eight hundred dollars, and come between that and the reimbursement fraction of the twenty-six hundred dollars, or twenty-four hundred fifty this year. So we want it clear that this runs into a couple of million dollars in the sum total.

And secondly, it depends upon the wealth of the school district and not upon some arbitrary amount other than the minimum subsidy amount that any group has set.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appear to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, eighty Members voting in the affirmative and ninety-eight in the negative, the question was determined in the negative, and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 367, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections four, three hundred one, five hundred one, five hundred two and six hundred one point one of, and to amend section seven hundred two of, and to repeal section three hundred thirteen of, and to add two new sections numbered three hundred two and three hundred three to, the act approved the fifth day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six (1937 P. L. 2896), entitled "An Act establishing a system of unemployment compensation to be administered by the Department of Labor and Industry and its existing and newly created agencies with personnel (with certain exceptions) selected on a civil service basis; requiring employers to keep records and make reports, and certain employers to pay contributions based on payrolls to provide moneys for the payment of compensation to certain unemployed persons; providing procedure and administrative details for the determination, payment and collection of such contributions and the payment of such compensation; providing for cooperation with the Federal Government and its agencies; creating certain special funds in the custody of the State Treasurer; and prescribing penalties." by providing for modification of the manner in which employer contribution rates are determined and under certain conditions for the payment by employers of the costs of appeals

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. EVANS offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, line 1, by striking out the words "Subsection (k) and subsection (y)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "Subsection (k) (y) and (z)."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 10, by striking out the word "act" and inserting in lieu thereof: "acts."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 10, by inserting after the word "the" where it appears the second time the following: "twenty-ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five, (P. L. 1145) and the."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, line 12, by striking out the word "is" and inserting in lieu thereof: "are."

Amend Sec. 1, page 3, by inserting between lines 12 and 13 the following: "Section 4. Definitions. The following words and phrases, as used in this act, shall have the following meanings, unless the context clearly requires otherwise."

Amend Sec. 1 page 6, by inserting between lines 17 and 18 the following: "(z) 'Week' means any calendar week ending at midnight Saturday, or [the equivalent thereof, as determined in accordance with general rules adopted by the department.] any seven consecutive calendar days or each accumulation of four 'effective days' which need not be consecutive."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 367 in its present form is strictly an employers' bill, and if passed would result in enormous savings to employers in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and would bring about the readjustment of experience rating in the case of some employers.

I am not opposed to a tax reduction for employers where inequities can be shown, but I think that when we are on this matter and discussing doing something further for employers in the Commonwealth, that we should give serious consideration to doing something for the workers of this Commonwealth, those who are unemployed and only permitted to work one, two or three days a week due to the lack of business or lack of orders on the part of their employers.

Let us just examine the record that has been made in recent years and see the benefits that the employers of this Commonwealth have gotten under the unemployment compensation act. In 1947 alone, the experience rating was made permanent which resulted in enormous savings to employers. The employers got the benefit of the reduced minimum rate and a law was passed by the 1947 Session of the Legislature which permanently disqualified those who were engaged in industrial disputes from collecting unemployment compensation benefits, and the burden for caring for those people during that kind of situation was transferred to the Public Assistance rolls, in which all the taxpayers of the Commonwealth bear the burden.

Now it would appear that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is to act as a collecting agency for unemployment compensation benefits, and then return them to the employer in one form or another in savings. The amendments which I have offered do not in any way destroy the extent of the bill in its present form. The amendments which I have offered would simply permit an accumulation of idle time for the payment of workmen's compensation. We have many workers throughout this Commonwealth at the present time, and this is especially true in the anthracite and bituminous coal regions, that are only working one and two and three days a week at the present time. If these amendments are accepted which will permit the accumulation of idle time, it will permit those people to have their income supplemented by receiving certain benefits from the unemployment compensation fund.

I want to tell you, and I am sure all of you realize, that it is a pretty serious situation when people at the present time who are only accorded an opportunity to work one or two or three days a week are compelled to keep a family from their earnings alone. I ask that the Members of the House give serious consideration to these amendments. Let's do something in a constructive way for the partial time workers in the Commonwealth.

Several weeks ago we passed a bill in this House, and undoubtedly it will become law, that gave unemployed workers a five dollar a week increase in benefits. We were told at that time that the five dollars a week represented a liberal program and that it represented a twenty-five percent increase in unemployment compensation benefits but, before an unemployed worker under the present method of computation under the unemployment compensation law can collect twenty-five dollars a week in unemployment benefits he must show nearly an earning of fifty dollars a week, and that is quite impossible for a large number of workers in this Commonwealth to show.

Mr. Speaker, I ask that the Members of the House give serious consideration to these amendments. If we are going to do something further for the employers of this State let us do something in a constructive way for the workers of this Commonwealth as well.

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker as the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Evans has pointed out, Senate Bill 367, deals exclusively with employers contributions to the unemployment compensation fund. And as he pointed out, his amendments, deal exclusively with the benefits under the unemployment compensation laws to the employees.

One of my objections to his amendments would therefore be, that the issue is being confused and clouded by two separate issues which are definitely and absolutely foreign to each other. I think in all fairness to the Members of this House, they should be entitled and be given the privilege of voting on these issues separately.

In answer to the gentleman from Cambria, I might say that we have done something in this House for the employees during this Session. As he pointed out we passed unemployment compensation bills, occupational disease and workmen's compensation bills some weeks ago, granting the employees a twenty-five percent increase in the benefits they are to receive. Now, I think its only fair that we should do something for the employer, and that is what is attempted to be done under Senate Bill 367. He pointed out that there were going to be enormous savings to employers. I believe that I will have to agree that there will be some savings to some employers, under Senate Bill 367. So I think that if we can take 367 by itself then we have done a good job not only for the employee but for the employer too, and the matter is balanced.

The other objection and the more serious one I think to these amendments is simply that by their very character they transgress the purpose and intent as stated in the preamble of the unemployment compensation law that was passed in 1936. You will recall the purpose and intent of that Act was to create a reserve fund for the benefit of those persons who became unemployed by no fault of their own. It was intended to carry them over as a buffer until they could seek and secure other employment. Now, under the provisions of these amendments it is creating an entirely different situation, whereby a man is employed and can still receive compensation from the fund.

I think in some cases, and I think I'm correct in saying this, that a man in two days in some employment can earn as high as fifty or sixty dollars in those two days, and over a period of a month that would be about two hundred dollars we will say and in addition to that he could collect an unemployment check at least for one week in the amount of twenty-five dollars.

As I say, Mr. Speaker, that is not the intent and was never intended to be included in the system or the set-up of the unemployment compensation laws or the social legislative program in this state as far back as 1936, and I certainly don't believe that it should be in the program now. For that reason Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman and the Members of this House to vote these amendments down.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I have opposed merit rating from its very infancy, and I have stated on this floor my reasons for opposing merit rating. I said at that time that it is an insurance proposition. Those that are able to pay, should pay. Those that need the help, should get it.

The gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent, has said that it is to create a fund. That's the reason why I say that we should create that fund so that we may liberalize workmen's compensation. Now, he has told you about the fact that we have liberalized, he says, the Workmen's Compensation Act as far as the employee is concerned, I might say that he is very generous under this bill in what it means to the employer. They will give you a nickle any time for a dollar.

Now, Mr. Evans said that a lot of the miners in sections of the mining districts of the state possibly would be affected by these amendments that he just now offered. You don't need to confine it to the mining sections, I would say you could say it's all over the state of Pennsylvania. In industry in my community men are working part time, one day a week, two days a week, at the present time the same as they are in the coal fields. Now, I say to you gentlemen that the amendments offered by the gentleman from Cambria at least will give some benefit to the working people in the state of Pennsylvania. So therefore I think you should vote in favor of these amendments.

On the question recurring

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Evans and Mr. Lovett and were as follows:

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Cole, Williams and Mills.

An Act to amend sections one two three four and seven and to repeal section five of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven (P. L. 1145) entitled "An act empowering cities of the second class cities of the second class A cities of the third class boroughs towns townships of the first class school districts of the second class school districts of the third class and school districts of the fourth class to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes subject to maximum limitations for general revenue purposes authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointment and compensation of officers and employes to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced providing an appeal from the ordinance or resolution levying such taxes to the court of quarter sessions and to the Supreme Court and Superior Court" prohibiting the levy and collection of certain taxes providing for an over-all limit on revenues to be collected annually and for the use of excess moneys collected requiring reduction of tax rates in certain cases and affording remedies to compel such reduction imposing limits on rates of certain taxes regulating appeals from tax ordinances and resolutions providing for joint agreements for the collection of taxes regulating penalties and interest on taxes and requiring certified copies of effective tax ordinances and resolutions to be filed with the Department of Internal Affairs

The first section was read.
On the question,
Will the House agree to the section?
Mr. HEATHERINGTON offered the following amendments:
Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 11, by striking out the following: "[not have authority] or (2)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "[nor have authority]"

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, lines 14, 15, 16 and 17, by striking out the words "or on any public utility" in line 14, all of lines 15 and 16, and the words "public utility service [" in line 17.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 17, by inserting after the word "authority]" the following: "or (2) to levy, assess, or collect a tax on wages."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it is most certainly not my fault that this bill introduced on March 2 should be pending at this late hour. The object of the amendments is to eliminate the wage tax from that well known adventure in home rule, Act 481 passed at the 1947 Session. If the amendments offered prevail, the various municipalities and political subdivisions would not be permitted to tax wages.

House Bill 481, we said in 1947 was a bad bill. It was heralded as I say, as an adventure in home rule. And one by one the various interests affected have come to the front and said they don't like home rule.

The Senate majority in sending us this bill has agreed that it doesn't have any faith in home rule; that is, it doesn't have any faith in home rule if you tax coal; it doesn't have any faith in home rule if you tax utilities. It has a great amount of faith in home rule if you tax wages.

I favor this amendment and I am opposed to this bill, because it is a part of an inexorable march staged by great and powerful interests one by one to delete from the taxing intent of the measure everything but wages and a sales tax, taking out coal, utilities, any levies upon manufactured products, and would narrow the scope of home rule activities to the point where practically wage taxes and sales taxes are the only ones left to levy.

This bill has been sugar-coated by making obvious short-term concessions to various interests. We are not concerned primarily with the sugar coating of this bill at the present time with the elimination of wages from the scope of the tax enacted at the 1947 session. If you vote against the proposed amendment, you vote for the continuance of the wage tax and the abatement of taxes in various other directions. If you vote against this amendment, you vote for the continuance of the tax. For that reason I support this amendment.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker as we know Act 481 was a general act which was thrown out to give an opportunity to local subdivisions to take care of their own financial affairs. It was an attempt to shut off so many running to the central government thinking there is no bottom to the barrel in the central authority.

This bill has been tested and tried for two years, there are no restrictions of any great moment contained in that Act. The only restrictions were, that you could not levy a tax in excess of that which was already on your real estate. It did not limit the subjects excepting those which were already taxed by the State and public utility services. We realize the limitations placed upon those subjects which were already covered by the State in order to eliminate double taxation.

As to public utilities we must realize today that in the taxation of them in certain respects, the taxes are centralized in one source and paid for over the entire distributions system which they serve, therefore one community is benefitting at the expense of a great number of communities being served by that utility. Now, the present amendments contained in 446, or the bill before you, attempt to separate a confusion which apparently arose in connection with public utilities. That is this, whether you tax the service or tax the merchandise which they might sell in the way of wares such as an electrical utility might sell in the way of household appliances and so forth, the question arose whether or not you could tax the transmission of power which I understand was done in one community in this Commonwealth; and others confused themselves whereby they thought they could not tax the wares and merchandise which they sold in the open market. This bill as it now exists breaks down that division and authorizes the taxing in whatever form you want to make it on wares and merchandise which they sell, but forbids the taxing of transmission of their product such as electricity, gas, oil, and other like products. Now in connection with the wage tax, it is true the present 481 tax authorizes a tax on wages under that act, because there is no provision against it.

A great number of communities have piled up and pyramided those taxes to an extent that perhaps they had become burdensome. This bill by its terms limits the maximum amount which the political subdivisions, the taxing bodies within any political subdivisions may levy, and for that reason it is felt that rather than taking Act 481 and striking the wage tax out, that by all the provisions of this bill which are not involved in these amendments but nevertheless by all the provisions of this bill we are going out and gathering in the strings and trying to shape something sensible in the way of local tax program. Therefore we have put a ceiling of one percent on wages which may be taxed or assessed under the provisions of this bill.

We have also limited it to where non-residents cannot be taxed for school purposes on wages and for that reason and for the reason that local municipalities must find sources of revenue with which to operate their communities based upon the demands made upon them, and it is those people who live in those communities and who benefit from those services in those communities who must carry the load. Therefore, a wage tax, a uniform wage tax is felt the most justifiable and equitable tax that could be levied. Therefore, I request the Members of this House to vote down these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, with the consent of the sponsor of the amendment, I would like to divide the question and consider only at one time that portion of the amendments dealing with the elimination of the wage tax, and confine the discussion and the voting on the first vote to that part of the amendments which eliminates the wage tax.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria asks for a division of the question on the amendments to Section 1 submitted by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington.

The Chair will read the amendment embracing the elimination of the wage tax for the information of the House.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 17, by inserting after the word "authority]" the following: "or (2) to levy, assess, or collect a tax on wages."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment as read by the Speaker?

Mr. TOMPKINS. For the information of the Members of the House, this bill as a whole does not apply to the city and county of Philadelphia, nor would these amendments apply to those same sources.

Mr. ANDREWS. I am delighted to have that information and I can also inform him that I believe at least a portion of the Philadelphia delegation nevertheless would favor the elimination of the wage tax.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I agree with the Minority Leader on the question of dividing the amendments. I'm more interested in the question of the wage tax.

I personally do not think that 481 was actually a good bill, but if I am not mistaken our Governor went to the Governor's conference and spoke on what a wonderful bill he had passed in the Legislature that gave the local municipalities home rule. Today we are in here now eliminating the coal companies but leaving a section in here to tax the coal miner. We are eliminating all the manufacturers, we are leaving in here ten per cent admission on amusements to movies, athletic events. The present bill leaves in a one per cent wage tax. I could see no reason why the coal companies couldn't have come in if they were so anxious. In putting a limit on the wage tax, a limit on admission to the theatres why didn't they put a limit on the amount of tax that was to go on the coal? Why didn't they put a limit on the amount that was to go on scrap, steel, or anything else under 481? I think that if the amendments are not put in the bill, and the bill passes all we are going to have is strictly a wage tax.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I rise in favor of the amendments offered by the gentleman, and to make a few statements in regard to those amendments.

House Bill 800 at the last session of the Legislature is Act 481 which we are now amending. The wording of that Act said that you had the right to tax anything that the state does not tax. They should have worded it you must tax everything that the state don't tax. Then we would have been in a much sounder position today; we wouldn't have had this situation now where we must eliminate other taxes under this bill. Everyone knows that Bill 800 was bad, it will be trouble as long as we have it; you are going to have trouble, everybody is going to have trouble with such an act, and I say to you that if you don't right now vote to eliminate the wage tax it will just come back at the next Session of the Legislature to haunt you. Then you will have to vote to eliminate the wage tax and there won't be anything left. So I ask the members to support this amendment.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, this bill at the present time as it is introduced is a very misleading thing.

The title of the bill as it appears on our calendar says that the bill repeals Section 5 of Act 481. As a matter of fact, if you will look at pages 19 and 20, you will find out that Section 5 of 481 is not repealed, so that this bill 446 without this amendment constitutes as I see it, practically a mandatory wage tax for every political subdivision in the state of Pennsylvania. For this reason, that any tax levied where a man works, and if his residence also levies the wage tax, the residence gets the credit, so in any case where you have a place of employment levying taxes the place of residence will similarly levy a wage tax, and that thing will spread throughout the state of Pennsylvania. When you limit and eliminate the taxes from other things, leave only the tax on wages as a substantial revenue producer and then give it that effect that Section 5 of 481 gives it, this act as it is presently written will amount to a mandatory wage tax throughout the state of Pennsylvania. We will not be giving local government the authority; we will not be giving them discretion in the matter. This Legislature will be forcing them to enact that type of taxation and nothing else. Therefore, I am going to vote for the amendment.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the first question which the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brandon, raised, I would like to call the attention of the Members of the House to the fact that although Section 5 does appear in the title, that merely is harmless so far as the constitutional requirements are concerned. The body of the bill is that which enacts, and if something is contained in the title which is not contained in the body of the bill, that does not defeat the bill. If something is contained in the body of the bill for which notice is not given in the title, you would have a different question and it might be declared unconstitutional.

In connection with the question which the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, raised, he has a point there. I might say that a number of communities under Act 481 felt it was mandatory to levy taxes under that Act. If you will turn to the Act, at the bottom of the page, you will find stricken out the word "shall," making it discretionary with the municipalities which thought they had to levy taxes under the Act.

Furthermore, there are limitations placed in this Act elsewhere which forbid the piling up of a reserve from the levying of taxes. If they have a reserve at the end of one year they must adjust their taxes the succeeding year in order to eliminate the tax when there is no need for it. There are protective measures thrown around this in some communities.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I cannot permit the learned gentleman from Cameron to change the major issue into any legal tangle. There are no legal questions involved. The amendments mean leave the wage tax in the bill or take the wage tax out of the bill. We are for a wage tax out of the bill.

On the question recurring,

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the bill together with the amendments be placed upon the postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Placed upon the postponed calendar temporarily?

Mr. BRUNNER. Temporarily. May I say that this motion is made pursuant to an agreement.

The motion was agreed to.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE
BILL No. 563

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 563, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand eight hundred four and one thousand eight hundred nine of the act approved the twenty-third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 932) entitled "An act relating to cities of the third class and amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto" by further regulating the adoption and alteration of budgets on page 13 of today's calendar was agreed to be transcribed for third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. YESTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger vote on agreeing to transcribe the bill for third reading?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Yester vote on agreeing to transcribe for third reading?

Mr. YESTER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the bill on second reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the title and the various sections be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. ROBERTSON offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 1, page 21, line 1, by striking out the word "the" and inserting in lieu thereof: "said."

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, lines 2 to 5 by striking out all of lines 2 to 4 and "lating thereto" in line 5.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, the amendments offered by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson, to Senate Bill 563 seek to insert in this bill the exact words of another Senate Bill, No. 675.

These amendments would change the fiscal year in all third class cities in the Commonwealth from January 1st to July 1st. The bill No. 675, was passed by the Senate, sent to the House, where it was referred to the Third Class Cities committee. That committee yesterday considered the bill twice, and each time decided to table the bill. Today Mr. Robertson offers these amendments and we are now about to discuss the merits of the amendments.

I understand there are a series of bills over in the Senate which seek to change the fiscal year of all political subdivisions from January 1st to July 1st.

I have been informed that the third class cities of Pennsylvania have been polled on this matter and that in answer to a questionnaire as to whether they wanted this change, there were seventeen cities opposed to it, four in favor of it and twenty-four didn't even reply to the questionnaire. I have been informed also that the League of Third Class Cities at its Convention last summer did not take any action on this matter.

I am rising today to oppose these amendments. The city of Reading, Pennsylvania, from which I come, is opposed to the amendments. I am informed that it would upset and complicate their bookkeeping considerably and I know that there are other reasons why they do not desire to have their fiscal year changed.

I inquired of the Reading school district to find just what effect this would have upon the collection of the school district taxes and was informed that it would create a delay in the collection of their taxes if this change is now made by these amendments.

I appreciate the fact very much that the sponsor of these amendments has seen fit not to oppose my motion to reconsider the bill having passed second reading, because I think that this is an important matter and should be debated. I have been inquiring of various officials and Members of this House to ascertain why it is so necessary that all political subdivisions have the same fiscal year. As you know at the present time school districts have one fiscal year, counties may have another fiscal year and third class cities may have a different one. I have no objection whatsoever to all of the other political subdivisions having the same fiscal year if they so desire, but I fail to see why it is so essential that all third class cities have the same fiscal year. Certainly if seventeen cities say they don't want it, four say they do want it and twenty-four don't even show enough interest to answer a questionnaire, the third class cities in general just don't seem to want this amendment and I am asking you to vote against these amendments.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, as the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger has stated to this House, the amendment which I offered this morning did amend Senate Bill 563 to include the same provisions as Senate Bill 675.

This complete situation has been worked out in the past two years by the local government commission and a series of bills have been prepared and introduced into both sides of this legislature. This House has already gone on record by passing Township Codes 460 and 396, which include the fiscal year changes. The local Government Commission, and I might state that this plan is approved by the Economy League, have attempted to straighten out the fiscal year proposition in all municipal subdivisions with the following ideas in view.

In the first place, where the fiscal year corresponds with the calendar year, when a person is elected to the council or board of supervisors, he is suddenly dropped right in the middle of a budget fight. He is not well prepared and he doesn't know the exact ins and outs of the government of the municipal subdivision to which he has been elected. He votes blindly and he acts blindly because he can't possibly hope within a few days to know what the budget is. By changing this provision as recommended by these bills, he has a period of six months in which to work in the council or board of supervisors and get himself fairly well worked into the action and intricate pattern that modern local government now has.

I believe in addition to that it will, not as the gentleman from Berks has stated, aid and assist in tax collections as you will have one tax bill from the school districts and from the municipal subdivisions.

I think it is a good bill; I think the amendment is good and may I inform the House this, that my instructions are, that if any of these bills fail, to recommit all of them, and I sincerely ask your vote for these amendments.

Mr. READINGER. In part answer to the gentleman from Delaware, I would like to say that I am merely a lawyer and a Member of this House, and not an expert on third class city municipal affairs. But when the Mayors and all of the Councilmen of seventeen other third class cities object to the passage of these amendments and say that they do not want to change their fiscal year, then I am inclined to think that they should know what they are talking about. I don't know of any third class city in the Commonwealth where there is not an overlapping of terms. In other words, at every election there are at least two or three councilmen remaining. They can't be all new councilmen at one time, so that those who have been in for years can certainly assist the new ones in helping to figure out the budget.

Mr. YESTER. Mr. Speaker, the action on this bill has sort of befuddled me as to what part the Legislature is to take. The people elect us to come down here to represent them. Then we do what we think, or try to do a good job, what our people want us to do. In this case, a bill was defeated twice by the Committee. Then there was an amendment put into another bill which does the same thing.

Mr. Robertson said that there were other bills on the calendar also concerning boroughs. Well, the boroughs are absolutely opposed to it also, and the League of Third Class Cities, and I think that for the benefit of the Members of the House, to show that they have a little bit of authority yet, this amendment should be voted down.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, probably one of the twenty-four cities not heard from was the city that I represent and they are definitely opposed to this type of legislation.

As we know, Senate Bill 675 was considered at least twice in the Committee and not agreed to; in other words agreed to table. Under the provisions of this bill or this amendment they would have to adopt their budget for January 1, 1950 and then they would have to adopt their budget for the full year, beginning May 1, 1950 to May 1, 1951, and each and every year thereafter. While I have very little information as to what else this bill would do, I do know that my town is definitely opposed to the bill and to this amendment, and I would ask that the Members vote against it.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I regret to take up so much of the time of the House, but I think that these bills are important and I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROBERTSON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. I desire to ask the gentleman why he deems it necessary to recommit all of the other bills relating to other political subdivisions if this bill and these amendments should fail.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, the reason for that statement is that this is an attempt to straighten out and put all municipal subdivisions except cities of the first class, second class and second class A, on the same fiscal year. Any breakdown in this plan will cause a fiscal policy in this state to be much more, shall we say, hashed up than it is at the present time.

Mr. READINGER. May I inquire of the gentleman whether it is not true now and has been for a long time, that there have been different fiscal years among the various municipalities and political subdivisions.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman's question, that is correct and that is the purpose of these bills, to straighten that out.

Mr. READINGER. I thank the gentleman. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman has just answered many of the questions that I have raised today. He admits that at the present time there are various fiscal years and that that condition has existed for a long time. They now have a plan whereby they want to put them all on the same fiscal basis, and they apparently have them all in agreement with that system except the third class cities. So I would suggest to the Members of this House that they defeat these amendments, let all of the other political subdivisions if they desire, go on the same fiscal year and let them sell the idea to the third class cities.

Mr. SEYLER. Mr. Speaker, I should like to take a moment about a principle in this matter which has not been yet discussed.

This House has witnessed a siege of discharge resolutions, and the majority side, the leadership on the majority side, have weathered them very successfully, but the Majority Leader, in defense, not on the question of whether the bill was good or bad, but on the question of the principle of the sanctity of the Committee, has expressed himself repeatedly as having the utmost confidence in the actions of the Committee on bills they were considering.

This particular bill was considered, as I have told you already, twice in one day, very seriously, and both times voted down. For that reason I am forced to accept the philosophy of the Majority Leader and believe that he will not take any action against the will of the Committee. I am sure the Majority Leader will be consistent and vote that way too, and I hope many of the other Members on this side will take similar action.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, twelve Members voting in the affirmative and one hundred thirty in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to inquire whether it is the intention of the Chair to call up many important bills that are still pending on second reading many of which are subject to amendment.

The SPEAKER. For the information of the gentleman from Cambria, it is the intention of the Chair to consider any bill on second reading which it is the desire of the Members shall be read or amended on second reading.

Mr. ANDREWS. Then, Mr. Speaker, might I call the attention of the Members of the House to the fact that many of these bills are of wide interest, the amendments will be of wide interest, and since some of the Members or all the Members, have seats for the circus they cannot be in their seats here in the House and also attend the circus.

I am sure, in view of the gravity of the issues that the House will face, that all of the Members will want to remain in the Hall of the House rather than view the daring young man on the flying trapeze. I therefore would suggest, at the suggestion of the Majority Leader, that those who have tickets return them to their hosts in order that those tickets may be disposed of or may be sold, and the management thanked for their thoughtfulness, but they get their tickets back, and that we settle down for several hours hard work.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, it is inevitable during any Session that we reach a period where there is important business to be transacted. We have before us work which might take us into the evening and possibly late hours. It is vitally necessary that this legislation be considered on second reading because it is anticipated that tomorrow will be the last day of this Session. At least, it is my fond hope that it will be.

May I say to the Members on both sides that their votes are vitally needed tonight and I respectfully request, not in terms of that good old game of poker, that we have a full House tonight. May I also suggest that at the pleasure of the Chair a recess be declared.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would suggest to the Membership that there will be very important voting or a number of measures pending on the second reading calendar, and it will be to the interest of every Member to be present and be recorded thereon.

The Chair regrets very much that he was unable to maintain the schedule today. The Chair agrees, however, it is only a matter of courtesy to our host for the evening that at the very earliest possible moment the tickets be returned to the Chief Clerk so that they may be returned to the management and resold to others who may desire to have them. Tickets will be delivered to the representatives of the Chief Clerk, who will come through the aisles to collect them.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, before the militant Democrats leave, will you please announce that there will be a Democratic Caucus immediately upon the declaration of the recess.

CAUCUS

The SPEAKER. The Members are advised that there will be a Democratic Caucus immediately after the recess is declared.

The Chair will declare a recess very shortly. Will the Members please remain in their seats, as there are very important matters on the table that must be cleared, and the Chair requests the Members to help expedite the business of the House.

NOT VOTING—1

Krise,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the amendments were concurred in. Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 537

An Act to further amend section sixteen of the act, approved the eleventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 758), entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the possession, control, dealing in, giving away, delivery, dispensing, administering prescribing, and use of certain drugs, and keeping records thereof; by regulating the use of drugs in the treatment of the drug habit; by providing for the revocation and suspension of licenses of physicians, dentists, veterinarians, pharmacists, druggists, and registered nurses for certain causes, and by providing for the enforcement of this act, and penalties," by authorizing the Secretary of Health to make necessary rules and regulations for the proper enforcement of this act.

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments. The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 3, line 2, by striking out after the word "make" the words "such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary for the proper enforcement of this act" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "rules and regulations governing the dispensing distributing or giving away of any synthetic analgesic drug which possesses the qualities of habituation similar to morphine which the secretary of health may determine to be dangerous or deleterious or habit forming."

On the question, Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I request that the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

L. 806) entitled "An act limiting the number of licenses for the retail sale of liquor malt or brewed beverages or malt and brewed beverages to be issued by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board defining hotels and prescribing the accommodations required of hotels in certain municipalities" in connection with any such application No commercially licensed airport shall have upon its premises more than one restaurant with a liquor license

If any commercially licensed airport shall have its license as an airport suspended the liquor license of the restaurant thereon operated shall be suspended during the same period of suspension and should any commercially operated airport have its license as an airport revoked the liquor license of the restaurant thereon operated shall be revoked."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, we have two liquor bills on our calendar, this bill, which is on second reading, Senate Bill 736, and Senate Bill 735, which is on the third reading calendar which passed second reading yesterday.

The amendments which the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Verona, has offered seek to add to Senate Bill 736 the right to license airports. This bill that we have under consideration at the present time, Senate Bill 736, and I might also say Senate Bill 735 on third reading, are not licensing bills as such; they are bills which have to do with the judicial process; they are judicial bills.

These bills have to do with appeals on the part of licensees, meaning clubs, hotels and taverns, in appeals from decisions of the Board to the Court of Quarter Sessions and on to the Superior Court.

These bills have been given thorough study by those who are interested in the licensees, that is clubs, hotels and taverns. They have also been studied and approved by those interested in the churches, fraternal institutions and other folks who you might say are on the other side of the question having to do with licensing and so forth. My understanding is that both sides have approved these bills.

So far as club licenses are concerned this opens up a new avenue, shall I say, in that it is more or less, I would say, a magna charta for them. It gives them greater right of appeal to the Court of Quarter Sessions and, of course, the right of appeal to the Superior Court. It also gives them the right of appeal in the matter of granting licenses where the licensee's establishment is within three hundred feet of the area of a church or fraternal institution or public playground. So, I say we have these bills which are approved by everybody, and they now seek to amend these bills and add a lot of other matters to them. The bills will not have the general approval that they now enjoy, and therefore I ask the House to vote down this amendment.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I think that of all places in this world where liquor should not be sold, it is at airports.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the "nays" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, twenty-seven Members voting in the affirmative and one hundred five in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The section was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Verona, withdraw his amendments to the title?

Mr. VERONA. I will, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

The second third and fourth sections were separately read and agreed to.

Messrs. BRICE and KOLANKIEWICZ offered the following amendment to the bill:

Amend Bill, page 12, by inserting between lines 11 and 12, the following:

"Section 5. Said act is hereby amended by adding after article four, a new article to read as follows:

Article IV-A

Canteen Licenses

"Section 401-A. Definitions.—When used in this article the following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section:

(1) "Canteen" shall mean any incorporated post, branch, camp, detachment or other subordinate unit of a national organization of veterans having fifty (50) or more members or the home association of any such unit having fifty (50) or more members.

(2) "National organization" shall mean an organization of war veterans having posts, branches, camps, detachments or other subordinate units in twenty-five (25) or more states and having State organizations and officers in each such State, and a national organization and national officers.

(3) "Home Association" shall mean a nonprofit corporation incorporated in Pennsylvania whose membership shall consist solely of members of a post, branch, camp, detachment or other unit of a national organization and associate members as herein defined, and whose officers hold the same or corresponding offices in such post, branch, camp, detachment or unit. The number of associate members shall never exceed the number of members in any home association.

(4) "Member" shall mean any person who is a member in good standing of a post, branch, camp, detachment or other subordinate unit of a national organization of veterans in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of such national organization.

(5) "Associate member" shall mean any person who has been elected an associate member by the home association by ballot after written application and investigation and who has paid initiation fees and current dues in the same amount as a member. No person can be an associate member unless related to a member by blood or marriage within the second degree of kindred and unless he is ineligible to be a member as herein defined.

(6) "Veteran" shall mean a person who served in the armed forces of the United States during any war in which the United States engaged and who has an honorable discharge from such service.

Section 402-A. The Canteen License.—The Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board shall issue a canteen license to every applicant who qualifies as a canteen under and complies with the provisions of this article. Such license shall entitle the licensee to purchase liquor at wholesale from the Pennsylvania Liquor Stores, to purchase malt or brewed beverages under the same restrictions as a retail dispenser of malt or brewed beverages to keep on the licensed premises such liquor and malt or brewed beverages and subject to the provisions and restrictions of this act to sell the same to members and associate members.

Section 403-A. Application for License.—Every applicant for a canteen license shall file a written application with the board in such form and containing such information as the board shall deem necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this article. Such application shall be accompanied by a filing fee of ten dollars ($10) and the license fee and bond hereinafter prescribed.

Attached to each application there shall be a statement signed by the head State officer of the organization of which the applicant is a unit, setting forth that the applicant is a subsidiary or unit in good standing of the national organization.

All applications shall be verified by affidavit of the designated officer of the applicant and bear the seal and attestation of the corporation.

Section 404-A. Issuance of Licenses.—Upon receipt of the application, the fees and bonds, and upon being satisfied of the truth of the statements in the application, the board shall issue to the applicant a canteen license. During the twelve (12) calendar months immediately following the effective date of this amending act, the board shall accept applications at any time and shall issue said licenses as soon as it is satisfied that the requirements of this act have been complied with. Such licenses shall expire on the same day as other retail liquor licenses issued by the board in the same licensing district. Thereafter the board in carrying out the provisions of this article shall follow the same law, rules and regulations as for other types of licenses allowing sales of liquor for consumption on the premises with regard to the dates for filing and receiving applications for the issuance of licenses and the expiration and annual renewals thereof. No license shall be refused on the grounds that the applicant has been incorporated for a period of less than one (1) year. No license shall be issued to any canteen situated in any local option area where the electors have voted against the sale of liquor and malt or brewed beverages, and the board shall in its discretion grant or refuse a license or transfer of a license if the place proposed to be licensed is within four hundred (400) feet of any church, hospital, charitable institution, school or public playground, or if such new license or transfer is applied for a place where the principal business conducted is the sale of liquid fuels and oil.

Section 405-A. License Hearings.—The board shall hold a hearing whenever it is not satisfied that an applicant for a license or for a renewal thereof fully complies with the requirements of this article. Such hearing must be within sixty (60) days after the date of the filing of the application. Notice of the hearing shall be mailed to the applicant at the address given in the application at least ten (10) days prior to the hearing. The hearing shall be before the board, a member thereof or an examiner designated by the board. The board shall present its reasons for believing the applicant has not complied with the requirements of the article and the applicant by any of its officers or counsel may present evidence as to its compliance with the article and its eligibility for a license.

Within thirty (30) days after such hearing, the board shall render a written decision either granting or refusing the license or renewal and if refusing the same, the decision shall contain the reasons therefor and cite the evidence upon which the reasons are founded. Any party to the proceedings, dissatisfied with the decision of the board, may within twenty (20) days appeal to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the canteen is located in the same manner as provided by law for appeals by applicants for restaurant liquor licenses.

Section 406-A Display of License.—Every license issued under the provisions of this article shall be constantly and conspicuously exposed under transparent substance on the licensed premises.

Section 407-A. Licensee to Furnish Bond.—A canteen license shall not be issued to any canteen until the applicant therefor has filed with the board an approved bond payable to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the amount of one thousand dollars ($1000). Such bond shall have as surety a duly authorized surety company.

Section 408-A. License Fees.—License fees and renewal fees for canteens shall be graduated according to the membership including associate members as shown by the books of the corporation at the time of the application for license or for a renewal thereof as follows:

Canteens having fifty (50) but not more than one hundred (100) members and associate members fifty dollars ($50).

Those having more than one hundred (100) but not more than five hundred (500) members and associate members one hundred dollars ($100).

Those having more than five hundred (500) members and associate members two hundred dollars ($200).

Section 409-A. License Not Assignable; Transfer.—Licenses issued under this article may not be assigned or transferred except that the licensee shall have the right to have the license transferred from the location to another in the same city, borough, town or township, upon application and payment to the board of a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25).

Section 410-A. Annual Renewals.—All applications for renewals of licenses shall be filed at least sixty (60) days before the expiration of the same on forms provided by the board. Each such application shall be accompanied by the filing fee, the annual license fee and bond hereinbefore prescribed for original licenses. The board shall issue such renewals notwithstanding the fact that a citation is pending against the licensee but the renewal license shall be subject to any penalty which could have been imposed under the prior license.

Section 411-A. Suspension and Revocation of Licenses; Compromises.—(a) The licenses issued under the provisions of this article may be suspended or revoked in the same manner and for the same causes provided by the provisions of the act herein amended for restaurant licenses except that the citation for any alleged violation must be forwarded to the licensee within sixty (60) days from the date the board or its agents has knowledge of the alleged violation.

(b) In those cases where the board shall suspend the license, offers in compromise may be accepted by the board in the same manner as provided by law for other retail liquor licensees, but no compromise shall be accepted where the licensee has previously had two (2) offers in compromise accepted.

(c) The board shall suspend any license issued under this article (1) if the National organization loses its standing as a National organization as herein defined or (2) if the post, branch, camp, detachment or other subordinate unit has its charter suspended or revoked. Such suspension shall not be lifted by the board until all the provisions of this article have again been complied with in the same manner as if a new license were being applied for.

(d) The board shall suspend a license issued under the provisions of this article when the canteen ceases to hold regular meetings, maintain the required membership and becomes a one-man canteen or under the control of one (1) member.

Section 412-A. Sales by Licensees.—Each canteen licensed under the provisions of this article may sell liquor and malt or brewed beverages by the glass or other container and in any mixture for consumption on the licensed premises to any member or associate member.

Canteens may sell only after eleven o'clock ante meridian of any day and until two o'clock ante meridian of the following day. They may not sell during any day on which a general municipal or primary election is being held until one hour after the time fixed by law for closing the polls. The board may with the approval of the Governor temporarily close all canteens within any city, borough, town or township during any period of emergency proclaimed by the Governor.

Section 413-A. Unlawful Acts.—It shall be unlawful for any licensee, its servants, agents or employes to dispense liquor or malt or brewed beverages to any person other than members or associate members, or to any person or at any time except as authorized and provided for under the provisions of this article.

Section 414-A. Disposition of Moneys Collected.—All moneys collected by the board under the provisions of this article shall be disposed of in the same manner as moneys collected from restaurant licensees.

Section 415-A. Construction.—All the provisions of the act herein amended and of all other laws relating to liquor and malt or brewed beverages which apply to club licensees licensed under the provisions of said act shall remain in force and shall apply to canteens licensed under this article except in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this article."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I would request that the sponsor of the amendment explain the amendment so that all the Members will know what they are about.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Brice, explain the amendments?

Mr. BRICE. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Frank.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin will proceed.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, the amendments as offered, perhaps we shall identify them best by designating them "canteen" amendments. These amendments as offered grant to veterans organizations licenses outside of the quota law.

Generally speaking, I will try to enumerate the provisions under which they would be granted in a very short time. Those who may obtain a license are any incorporated post, branch, camp, lodge or other subordinate unit of a national veteran's organization.

A national organization shall be an organization having posts, branches and camps or subordinate units in twenty-five or more states. The unit that is granted a license must belong to a national veteran's organization, which has very definite welfare and fraternal benefits. The members must be members of the national organization, paying dues required by the national organization and admitted according to the bylaws and constitution of the national organization. Under our amendments there are no social members. Associate members must be within the second degree of kindred by blood or marriage. The minimum number must be fifty. The application would be by the ordinary form plus certification from the senior state officer; that the group be licensed by the national organization. Licenses shall be conducted in the same manner as under the present law, except that a maximum time is fixed and bond will be one thousand dollars; the license fees will be from fifty to two hundred dollars, according to membership. There will be no assignable provisions except from one location to another in the same municipality.

Suspension—the action to be brought within thirty days following the date of the violation. One other thing, the hours of sale, from eleven a.m. to two a.m. the following morning—closed on election day.

I need not tell you that this is purely a veteran's amendment. Some will say it is class legislation; some will say it is unconstitutional, but I appeal to you to support these amendments, because we feel that it is not class legislation, any more so than hotels or Pullman cars. We feel that under these amendments it will be a step forward in the right direction towards the proper classification of quotas.

We are opposed to Senate Bill 736 as it is now written. You can say that all these organizations are in favor of it, but as we see it, Senate Bill 736 merely passes the buck from the lower court to the higher court; it passes the buck to someone who knows no more about the local situation than does the lower court.

You all know the difficulties—you all know that the adjacent counties have not decided yet what comes under the quota law and what does not. I think I have perhaps made myself clear in what the amendments call for, and I will not take up any more of your time. If I can answer your questions, I will be glad to do so. I only appeal to you to give to the veterans group the opportunity which other clubs are enjoying and an opportunity to preserve one of the greatest institutions that we have in our country today, the veterans' associations.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I regret very much that I must rise to oppose these amendments. I say that sincerely because I have the highest regard for the author of the amendments, the gentleman who has just spoken, and also the highest regard for all veterans, but we have a problem here which is not quite as simple as it may seem on its face.

In order to intelligently vote on these amendments I think we should take a moment to go over the history of our liquor license legislation in Pennsylvania. In 1939 this Legislature passed the so-called quota law. It was passed during the last days of the Session. There was a great deal of confusion about it, not in the minds of the Members of the Legislature, but perhaps in the printing of them, because as the bill was printed and finally passed by us, it was so ambiguous that since that time it has been possible for the courts of this Commonwealth, the Courts of Common Pleas to rule in two different ways. I think there are about twenty-eight counties in the state who have held that the clubs do not come under the quota and perhaps twenty-two or twenty-three counties have ruled that they are under the quota law.

I happened to have been here in 1939 and I know what the men of that Session wanted to do when they passed the quota law. We might say that that is water over the dam because courts did not much care what we had in our minds about it, but they look at the laws as we pass them and they interpret them in accordance with their understanding of the laws of this Commonwealth and of the United States. However, we do have this confused situation and for ten years there has been an attempt made to straighten it out. Every Session since 1939 there have been bills in this Legislature, either to put the clubs under the quota law or take them out of the quota law. Many of you are here who were present during the Session of 1947, and will remember that Session.

Elwood Turner, I believe it was, introduced House Bill 1170. That bill as it finally passed the House definitely took clubs out of the quota law. It was passed over to the Senate, and the Senate proceeded to kill it by keeping it in Committee. The Senate then passed Senate Bill No. 816, which would have allowed veterans' organizations exactly as described in this present amendment, for a period of eighteen months to apply for and obtain a club liquor license. The bill passed the Senate, came over here and it was passed here. It then went to the Governor and the Governor vetoed it. At the time Senate Bill 816 was up for discussion before this House, I took the floor and argued against it. I did so on the ground that I did not think it was a proper classification, I believed it was unconstitutional, and I did not think it was fair to give to one group a club liquor license and exclude other groups.

On July 5, of 1947, Governor Duff signed the veto of Senate Bill 814, which would have allowed these veterans' organizations to have licenses. I know of no finer argument against the present amendment than the Governor's Veto No. 25 of 1947. He states in it that the purpose of the Act of 1939, which I referred to a minute ago, was to limit the number of licenses for the retail sale of liquor to be issued by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board. He then goes on to quote the clause of the 1939 Act, and he further states as follows with regard to Senate Bill 816 of the 1947 Session.

"This bill would amend the act of June 24, 1939, by excepting 'veterans' clubs as herein provided from the quota provided by that Act" and carries this exception into effect by providing further—then he quotes from the Act and he says further:

"The effect of this bill would be to provide that although the quota has been filled, a license might be issued to (1) any branch, post, camp or chapter of a veterans' organization, nationally organized and also recognized by the United States Government or any agency thereof; (2) any incorporated home association of such branch, post, camp, or chapter whose active and voting membership is the same as such branch, post, camp or chapter."

He said further:

"To this bill there are several objections: first, the bill would create a new class composed of veteran's clubs for the purpose of receiving a retail license to sell liquor."

The Governor then goes on to explain some of the history of the legislation relating to veterans in Pennsylvania, and the courts' decisions which have upheld this legislation. I will not burden you with this because I don't think it would add to the matter presently under consideration. He then said in relation to the various pieces of legislation which the Legislature had up to that time passed in favor of the veterans:

"These advantages have been bestowed by a grateful public upon war veterans in recognition of the training and experience gained by them from military service, and as a reward for their service and sacrifice in the defense of their country.

"The Courts, however," and I am still reading from the text of the veto message,

"have recognized a distinction between conferring a reward upon a veteran and granting an exception to him from the provisions of a statute enacted to carry out an important public policy or provide for the public welfare. Hence it has been held in a majority of the decisions in this country that legislation providing that a war veteran should receive a license or obtain a license to carry on a business without complying with the requirements imposed on other applicants for such a license, amounting to special or class legislation. This consideration carries even more weight where the license requirement is part of a police regulation, as distinguished from a revenue law."

The Governor then goes on to say that

"The act of June 24, 1939 is clearly an exercise of the police power in that it declares that no license shall be granted by the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board for the retail sale of liquor in excess of the quota prescribed in the Act."

May I quote further from the veto message as follows:

"Legislation conferring privileges and preferences upon war veterans in recognition of their services has been sanctioned by a grateful public throughout the history of this Commonwealth, but should not conflict with police regulations or an important public policy of this Commonwealth."

The final quotation I desire to make is as follows:

"Making a separate class of veteran's organizations for the purpose of receiving licenses to sell liquor would, in our opinion, amount to special legislation and would be clearly unconstitutional. *****For these reasons the bill is not approved."

Mr. Speaker, may I add a few more words about my own feeling towards this legislation? I have always opposed quotas, not only for clubs but for other licensees. It is my own personal opinion that there should be no limitation except by competition, and that the enforcement agency should be adequate and large enough and emphatic enough to properly control the liquor trade in this state. That, however, is my own personal opinion.

For ten years I have seen this Legislature fail or refuse to make a decision as to whether clubs are in or out of the quota law. I begged this Legislature at the last session to be strong enough to make up its own mind what to do about it. I do not like to see the buck passed to the Superior Court any more than the gentleman from Dauphin County does. I do not think we ought to do it that way, but when you are doing it that way you have nothing left except to pass this bill as it is now drawn, and let the Superior Court of Pennsylvania decide this issue, and you may be sure it will decide it. The reason we have this confusion is because no appeal has been allowed to the Superior Court from the decisions of the Common Pleas courts of Pennsylvania in regard to this quota law, and as a result we have confusion, and we have a growing lack of respect for our courts' decisions. They can have licenses in one county and not in the next county, which does not make for respect for the law.

For the first time since 1939 we do have a large number of clubs, the dry groups, the Liquor Control Board and many other groups who oppose the passage by this House of Senate Bill 736. What you will accomplish if you put these amendments in the bill, in my opinion, will be to have this whole bill vetoed by the Governor. The same Governor who vetoed the bill in 1947 still holds the pen in his hands by which he can veto this one. I have heard nothing from the Governor which indicates to me that he thought he was wrong the first time, and I see nothing in these amendments which would make them any different from the bill as it was passed in 1947.

Finally I am opposed to this bill as it is now printed without the amendments. I would vote for these amendments because I know of no surer way to kill Senate Bill 736. People will argue that it is not fair to grant licenses to veterans' clubs and not to anybody else. I am not raising that point at all; I am saying to you that Senate Bill 736 is a good piece of legislation, which will finally bring this thing to a head, the Superior Court will bring it to a head by saying that all clubs are either in or out. It is time that we should decide. Don't mix it up any further and kill Senate Bill 736 by voting for these amendments.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to support the amendments to Senate Bill 736. I also want to state that I intend to vote against Senate Bill 736 unless the veterans' amendments are in it. The canteen bill that was introduced in the Senate, the Senate would not leave it out of Committee so that they could stand up and be counted. We are in a position tonight on these amendments that we are going to make every man be counted "yes" or "no". I don't care—I am not interested in what happened in 1939 or 1943; I am not interested in whether or not the Governor vetoed the previous bill. You and I can give him a chance to veto another one.

In this bill I think it gives certain groups a chance to go to the Superior Court. What happens if you go there and they decide that clubs are in the quota Act? Veterans' organizations are doomed. So, I feel that by voting for the amendments we will put the veterans' organizations in Senate Bill 736, and then if the Superior Court decides that clubs are in the quota Act our veterans' organizations will be taken care of.

Mr. Speaker, I would like to have a slow roll call on the amendments to Senate Bill 736.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Berks a veteran, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. READINGER. I am not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ELDER. I thank the gentleman,

Mr. Speaker, I want to state for the record that I am a member of the original Twenty-eighth Division which brought the state of Pennsylvania a lot of recognition and glory. I have all the respect in the world for members of the Second Twenty-eighth Division, and I want to go on record now that I am for the canteen bill.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, first of all, I want to say that I am a veteran of World War I and World War II. If any of you intend to vote against these amendments because you fear the soldiers' vote, let me say this to you, these amendments are being fostered, not by the rank and file of the veterans, but by the state headquarters, in opposition to certain veterans' organizations. I am sure that fifty percent of the veterans are violently opposed to their posts operating under club licenses. They are against this type of legislation because they consider, first, that it is rank class legislation, and they consider themselves, first of all, as American citizens, and then as veterans. Furthermore, if these amendments should pass, it would double the number of clubs. Most communities today have entirely too many retail liquor licenses. There are so many of them that they are interfering with retail business because in some towns there are so many clubs surrounding them. I think it is very dangerous legislation and should be defeated.

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inform the Members of the House that it is not the general headquarters of the State Department that is pushing this bill or these amendments. I say that this is a mandate of the American Legion Convention and Veterans of Foreign Wars' Convention held last August in the state of Pennsylvania. That is for the gentleman's information.

CONSTITUTIONAL POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a Constitutional point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the Constitutional point of order is that the amendments are not germane to the bill, and therefore are unconstitutional.

Second, that in view of the Governor's veto upon the same issue, the amendments are unconstitutional. The amendments are in contravention of Article III, Section 7 of the Constitution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr.

Andrews, raises the constitutional point of order, that the amendments to Section 5, offered by the gentleman from Lawrence, Mr. Brice, violate Article III, Section 7 of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

The Speaker under Rule 4 of the House submits the question affecting the interpretation of the Constitution to the House for decision.

On the question,

Will the House sustain the Constitutional point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the Constitution reads: "The General Assembly shall not pass any local or special laws."

I submit that under the terms of the amendments they are proposing a special law for a special class, and in support of that contention I cite the veto message of his Excellency, The Governor, which passed upon the constitutionality of the issues which are represented by the present amendments.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, perhaps those of you who have had more legislative experience, who are interested in this bill, can present this point better than I.

On this question of constitutionality of the bill, it is rather difficult to pass upon, when a very short time ago I gave you what I thought were the highlights of the amendments, and whether they are constitutional or not, I feel that it is up to that branch of the Government which passes on the constitutionality of any law that we pass.

That is what was done at the last Session of the Legislature. I don't know that that same question came up. The thing that I want to get across here is this, you can argue the constitutionality and I will vote accordingly; let everybody do the same, using their own better judgment, but we are pleading for the preservation of the veteran's organizations. I don't mean the veteran's organizations that were founded in World War I; they will be protected. I mean the new posts, these new organizations that are coming along, and I am talking for those that represent over one million veterans who served in this last war. The only way we can do it is to pass this bill with the amendments. If it is unconstitutional then I say let the court decide it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair suggests that it is a mandate of the Constitution itself that this House shall pass on the constitutionality of legislation on a point of order raised under Article III, Section 7 of the Constitution.

Mr. STUART. Mr. Speaker, I must take issue with the gentleman from Dauphin. It seems to me that if the existence of veteran's organizations depends upon the operation of clubs in getting licenses, then I doubt that their existence is justified. It seems to me that the veteran's organizations have a much more noble purpose in caring for the veterans, their widows and orphans, and I think that is the thought that most veterans have in joining the organizations.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Stuart.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STUART. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria rise?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, to request that the gentleman discuss the constitutionality of the amendments rather than the merits of the pending bill.

The SPEAKER. the point of order is well taken. The question before the House is on the Constitutional point of order. The gentleman must adhere to the question on the Constitutional point of order raised by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, I request the privilege of interrogating the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger, on the constitutional point of order.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, does this state not at the present time exempt veterans organizations from the licensing features of the solicitations act?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I believe that some of the organizations are exempted.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, the veteran's organizations are included in that?

Mr. READINGER. Yes, Mr. Speaker, I think that the solicitation law of the Commonwealth exempts certain veteran's organizations now.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, isn't that solicitation law in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania a police regulation? Is it not passed pursuant to the police powers?

Mr. READINGER. I believe it is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, would not the fact that this exempts them, in view of the decisions of the courts of this Commonwealth, be a conclusive determination that the Governor's veto message was wrong that the special exemption for veterans' organizations was unconstitutional?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I know of no court decision in which that question has ever been raised, whether or not such exemption relative to solicitation was constitutional or unconstitutional.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman acquainted with the Charitable Solicitations act that was passed?

Mr. READINGER. I am not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. BRANDON. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the gentleman, the act has gone to the Supreme Court not once but many times, and in one decision in Pennsylvania the police powers have been declared constitutional.

Mr. Speaker, regardless of the merits of this matter, the question of whether this Legislature grants clubs the right to a license seems to me to be beyond dispute. The only authority cited here today is an ordinary source of constitutional authority, the Governor's veto message. The Constitution has been interpreted many times in the Courts. If the gentleman from Berks wishes to contend that this matter is unconstitutional, there are law books and Supreme Court decisions of the state on the subject. I would say this to you, if the Governor does believe this is not constitutional, I believe that the question of the constitutionality can be determined by the courts, who are after all the final arbiters. I do not suggest to the Legislature that it ignore the question of constitutionality on this matter because I think that each branch of the government should act in accordance with the Constitution, but I suggest to you today that there has been no law cited, no citation of any authority that would suggest that this matter is constitutional. Therefore, on this matter that Mr. Andrews has asked us to decide, we should decide that this matter is constitutional.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I do not claim to be a constitutional authority. I do think that the Members of this House should give every consideration to the veto message of the Governor of this Commonwealth. After all, the Governor is usually advised by the Department of Justice, whose members are composed entirely of lawyers, and lawyers who are constantly studying the Constitution of Pennsylvania. I cannot believe for a moment that the Governor of Pennsylvania took any delight in vetoing Senate Bill 814 after the last session, because he likes veterans as much as anybody else. The gentleman from Allegheny did not bring any law books or any citations. Perhaps there have been court decisions upholding veterans' exemptions, but I do know that the Governor's veto message should not be taken lightly when the effect of it, when he vetoes this bill, is to kill a good piece of legislation.

Mr. Speaker, I have one more word in relation to the constitutionality. Mr. Brandon says that even though this might be unconstitutional, let the courts rule on it. If the gentleman could assure me that the courts will rule on it, I might agree. But what I am saying is that it will never get to the courts of Pennsylvania, it will stop at the Governor's action when he vetoes the bill; the courts will never get a chance to pass on any legislation that never comes out of the Governor's office.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Berks, Mr. Readinger.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Berks permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. READINGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Berks know whether the Department of Justice has not made a mistake in their ruling? Does the gentleman refuse to answer?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman want an answer to that question?

Mr. ELDER. Yes, I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand the gentleman is asking whether I know or not.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is admonished to adhere to the constitutional point of order before the House.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, this is on the question of constitutionality.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is again admonished to adhere to the constitutional point of order before the House. The gentleman's question is not in order.

Mr. ELDER. All right, Mr. Speaker. After the point of constitutionality is ruled on, I would like to be recognized, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be recognized after the constitutional point of order has been passed upon.

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, just one thing more and I will take my seat. We are talking about the Governor's veto; we are talking about what he did in 1947. We have here what we think are different amendments making a different bill out of it. I have not heard any thing from either the Attorney General's office nor from any of my colleagues who are interested in this bill as to whether this bill is constitutional or not, and I submit to you, in the light of the fact that there are two different bills, I think we should go along and agree on these amendments.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Frank.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FRANK. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, for my information and for the information of many of the Members of the House who want to ascertain how to vote intelligently on this, as we are all interested in veterans' groups, have you or any member of your organization ascertained from the Attorney General his views as to the constitutionality of this type of legislation?

Mr. FRANK. Mr. Speaker, I think I am safe in saying that my group has contacted the Attorney General's office and has not got an answer, one way or another.

Mr. ROSE. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Elder, want to be heard on the constitutional point of order before the House?

Mr. ELDER. No, Mr. Speaker.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Clearfield will state it.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, I am afraid that quite a few of the Members do not understand what the effect of their vote is going to be right now. In other words, if they rise now, do they vote to kill the amendments? Is that the ultimate effect?

Mr. ANDREWS. That is right.

Mr. BRETH. Mr. Speaker, if you rise now, you kill the amendments, and they cannot be considered?

The SPEAKER. For the information of the Members those voting "aye" vote to sustain the Constitutional Point of Order. If a majority of the Members vote "aye" the Constitutional Point of Order will be sustained, and the amendments will fall.

On the question recurring,

Will the House sustain the constitutional point of order?

The SPEAKER declared the "ayes" appear to have it. Whereupon, a division was called, eighty-five Members voting in the affirmative and seventy-seven in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative, the constitutional point of order was sustained, and the amendments fall.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will now lay before the House the amendment to Section five offered by the gentleman from McKean, Mr. Johnson.

Mr. JOHNSON offered the following amendments:

Amend the Bill, page 12, by inserting after line 10 the following: "Section 5. The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. JOHNSON. Mr. Speaker, this amendment is merely a corrective amendment inserted properly in Senate Bill 735, and by error was omitted from Senate Bill 736, and I ask the House to support the amendment.

It was agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 796, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 928) entitled "An act relating to the annual salaries and compensation of certain county officers of counties of the sixth class" by fixing the compensation and mileage of county auditors in such counties

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. COLE offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, page 1, lines 1 and 2, by striking out the words "Section one of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of" in line 1, and all of line 2.

Amend Sec. 1, page 2, lines 1 to 3, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 2, lines 4 to 11, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines, and inserting in lieu thereof: "The county auditors in counties of the sixth and seventh class shall receive ten dollars ($10) for each day necessarily employed in the discharge of their duties together with ten cents per mile circular from and to their homes once each and every day so employed."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. COLE. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 796 pertains to the salary of county auditors in counties of the sixth class, and the only thing these amendments do is to include the seventh class counties in the same category.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. COLE offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, by inserting after line 15, the following: "The act approved the twelfth day of May, one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 95), entitled "An act regulating the compensation of county auditors, within this Commonwealth," is hereby repealed insofar as it is inconsistent with the provisions of this act."

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. COLE offered the following amendments:

Amend Title, page 1, lines 1 to 4 of title, both inclusive, by striking out all of lines 1 to 3, inclusive and the words "officers of counties of the sixth class" by fixing in line 4, and inserting in lieu thereof: "Fixing."

Amend Title, page 1, fifth line of Title, by striking out the word "such."

Amend Title, page 1, fifth line of Title, by inserting after the word "counties" the following: "of the sixth and seventh class."

They were agreed to.

The title was agreed to as amended.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, would the Speaker advise whether or not Senate Bill No. 941 on page 44 has been considered today?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would advise the gentleman that Senate Bill 941 on page 44 has not been considered today.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, is it in order to have the bill called up at this time?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will permit the gentleman to do so.

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, I call up Senate Bill No. 941, Printer's No. 616, on page 44 of today's calendar, bills on second reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 941, entitled:

An Act to amend section six hundred ninety-nine point four of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled: "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" by authorizing the production and performance of civic opera between certain hours on Sundays

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. RAY L. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order for further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. SCHMIDT. Mr. Speaker, on the motion of the gentleman to recommit, I rise in opposition to it. This will affect the citizens of the city of Pittsburgh who pride themselves on the fact that we have a civic opera and have had the same for a number of years. We feel that we in Pittsburgh, and likewise those throughout the state who may be fortunate enough to have such an organization, should be permitted on Sunday, if you please, to enjoy that type of entertainment.

We all here know that if this bill is to be recommitted to a Committee we shall not have an opportunity to enjoy a clean, healthy Sabbath, with the type of entertainment a civic opera affords us. For that reason I ask each and every Member of this House to vote down this motion in order to have a clean type of entertainment that will be enlightening and enjoyable.

The SPEAKER. The Chair admonishes the gentleman to confine himself to the motion to recommit?

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Riley.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RILEY. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, why does the gentleman from Lycoming want this bill recommitted? I would like to know why.

Mr. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to reply to the gentleman by saying that this bill came out of Committee yesterday through a misunderstanding—perhaps that is the word. At the solicitation of several friends from the Senate and other spots on the Hill, we held one of those quickie meetings for consideration of the bill. We had eleven Members there. I am not going to divulge any Committee information, but we had eleven members there, which just constituted a quorum, and I was told that the Chairman was not permitted to vote except in the case of a tie. Had that not been true, the bill would no have come out.

Mr. GUARNIERI. I think, Mr. Speaker, that is a small reason given by the gentleman in regard to the motion to recommit. This is a very short, very short bill, consisting of two pages, and a mere amendment adding to the existing law which would permit operas on the sabbath day, a mere amendment consisting of about four or five lines.

I believe that each and every Member of the House, can read this short amendment, these few short lines, and since the bill is now out on the floor, we should certainly pass the bill. I say let us vote upon it now. It is not a very long and complicated bill; it is a plain bill; it is in very plain and simple verbiage. We now have it before the House and let us act upon it. I do not believe that it is proper, Mr. Speaker, that we begin to impeach the activities of a Committee on bills that come out. Once a bill is out we should vote on it.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, on the motion to recommit, I wonder if our good friend, the gentleman who made the motion, would be kind enough to withdraw the motion, since I believe it is a bill which we are interested in in the city of Pittsburgh. Would the gentleman be kind enough to be considerate of Pittsburgh and grant them that favor?

Mr. RILEY. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman's request I would state that there is probably nothing which Mr. Brown could ask of me that I would not give serious consideration to, because I have great admiration for the gentleman. I hesitate to withdraw my motion because of a great many protests which I have received only recently against this particular bill.

If I withdraw my motion I make those people feel unfriendly toward me. If I do not accede to Mr. Brown's request, you know how he is going to feel. What the heck am I going to do?

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the "ayes" appear to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, eighty-eight Members voting in the affirmative, and eighty-six in the negative, the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Mr. GURANIERI. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a general statement on this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia asks unanimous consent of the House to address the House. Does the Chair hear objection? The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 983, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 1198) entitled "An act providing for the conservation and improvement of land affected in connection with the mining of bituminous coal by the open pit mining method regulating such mining and providing penalties" by further regulating the mining of bituminous coal by the open pit mining method

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HEWITT offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 3, line 19, by striking out the figure "5" and inserting in lieu thereof "4".

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 5, by striking out the bracket before and after the word "land."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 5, by striking out the word "coal."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 5, by striking out the bracket before the word "will" and after the word "affect."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 5, by striking out the words "expects to mine."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 11, by striking out the word "three" and inserting in lieu thereof "[two] three."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 12, by striking out the figures "($300.00)" and inserting in lieu thereof: "[( $200.00)] ($300.00)".

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 5), page 4, line 13, by inserting a bracket before and after the word "coal."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to find out whether the custodian of the amendments has a copy of them.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Hewitt, supply the Minority Leader with a copy of the amendments?

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, I furnished the gentleman with a copy of the amendments this morning.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Cambria recall being furnished with a copy of the amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Hewitt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEWITT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WESTRICK. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Indiana please explain the amendments?

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Westrick, I wish to say that I don't know exactly how to explain all these amendments.

It was something that was agreed upon by all parties interested in the Department of Mines, where we added one hundred dollars to the bond on stripping. There is nothing in the amendments of an offensive nature whatsoever.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I have consulted my authority upon mining, my friend from Cambria, Mr. Evans, who has looked over these amendments, and he says he finds nothing objectionable in them.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Hewitt.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEWITT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I do not have a copy of the amendments. I would like to know if the amendments reduce the amount of the bond.

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, it increases the amount of the bond by one hundred dollars.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, that is under the amendments which the gentleman is offering now?

Mr. HEWITT. Mr. Speaker, the original bill called for three hundred dollars; that was not changed.

Mr. FLEMING. In other words, the gentleman's amendments that he is offering now do not change—

Mr. HEWITT. No, Mr. Speaker, they do not change the amount of the bond. There is nothing wrong with the amendments at all. I will give the gentleman a copy.

Mr. FLEMING. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HEWITT offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2, page 17, line 5, by striking out the word "a" and inserting in lieu thereof: "two."

Amend Sec. 2 (Sec. 18.1), page 17, lines 13 and 14, by striking out "area mined" and inserting in lieu thereof: "land affected."

Amend Sec. 2, page 17, by inserting between lines 14 and 15 the following: "Section 18.2. In addition to any other remedy at law or in equity or under this act the Attorney General may apply to the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County for relief by injunction, or to the court of common pleas of the county wherein the operation is situated to enforce compliance with or restrain violations of any provisions of this act or any rule, regulation or order made pursuant thereto. The said Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County is hereby vested with jurisdiction to hear and determine all such actions by the Attorney General, regardless of where they may arise in the Commonwealth."

The remedy prescribed in this section shall be deemed concurrent or contemporaneous with any other remedy and the existence or exercise of any one remedy shall not prevent the exercise of any other remedy."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third section and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 978, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1743) entitled "An act relating to magistrates and magistrates' courts in the city of Philadelphia imposing certain duties upon and prohibiting certain practices by magistrates imposing certain duties on the city controller in regard thereto authorizing the employment of him of additional clerks and fixing their compensation regulating the practice in magistrates' courts the fixing of bail

The first, second and third sections were separately read and agreed to.

The fourth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. GUARNIERI offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 6, line 17, by inserting after the figure "10" the following "In addition to the divisional police courts provided for in section eleven amended herein."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 6, line 17, by striking out the bracket before the word "central."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 6, line 17, by inserting after the word "central" the following: "divisional."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 6, line 17, by striking out the brackets after the word "court."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 7, line 5, by inserting a bracket before the word "Provided."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 7, line 8, by inserting a bracket after the word "months" and inserting immediately thereafter "in the manner of rotation as provided for in section eleven hereof."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 7, line 12, by inserting after the word "Central" the following: "Divisional."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. Has the gentleman from Philadelphia supplied the Majority and Minority Leaders with a copy of the amendments?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, we have no copies of the amendments under discussion.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, will you kindly pass this bill over so that the majority can examine the amendments? I regret that the gentleman did not give a copy to the Minority Leader so that we could transfer a copy to the Majority Leader.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman object to withholding consideration of this bill temporarily until the amendments can be examined by the minority?

Mr. GUARNIERI. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, at the convenience of the Chair, we can now proceed with Senate Bill No. 978 on Page 48. The minority is informed as to the amendments.

Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, if Mr. Guarnieri, the gentleman from Philadelphia, wants to offer the amendments, I have a copy of them.

The SPEAKER. Has the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, examined the amendments?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I have.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, Senate Bill 978, the bill to which I will offer the amendments, provides certain amendments to the Magistrates' Act of 1937.

Specifically, the amendments which I am offering will serve the purpose of placing the central police court in City Hall, Philadelphia, as well as the divisional police courts, all under a like and uniform system of rotation. Under the provisions of Senate Bill 978 it is provided that it place in the Mayor's hands, who has heretofore appointed the magistrates to sit in the several police courts the power to appoint such magistrates as under Bill 978 shall be approved by the Chief Magistrate of the Board of Magistrates in Philadelphia.

Senate Bill 978 also states that these magistrates shall be assigned by the Chief Magistrate to sit in the central police court, hereafter known as the Magistrate's Court in City Hall, for a period of one month each. It further goes on to state: "Provided however, that the same magistrates shall not be assigned for consecutive months nor more than once every twelve months." You will note that as to the magistrate who will sit in his court in City Hall, which shall be known as the central police court, there is a provision in Senate Bill 978 for rotation of the magistrates appointed by the Chief Magistrate only for a period of one year. The result of that is this, we have twenty-eight magistrates: the Chief Magistrate under this bill, Senate Bill 978, could elect and would elect only certain magistrates to sit in central police court in Philadelphia. In other words, he could choose only twelve out of twenty-eight to sit in any one year for a period of one month apiece, and the same twelve could sit in the following year. As the bill now stands, it would mean that any sixteen of the twenty-eight magistrates could be excluded entirely from sitting in the most important central police court. The purpose of my amendments is to make it mandatory that all magistrates shall be rotated in turn to sit in the central police court, hereby insuring that there shall be no favoritism in the appointment of magistrates or in that most important court, thereby insuring against favoritism.

As I was stating, the amendments would serve for a system of complete rotation in turn for each and every magistrate of the twenty-eight magistrates who form the board of magistrates, sitting in turn one month at a time in the central police court. Now, under the act of 1937 it was provided that as to the divisional police courts, to which magistrates are assigned to sit in the fourteen divisional police courts, there is a certain system of accurate rotation. The act of 1937 reads: "No magistrate shall be assigned more than one month in the same divisional police court. Every magistrate shall be assigned to each divisional police court in turn."

It is the intention of this amendment that there shall be established a system of rotation, whereby the same magistrates shall not be repeatedly assigned to the same police station or the divisional police courts. The judges of the Courts of Common Pleas of Philadelphia County are hereby given authority to enforce this provision.

The latter provision of the Act of 1937 which remains the same and is not changed in Senate Bill 978, was meant to insure a complete system of rotation of each magistrate in the ten to fourteen divisional police courts. Although that language is very clear in the Act of 1937, it has been a sad reflection that that part of the Act of 1937 which so specifically and in no uncertain terms declares that there shall be an absolute system of rotation in the divisional police courts, is not adhered to in Philadelphia. It is a sad commentary but it is true, and especially the members of the minority party, the Democratic party in Philadelphia, have been denied time and time again rightful rotation under the Act of 1937 in sitting in divisional police courts.

We know very well as a matter of common knowledge that the magisterial system has been used at times for the purpose of serving simply one political organization in Philadelphia, the Republican organization. It should be that the magisterial system and magisterial courts, being constitutional courts, should serve no political organization but they should serve the ends of justice under the law.

It is the purpose of the amendments that as well in the central police courts there shall be a complete system of rotation, so that each and every magistrate of the twenty-eight magistrates can sit more effectively in the central police court. The central police court in that respect would be part and parcel of a complete system of divisional police courts. I see no reason why there should be any objection to having the system of rotation also apply to the central police courts. The only objection may be out of political consideration by the Republican organization because heretofore the central police station which is the central police court in the City Hall in Philadelphia has been used notoriously as a weapon for the political organization.

Further we have noticed and it is a fact that despite the provisions of the Magistrates Act of 1937, members of the minor judiciary or magistrate's courts in Philadelphia of the Democratic party, Democratic magistrates, have not been appointed or assigned to sit in the divisional police stations in the month of October or November, that is a fact, Mr. Speaker. Democratic magistrates have been appointed or assigned to sit in October or November in the divisional police courts. Is that not an extraordinary fact, Mr. Speaker? It leads to but one conclusion, that the magisterial system today has been used by the Republican organization as a political football, and I say there should be no objection to making the rotation system applicable equally to the divisional police courts and the central police court under this act, and I therefore am offering these amendments.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose these amendments. I was against these amendments when the Attorney General's office investigated the magisterial system in Philadelphia. The Attorney's General office drew up this bill and this bill was introduced by Senator Meade with the entire support of the Republican party in Philadelphia. This bill which has been prepared by the Attorney General's office, is in the interest of the administration of justice in Philadelphia, and any change would weaken the provisions of the act which we are trying to strengthen. For that reason I ask the Members to vote the amendments down.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TAHL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, did I understand the gentleman to state when he rose to oppose these amendments that were offered that this bill had been prepared by the Attorney General's office in the light of disclosures of graft and corruption that had been disclosed in Philadelphia?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, it is not true what the gentleman said. The Attorney General's office discovered certain defects in the present Act. While it is a good Act yet they felt it could be strengthened in some respects and this bill is a result of that investigation.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Philadelphia feel that the bill would be strengthened to such an extent that the vast abuses that were pointed out to the citizens of Philadelphia as a result of the Attorney General's investigation, would be eliminated?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, this would improve the original magistrates' Act.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I accept the explanation of the learned Judge—I mean the learned gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. Speaker, I now yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Guarneri.

Mr GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I agree with the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, in this respect, that this act strengthens the power of the Attorney General to a certain extent, in regard to remedying certain abuses which have existed in the city of Philadelphia for quite some time.

There are many meritorious provisions in this bill. I want it understood I am not opposing those sections of the bill which tend to police the proper conduct of magistrates. However, the amendments I offered are just in fairness to provide rotation in the city hall as well as the divisional police courts. That was the only intention. I was not touching the other provisions of the Act which I think are excellent.

My remarks are not to be interpreted in any way as being criticism of the Chief Magistrate of Philadelphia, whom I admire and in whom I have great faith. However we do not have a government of men but a government of law, and we should only have regulations in rotation in the central police court to protect ourselves against men who may not be of the type and character and honesty such as our present Chief Magistrate of Philadelphia is, whom we all admire.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendments?

NOT VOTING—8

Boorse,	Brown, W. E.,	Ferster,	Krise,
Brown, H. S.,	Cochran,	Harney,	Penglase,
			Sollenberger,

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman withdraw the remaining amendments?

Mr. GUARNIERI. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TAHL offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 7, line 8, by striking out the brackets before and after the word "six."

Amend Sec. 4 (Sec. 10), page 7, line 8, by striking out the word "twelve."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TAHL. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Philadelphia state the purpose of his amendments?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, under the provisions of this bill, any change in decision of any magistrate must be consented to by the District Attorney. However, in cases which involve such infractions of the law as assault and battery, I believe under the Act of 1929, where there can be a private prosecutor, in most cases the magistrate may change his decision if the private prosecutor agrees to it.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I believe the gentleman said that this bill, Seante Bill 978, was given great study by the Attorney General's office.

Mr. TAHL. Yes, Mr. Speaker; it was prepared by the Attorney General's office.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in inferring that there is a provision which requires that there shall be no change in a decision by a magistrate except with the approval of the District Attorney or his assistant, and that this provision was also approved by the Attorney General?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, I would say that I discussed the matter with the Deputy Attorney General and he thought that this provision was all right.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, was that with Mr. Chidsey, the Attorney General?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Cummings, Deputy Attorney General.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Cummings of the Attorney General's office, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I told you it was Mr. Cummings, the Philadelphia representative of the Attorney General's office.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, is it not true that this Section 14 of Senate Bill 978 tends to take care of that situation in Philadelphia in the Magistrate's Courts, that is, that practice whereby decisions were changed by magistrates unlawfully? This section was intended to police the activities of the magistrates of Philadelphia by requiring that there shall be no change in the disposition of any criminal case except with the approval of the District Attorney or his assistant.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, this provision has nothing to do with police cases; this has only to do with private prosecutors under the Act of 1929, where a magistrate has the right to discharge defendants where the prosecutor agrees to it.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, this is 1949. Is there anything at this time which protects us from a situation in Philadelphia which cries for reform? This is 1949.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I take it that where a wife arrests a husband and then changes her mind and wants to drop the case, that is what this amounts to.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, it is immaterial to me under my way of thinking, what the Act of 1929 provides for. This is 1949. In the interval of about twenty years there has been a combination of circumstances in Philadelphia in the magisterial system which has revealed a situation in the two O'Malley trials of national fame, shall I say, which should furnish us authority to pass this legislation, to curtail some of the practices which have been in existence in the functioning of the magisterial courts. Therefore, the Attorney General's office for good reason prepared this bill in its complete form, and for that reason I ask you to vote down these amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Cambria arise?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I was arising to move the previous question, whatever the previous question was, but since the gentleman has concluded, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, has something to say, I will not make the motion.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, with respect to the amendment offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, wherein individuals who have instituted proceedings, sworn out a complaint and obtained a warrant in these minor cases, and they are desirous of withdrawing such complaint without the necessity of procuring consent from the district attorney's office, I see no objection to it. I think it is needed. I am aware of the fact that the Attorney General's office has prepared this measure and these amendments and I have no objection to this particular amendment, and I ask the Members to vote for the amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section as amended was agreed to.

The fifth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TAHL offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 5 (Sec. 11), page 10, by inserting between lines 18 and 19 the following: "The chief magistrate shall have the duty and power to appoint and assign magistrates to serve as committing magistrates in such other police stations of the city of Philadelphia where magistrates are authorized or required to serve."

It was agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The sixth to thirteenth sections inclusive were separately read and agreed to.

The fourteenth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. TAHL offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 14 (Sec. 43), page 18, line 18 by inserting after the word "and]" the following: "in the specific cases provided by law where the party complaining is authorized to acknowledge receiving satisfaction and have the defendant discharged, or in all other cases."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Scanlon and Mr. Guarnieri and were as follows:

The House resumed the consideration on second reading of Senate Bill No. 446, entitled

An Act to amend sections one two three four and seven and to repeal section five of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven (P. L. 1145) entitled "An act empowering cities of the second class cities of the second class A cities of the third class boroughs towns townships of the first class school districts of the second class school districts of the third class and school districts of the fourth class to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes subject to maximum limitations for general revenue purposes authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointment and compensation of officers and employees to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced providing an appeal from the ordinance or resolution levying such taxes to the court of quarter sessions and to the Supreme Court and Superior Court" prohibiting the levy and collection of certain taxes providing for an over-all limit on revenues to be collected annually and for the use of excess moneys collected requiring reduction of tax rates in certain cases and affording remedies to compel such reduction imposing limits on rates of certain taxes regulating appeals from tax ordinances and resolutions providing for joint agreements for the collection of taxes regulating penalties and interest on taxes and requiring certified copies of effective tax ordinances and resolutions to be filed with the Department of Internal Affairs

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section as amended?

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which the House agreed to the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington be reconsidered.

Mr. ROBBINS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Elder, vote on agreeing to the amendments.

Mr. ELDER. With the majority, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Robbins vote on agreeing to the amendments.

Mr. ROBBINS. With the majority, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, without passing on the merits of the controversy, the intelligence of the House is at stake, inasmuch as improper amendments were offered. I believe that it should be the sense of the House that what we do we should do in an intelligent manner. I would earnestly request the House to vote to reconsider so that we can then discuss the amendments that will be offered later, which I believe will be in keeping with parliamentary procedure.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman for what reason he wants to remove these amendments. Anybody over on the other side will do.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, the reason for reconsideration is two-fold. I believe they are in a wrong section; secondly, we ask for a reconsideration of the vote by which the amendments passed this afternoon.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, after the amendments were put into 446, quite some time later I was informed that the amendments were printed wrong, and I want the House to know that when this bill first came over—before it came over here—the amendments were drawn by the Legislative Reference Bureau to Senate Bill 446. Then it was Printer's No. 663. I requested amendments to remove the wage tax from Senate Bill 446. The bill, if I am not mistaken, coming out of Committee in the House was amended, which meant that I went back to the Legislative Reference Bureau and asked for a new set of amendments to take out the wage tax. I was given this amendment to Senate Bill 446 Printer's No. 701.

I want the House to know, and I want the record to show, if there was anything wrong with the amendments, if they were not placed in the right sections, it was the fault of the Legislative Reference Bureau and nobody else.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I would like the record to show that the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington, is without fault in the matter that prompted this controversy.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I will recognize the fact that the amendments which were offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington, were to a previous Printer's No. and did not fit into the bill which we were considering this afternoon. He is without fault in that respect.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, so that the record may be clear, the amendments offered by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Heatherington, were to Printer's No. 701. May I correct the gentleman in that regard?

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, we voted on these amendments earlier in the evening and we declared our intent. Regardless of what was wrong with the amendments, we gave our legislative intent in that vote. I think that is plenty and we should not have to vote on this issue again. I think if the majority party of this House wanted to do the honorable thing they would accept that roll-call as the roll-call on these amendments.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, this is a vote for reconsideration of the amendments which were passed this afternoon, and this is the proper procedure that is commonly used in matters of this kind. We, therefore, ask that the vote by which these amendments passed this afternoon be reconsidered.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, since the record shows and everyone here knows that the amendments were incorrect, I would like to withdraw the amendments, if it is possible.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman may withdraw the amendments after the question to reconsider has been decided.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, may I inquire as to what might be the parliamentary status of the bill if the reconsideration motion carried? Would it then be on second reading, subject to amendment?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct, it would.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I will withdraw my amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 17, by inserting after the word "authority]" the following: "or (3) to levy, assess or collect a tax on wages."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 4, line 17, by striking out the figure "(3)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(4)."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 5, line 17, by striking out the figure "(5)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(6)."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 5, line 18, by striking out the figure "(6)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(7)."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 1), page 9, line 9, by striking out the word "wages."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, in presenting these amendments we are simply trying to maintain orderly parliamentary procedure in a constitutional form of government, which transcends anything that might be a victory, but which would be something which would not make sense. However, I would like to say for the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran, that we did try to secure an agreement that the same roll call would be had. That we couldn't get. I should like now to yield to the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, we are back where we were this afternoon. The issue is a wage tax in the bill or a wage tax out. The scene has somewhat changed. In surveying the House I miss some familiar faces. I want to compliment the Majority Leader and the Majority Whip for having been able to call to their assistance powerful help. They have seen to it that certain faces were present in the Hall of the House and certain faces were absent. This afternoon for a brief period coal was out of the bill—the coal miners' wages were out of the bill. It has pleased the very powerful coal lobby for reasons known to themselves, to free itself by throwing the miners and other workers to the taxation wolves. I can assure you, gentlemen, that the coal lobby has been very busy, and I can assure you that the manufacturers' lobby has been very busy.

So, Mr. Speaker, we come once again to the matter of conviction. What has happened since this afternoon to shed new light upon the question we were discussing? What things have been brought to bear that we should reconsider a considered decision? I only know part of the story. I appreciate the pressure, but once again I appeal this evening, as I appealed this afternoon, to your sense of fairness. I say, as I said this afternoon, that we are in the midst of a sweep gradually to eliminate from this home rule tax structure everything substantial excepting wages and the sales tax. You take the utilities out; you take all the manufacturers' interests out; you take coal out. The only substantial part you have left is wages.

Now, Mr. Speaker, as a political issue I couldn't imagine a better and more inviting issue than you handed out tonight. As a result of this reconsideration you reserve your decision of this afternoon and you say that coal stays out of the bill, but the coal miner's wages stay in. I think that you can well afford from the standpoint of your own intellectual integrity to disregard anything that has happened, any pressure that has been brought to bear, any argument that has been made outside of the Hall of this House.

This afternoon I appealed to the conscience of this House and once again tonight I appeal to the conscience of this House. I believe that the amendments are in the line of substantial justice. Members of the House, the issue is, wages in or out of the bill.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, as I said this afternoon on the floor of this House, misconception rose two years ago after the passage of what is now known as 481 because of the language in that act, "they shall have the authority." Many municipalities gained the conception that they had to levy a tax of some kind.

This wage tax refers, not to a state wide wage tax. I want you to understand that thoroughly. It is a tax that is permitted to local political subdivisions and constitutes a home rule tax. Only those communities who elect to tax wages do so. It is not imposed upon the people generally in the state of Pennsylvania. Those people in the local political subdivisions who are satisfied to relieve some of the home owners of the burden of real estate taxes upon them are willing that their wages be taxed for the purpose of building up the facilities which they require in the communities in which they live. We certainly believe that they should be given that privilege and opportunity. They are the people who live there; they work there; they have their homes there; they like the community; it is the kind which appeals to them. If the cost of that community must be paid practically from a tax on wages, we certainly feel it is their privilege to do so. That is the heart and the meat of this local tax bill.

There are other taxes which can be considered by them, such as amusements as well as a few other taxes. Outside of that there is only one source by which a community can develop, and that is by raising money from taxes from other sources. So many subjects are taxed by the state that they cannot tax, so many subjects are taxed by other means, that we are limited in our taxes under this home rule bill, or even 481. They must have a spread of some kind in order to give them the privilege of developing their own local community. It is a matter of local pride in the various communities.

As to the question of coal, which the gentleman from Cambria has raised, I will concede that is something that has been sadly abused under 481. The same ton of coal has been taxed in several different political subdivisions by one manner of taxation or another. There is not only a tax upon the coal at the mines and in the community through which the coal passes, but there is a tax upon the route of that coal to the docks in another political subdivision, so that they tax the same subject a dozen different times when they see fit.

This bill which we have before us at the present time is an attempt to place certain limitations upon the double and treble taxation on the same subject. The question of double taxation is, as always, reprehensible to the American philosophy on government and economy. Therefore, we are trying by the various amendments contained in this bill to put limitations upon that authority. If this bill perchance from here in should fail with the wage tax out, we then would be faced with the necessity of continuing the tax two years, with no control such as we have had for the past two years under 481.

I certainly believe, Mr. Speaker, that we should afford to every local community the privilege of selecting the form of tax they desire to impose for the protection of the service which may be required in their local community, and for that reason I ask that the amendments be voted down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, it is interesting to hear as able an attorney as the gentleman from Cameron, extol on the one hand the beauties of local home rule, and on the other to present the necessity for rigid local control. It would have been just as easy for the gentlemen of the majority to have brought in a bill which would have made it impossible to tax coal in any more than one place—very easy.

The miners' wages, the workman's wages represent for him his protection. You might say to him that you can, from the standpoint of the wage earner, tax his total production, but you are saying that you cannot tax the production of his coal; you cannot tax the production of any manufacturer's article; you cannot tax your utilities. No, all you can tax is wages and amusements, which it boils down to. You cannot have local self home rule and control, both. You indict the very foundation of the bill, when you speak of control in order to correct the mistakes of the local community.

Why are you placing a top on wages? You could have placed a top on coal; you could have placed a top on steel; you could have placed a top on lumber. It is just as reasonable to do that as to open the door to all things that the state does not tax, and place a top thereon, but you exclude all the range of production and you pin the tax on the wages of the worker.

I submit that the amendment, gentlemen, is a charge upon your conscience.

Mr. POSTA. Mr. Speaker, last night in this House I heard the majority party bestow their love for our Minority Leader. Tonight I sit anxiously to hear them repeat—

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the remarks of the gentleman are not apropos to the issue. I wish he would not continue in that vein.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Cameron permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. TOMPKINS. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, it looks as though we were whipping in the wage tax again. The gentleman mentioned tonight that this coal tax is not an overall statewide proposition. Would the gentleman have any objection to holding it over temporarily so that we may have an amendment drawn putting a statewide two cent tax on coal, returning it to all municipalities?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I have no authority to hold this bill up any further.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman have any objection to an amendment to put a statewide two cent tax on coal, returning it to all municipalities?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, that issue is not before the House at this time.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman mentioned last night and today that the coal tax is not equal and it is not a statewide tax.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, it is a local tax. That is not germane to the argument in connection with the wage tax.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I took from the gentleman's remarks to mean that he would be willing to put a statewide two cent tax on coal.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, if I left that impression with the gentleman, he is wrong.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman object to holding the bill up so that we can put a two cent tax on coal and return it to all municipalities?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I will stand on this bill as it is.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. I thank the gentleman, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the vote to be taken on these amendments limited to that amending Section 1, Page 4, line 17 by inserting after the word "authority" the following: "3. Levy, assess or collect tax on wages," and not on the rest of the amendments.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, that is acceptable.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, so as to make certain that the record of this House is correct, for my own personal feelings on this matter, I would like to make the following statement:

I am not personally against a wage tax as such, but I believe every Member of this House knows that I am against a wage tax on non-residents; I am against a non-resident wage tax, and I want the record straight on that regard.

I would like to yield, Mr. Speaker, to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Milliken.

Mr. MILLIKEN. Mr. Speaker, I did not vote on these amendments this afternoon because I felt that they were not of any particular interest to the people of my county. I have always been against a wage tax, particularly a wage tax on non-residents, but I am still for home rule. Being a local Burgess of Sharon Hill, I feel we should have the right to decide what taxes we shall place on our own citizens. Therefore, I am going to vote against these amendments.

Mr. BLOOM. Mr. Speaker, I am opposed to a wage tax. We have none in Delaware County. I am opposed to a wage tax upon non-residents. We don't do that in Delaware County. I am opposed to the Philadelphia wage tax as it affects the citizens of Delaware County. As my colleague has said, Members of this House, when we enlisted their aid to help us eliminate the wage tax on non-residents, they gave us nothing but the most cool reception.

To hear men talk as they do tonight is an insult on the intelligence of those who sought their aid. Since the recess this afternoon I assure you that no manufacturer, directly or indirectly, contacted me in any manner whatsoever; I assure you, that no member of the miners or miners' lobby in any way contacted me or had any effect whatsoever upon my judgment that I am going to exercise now.

As the gentleman from Cameron said, I construe this as a home rule bill. My colleagues who are anxious to have their respective communities determine the kind and classification of taxes they desire, have talked with me and I feel, after listening to what they have to say, that they have the right to have an opportunity, each community for itself, to determine whether or not they wish to pass a wage tax. My record in this House shows that on each measure as it comes before me, regardless of whether it be a bill in regard to manufacturers or a labor bill, I approach it from the standpoint of the best interests of all the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Because of that fact I am opposing these amendments.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Bloom.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLOOM. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I kind of agreed with the gentleman from Delaware until he came to the end. I understand the gentleman to say that he was going to oppose the amendment.

Mr. BLOOM. That is what the gentleman heard me say, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, when the gentleman opposes the amendments, leaving the wage tax in the bill, that means, does it not, that he is voting for a wage tax?

Mr. BLOOM. That does not mean that at all, Mr. Speaker. It means just as the bill provides, that each community can determine for itself whether or not they desire the prerogative given to them by this home rule bill to tax wages. It does not mean that I am in favor of the wage tax.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, in my community we are definitely against a wage tax, so, we put a two cent tax on coal. Is the gentleman for the bill to remove that tax on coal and have us put a tax on the coal miners? Am I right or am I wrong?

Mr. BLOOM. Mr. Speaker, I am only for the bill. It doesn't say anything about the things the gentleman mentioned.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I am willing to vote for this bill if the amendments exclude the wage tax, take the wage tax out of it, but the gentleman is going to vote against the amendment and leave the wage tax in.

Mr. BLOOM. Mr. Speaker, I am going to vote for the bill so that each community may determine for itself just how it will impose a tax.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman sure he knows how he is voting?

Mr. BLOOM. I do, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, if there is any man in this room who can show me when he votes against these amendments that he is not for the wage tax, I would like to have that explained.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I will not apologize for taking up the time of the House. I did not think it would be necessary that I should have to make another speech on the same thing, but we find that the speed under which we act, as I said before, leaves us where we have to continually make speeches.

I want to assure you men in this House that I am for this bill as it came into this House. I am for these amendments that you men were for this afternoon. I warned you two years ago that eventually you were going to put this tax on the working men. That is where you finally wound up, and you know it. You can get up and make speeches all night about being opposed to a wage tax, but that does not mean a thing back home to the people who have to pay the wage tax. The only way you can prove to them that you are opposed to a wage tax is to do the same thing that we are doing here. You should show the people back home that you are going to take out of this bill the right to put that wage tax on.

I am opposed to a wage tax. I have stood here and fought and talked to you men on the other side and on this side at the last Session of the Legislature on this same problem, and I am sorry that I had to make two speeches today in order to tell you men. So, all I want to say to you is, let's be fair, if you were for these working men this afternoon and opposed to the wage tax, then you should be just as fair tonight as you were this afternoon, and take this wage tax out.

That is not going to destroy this piece of legislation. This bill is all right. If we take the wage tax out, that is not going to spoil the bill. Who said that it cannot pass if we do not put the wage tax in? The Governor? If we do find out that the Governor is for a wage tax, let him face it. Why shouldn't he face it? Pass the bill and let the Governor veto it and then we will know who is opposed to taking the wage tax out and protecting the working people of Pennsylvania. If the Governor's political future depends on that, I guarantee you that he is a dead pigeon, I will guarantee you that from now on he is a dead pigeon. When he is the fellow who stands up and says that he won't take the wage tax out, when he does that in order to put you on the spot, then you put him on the spot. Pass the bill without a wage tax in and then see what happens.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I had not intended to get into this discussion, but I feel after the remarks of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Lovett, that I too should state for the record, so far as we are concerned on this side, that we have determined as a group of legislators to take a position on another bill. We have received no instructions from anyone; that is the way we act over here.

I would like to agree with the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, that the way this bill was amended, it reduces it to an absurdity because the amendments did not fit into the bill to make it at all intelligent or operative, but since I am on my feet I would like to join with the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, and ask the members to vote this amendment down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BRUNNER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is it the gentleman's opinion that various Members of the House who voted for the bill this afternoon but may not vote for it this evening, voted for it this afternoon because it was not in proper form? Was that the reason they voted for it?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I am not able to account for what reasons the various Members on this side and the other side vote from time to time on any measure that is on the calendar.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman from Montgomery.

I would hate to think that the Members of the House who voted for the bill this afternoon and who may not be present tonight to vote for it, or who may wish to change their position, that they voted for it this afternoon because it was not drawn in proper order.

Mr. MILLIKEN. Mr. Speaker, I would just like to say that this bill that we are discussing now has nothing to do with the Philadelphia wage tax. If this bill passes or fails, it will not help in my opinion one bit. It will not help in my opinion one bit to relieve my community. We are opposed to the Philadelphia wage tax on non-residents. I will continue that fight as long as I am a Member of this General Assembly.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, just one more word, I want to tell the gentleman who just spoke that I voted for a bill to do the very thing that he wants to do back some years ago and it was introduced by a Republican on the other side of this House.

The SPEAKER. Pursuant to the request to divide the question, the Chair will read the amendment, for the information of the House, that we are about to vote upon.

Amend Section 1 (Sec. 1) page 4, line 17, by inserting after the word "authority]" the following: or (3) to levy, assess or collect a tax on wages

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment as read by the Speaker?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Evans and Mr. Readinger and were as follows:

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Stank, Readinger and Weiss.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the amendment was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section?
It was agreed to.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, whether the remainder of the amendments may be withdrawn.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.
The second and third sections were separately read and agreed to.

The title was read.
On the question,
Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. BROWN offered the following amendment:
Amend title, page 1, lines 1 and 2 of title, by striking out the words "and to repeal section 5"

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the amendment as suggested by Mr. Brown to the title is approved by us.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I wanted Mr. Brown to withdraw his amendments and let the Majority Leader have the pleasure and the honor of amending the title of the bill, but Mr. Brown says that the Majority Leader is not prepared to amend the title of the bill, that it will take some time to prepare the amendment. So, Mr. Brown insisted upon having his amendment stick, but I conferred the honor upon the Majority Leader.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?
It was agreed to.
The title as amended was agreed to.
And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,
Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 909

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 909, Printer's No. 580, entitled:

An Act appropriating certain surplus funds to the Department of Public Assistance upon the exhaustion of its appropriation was ordered to be transcribed for third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. PROPERT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Smith, vote on ordering to transcribe the bill for third reading?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. With the majority, Mr. Speaker.

The SEAKER. How did the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Propert, vote on ordering to transcribe the bill for third reading?

Mr. PROPERT. With the majority, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. Mr Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill was agreed to on second reading, be reconsidered

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH. I move that the vote by which the title and the various sections were agreed to, be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CHARLES C. SMITH offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 1, page 1, line 1, by inserting after the word "funds" the following: "in the General Fund."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

SENATE BILL FOR CONCURRENCE

SENATE BILL No. 438.

An Act to encourage the suitable useful continual and gainful employment of service disabled veterans through the creation and administration of the Service Disabled Veterans Employment Disability Trust providing for its administration by the Workmen's Compensation Board and payments therefrom in cases of additional disability through accidents in employment and making an appropriation.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 912.

An Act relating to and regulating the business of dry cleaning and dyeing as herein defined granting authority to and imposing duties upon the Department of Labor and Industry requiring approval by said Department of certain plans for dry cleaning and dyeing plants and the machinery equipment and systems used therein prescribing filing fees for applications for said approval providing for certain administrative and judicial review of the orders and decisions of said Department conferring authority upon certain employees of political subdivisions and representatives of the Pennsylvania State Police providing penalties for violations of the provisions of this Act or the regulations adopted thereunder and repealing certain acts

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 797

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 797, Printer's No. 784, entitled:

An Act to further amend section four hundred twelve of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership in county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violation of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by further providing for the compensation of judges inspectors clerks and machine inspectors and for mileage to persons furnishing transportation for transmitting returns and ballot boxes at primaries and elections was agreed to on third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Clarion, Mr. Varner, vote on agreeing to the bill on third reading?

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Tompkins, vote on agreeing to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. VARNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Title, page 2, last line of Title, by inserting after the word "elections" the following: "in all counties except in counties of the first and second class."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 412), page 4, line 19, by inserting after the word "boxes" the following: "in counties of the third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes."

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 412), page 5, line 9, by striking out the word "clauses" and inserting in lieu thereof: "sub-sections."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, in reference to the proposal that we are now considering, I did not know that this was coming up, inasmuch as the bill was on final passage, ready to be passed by the House today. But this is the bill similar to the one sponsored by myself and several other colleagues on this side of the House.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman understand that the bill is called up for the purpose of amendment only?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to see the amendment.

Mr. TOMPKINS. Mr. Speaker, I am informed by the gentleman from Clarion, Mr. Varner, that he furnished a copy to the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews and also furnished a copy to Mr. Brown.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. The gentleman is right; I have a copy of the amendments. However, there is so much confusion in the House that it is utterly impossible to follow the procedure.

The SPEAKER. These amendments are being offered at this time only to expedite the printing problem, to expedite the business of today and tomorrow.

Mr. PETROSKY. I have no objection to the amendment, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

SENATE BILLS PASSED OVER

The SPEAKER. The remaining Senate Bills on the calendar will be passed over until tomorrow, if there is no objection. The Chair hears none, and the bills are passed over.

If there is no objection, the communications from the Senate will be laid on the Speaker's table until tomorrow. The Chair hears none, and the communications are laid on the Speaker's table.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE ON SENATE BILL NO. 982

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 982, Printer's No. 673, entitled:

To amend sections five hundred two five hundred eight (d) and (h) two thousand four hundred two (h) two thousand four hundred eight (a) and (c) and two thousand four hundred eleven (b) (c) and (d) of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments was ordered to be transcribed for third reading, be reconsidered.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner, vote on ordering the bill to be transcribed for third reading?

Mr. BRUNNER. With the majority, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, vote on ordering the bill to be transcribed for third reading?

Mr. BROWN. With the majority, Mr. Speaker.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, agrees with my position that the bill is unconstitutional and that is the reason for my motion for reconsideration of the vote on this bill.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. BRUNNER. I move that the vote by which the title and the various sections were agreed to, be reconsidered. The motion was agreed to.

BILL DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. SNIDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House now adjourn until Thursday, April 28, 1949, at 10:00 a. m., E. S. T.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 11:10 p. m., E. S. T.) the House adjourned.

SENATE

THURSDAY, April 28, 1949

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. WILLIAM D. McLEAN offered the following prayer:

Eternal God, the heavenly Father of us all, Who art the fountain of all wisdom, we praise Thee and give thanks to Thee for the rewards that hath been given to us in the Session of the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania now drawing to a close.

Grant that all legislation that has been approved will be put to use for Thy glory and for Thy purpose as well as for benefit of the people of this Commonwealth. May our errors be corrected and may our righteousness flourish that we may all live in Godly charity with each other. In these final hours, while there is yet time, may we accomplish that which is necessary and well pleasing in Thy sight.

When this Session is over, may we go in peace, with all hatred and prejudice removed, and be kindly affectioned one toward another in brotherly love, so that Thy blessings may abound in us more and more.

Grant to us, both in returning to our homes as well as our sojourns through life, a safe journey and a pleasant end.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. DIEHM, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to call the attention of the Members of the Senate to the card which has been placed on their desks, by the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate.

If the gentlemen of the Senate will please fill out these cards, and turn them in to the Secretary of the Senate so that they can be delivered to the Sergeant-at-Arms, the material involved will be transported to their homes or offices, according to the designation on the card. This will expedite your continued study of legislative matters during the interim.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Daniel B. Strickler) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

COMMUNICATIONS

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following communications which were read by the Clerk:

THE SENATE

Lansing 2, Michigan

April 26, 1949

Honorable Daniel Strickler

President of the Senate

Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Good morning, Mr. Strickler:

The Michigan Legislature, by adoption of the enclosed resolution, has directed me to forward to you, as presiding officer of your Senate, a duly attested copy of House Concurrent Resolution No. 26, making application to the Congress for the calling of a convention to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, and Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 18, requesting your legislature to adopt the above resolution.

The Michigan Legislature requests that you place House Concurrent Resolution No. 26 before your Senate for consideration as soon as possible: If you are now in session, by immediate presentation; if not in session, by presentation at the next special or regular session.

May we have an acknowledgment of receipt of these resolutions?

Sincerely yours,

FRED I. CHASE

STATE OF MICHIGAN
MICHIGAN LEGISLATURE

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION No. 26

offered by

Representatives Anderson, Christman, Carroll and Hutchinson and Senators Tripp, Bonine, Hittle and Martin

A Concurrent Resolution making application to the Congress of the United States for the calling of a convention to propose an amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

Whereas, Article V of the Constitution of the United States reads in part as follows: "The Congress on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states" and

Whereas, The legislature of the state of Michigan, in view of the increasing tax problems of the state, caused in large part by the invasion of tax sources by the federal government, believes that its problems as well as the problems of other states similarly situated, can be solved only by some restraint upon present unrestrained exercise of the taxing power by the federal government; and

Whereas, The federal government is using and has been using for a number of years the taxing power to produce revenue beyond a legitimate necessity of a federal government, other than defense needs, and has been using the funds so raised to invade the province of legislation of the states and to appropriate in many fields that which amounts to a dole to the states of the money raised therefrom to accomplish many purposes, most of them worthy, but by the described process making the money available only under conditions which result in a control by the federal government from centralized agencies in Washington, in many cases unfit, and in other cases unable to administer the laws according to the local needs because of varying conditions in the country as a whole; resulting in inequities in the administration of the very benefits purported to be granted; and

Whereas, State and local needs are disadvantaged because the people are already taxed far beyond the need for any purpose other than forcing the centralization of all government in Washington; and

Whereas, The framers of the Constitution of the United States clearly foresaw the possibility of a condition similar to that herein described, and made provision in the Constitution for safeguarding the states against any oppression or invasion of rights by the federal government; therefore be it

Resolved by the legislature of the state of Michigan That said legislature, hereby and pursuant to Article of the Constitution of the United States, makes application to the Congress of the United States to call a convention for the proposing of the following amendment to the Constitution of the United States;

Article —

Section 1. The power to levy taxes and appropriate the revenues therefrom heretofore granted to the Congress by the states in the several articles of this constitution is hereby limited.

Sec. 2. This article shall be in effect except during a state of war, hereafter declared, when it shall be suspended. The suspension thereof shall end upon the termination of the war but not later than three months after the cessation of hostilities, whichever shall be earlier. The cessation of hostilities may be declared by proclamation of the President or by concurrent resolution of the Congress or by concurrent action of the legislatures of 32 states.

Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article V, this article may be suspended for a time certain or amended at any time by concurrent action of the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

Sec. 4. There shall be set aside in the treasury of the United States a separate fund into which shall be paid 25 per cent of all taxes collected by authority derived from the sixteenth amendment to this constitution, except as provided in section 5, and 25 per cent of all sums collected by the United States from any other tax levied for revenue.

Sec. 5. There shall be set aside in the treasury of the United States a separate fund into which shall be paid all sums received from taxes levied on personal incomes in excess of 50 per cent thereof and from taxes levied on income or profits of corporations in excess of 38 per cent thereof.

Sec. 6. Before paying any sums into the funds created by sections 4 and 5 hereof, the treasurer of the United States shall deduct therefrom 20 per cent which shall be used in payment of the principal of the national debt of the United States.

Sec. 7. No tax shall hereafter be imposed on that portion of the incomes of individuals which does not exceed, in the case of unmarried persons the sum of $600.00 per annum, and in the case of married persons the sum of $1,200.00 per annum jointly. A minimum deduction of $600.00 per annum shall be allowed for each dependent.

Sec. 8. The treasurer of the United States shall once in each year from the separate fund created by section 4 hereof, pay to each of the several states  $\frac{1}{4}$  of 1 per cent of said fund and from the remainder of said fund shall pay to each state a portion of such remainder determined by the population of each state in ratio to the entire population of the several states according to the last federal decennial census or any subsequent general census authorized by law.

Sec. 9. The treasurer of the United States shall, from the separate fund created by section 5 hereof, pay to each state, once in each year, a sum equal to the amount of money in such fund which was collected from persons or corporations within such state.

Sec. 10. Any sums paid hereunder to the several states shall be available for appropriation only by the legislatures thereof. The legislatures may appropriate therefrom for any purpose not forbidden by the constitutions of the respective states and may appropriate therefrom for expenditures within the states for any purpose for which appropriations have heretofore been made by the Congress except such purposes as are specifically reserved by this constitution for the exclusive power of the Congress. The people of each state may limit the expenditures of funds herein made available to the legislature, but shall not direct the appropriation thereof.

Sec. 11. Each legislature shall have power by rule or resolution to provide for the assembly thereof in special sessions for the purpose of considering amendments to, the suspension of or the ratification of amendments proposed to this article.

Sec. 12. Each legislature shall have power to elect one or more persons to represent such legislature in any council or convention of states created by concurrent action of the legislatures of 32 states for the purpose of obtaining uniform action by the legislatures of the several states in any matters connected with the amendment of this article.

Section 13. The Congress shall not create, admit or form new states from the territory of the several states as constituted on the first day of January, 1949, and shall not create, form or admit more than three states from the territories and insular possessions under the jurisdiction of the United States on the first day of January, 1949, or from territory thereafter acquired without the express consent of the legislatures of  $\frac{3}{4}$  of the several states.

Sec. 14. On and after January 1, 1949, the dollar shall be the unit of the currency. The gold content of the dollar as fixed on January 1, 1949, shall not be decreased.

Sec. 15. Concurrent action of the legislatures of the several states as used herein shall mean the adoption of the same resolution by the required number of legislatures. A limit of time may be fixed by such resolution within which such concurrent action shall be taken. No legislature shall revoke the affirmative action of a preceding legislature taken therein.

Sec. 16. During any period when this article is in effect the Congress may, by concurrent resolution adopted by two-thirds of both houses wherein declaration is made that additional funds are necessary for the defense of the nation, limit the amount of money required by this article to be returned to the several states. Such limitation shall continue until terminated by the Congress or by concurrent action of a majority of the legislatures of the several states. Upon termination of any such limitation the Congress may not thereafter impose a limitation without the express consent by concurrent action of a majority of the legislatures of the several states.

Sec. 17. This article is declared to be self-executing and be it further

Resolved, That attested copies of this concurrent resolution be sent to the presiding officers of each House of the Congress and to each member of the Michigan delegation in Congress, and that printed copies thereof, showing that said concurrent resolution was adopted by the legislature of Michigan, be sent to each House of each legislature of each state of the United States; and be it further

Resolved, That this application hereby made by the legislature of the state of Michigan shall constitute a continuing application in accordance with Article V, of the Constitution of the United States until at least two-thirds of the legislatures of the several states shall have made similar applications pursuant to said Article V; and be it further

Resolved, That since this is an exercise by a state of the United States of a power granted to it under the Constitution, the request is hereby made that the official journals and Record of both Houses of Congress, shall include the resolution or a notice of its receipt by the Congress, together with similar applications from other states, so that the Congress and the various states shall be apprised of the time when the necessary number of states shall have so exercised their power under Article V of the Constitution; and be it further

Resolved, That since this method of proposing amendments to the Constitution has never been completed to the point of calling a convention and no interpretation of the power of the states in the exercise of this right has ever been made by any court or any qualified tribunal, if there be such, and since the exercise of the power is a matter of basic sovereign rights and the interpretation thereof is primarily in the sovereign government making such exercise and since the power to use such right in full also carries the power to use such right in part the legislature of the state of Michigan interprets Article V to mean that if two-thirds of the states make application for a convention to propose an identical amendment to the Constitution for ratification with a limitation that such amendment be the only matter before it, that such convention would have power only to propose the specified amendment and would be limited to such proposal and would not have power to vary the text thereof nor would it have power to propose other amendments on the same or different propositions; and be it further

Resolved, That the legislature of the state of Michigan does not, by this exercise of its power under Article V, authorize the Congress to call a convention for any purpose other than the proposing of the specific amendment which is a part hereof; nor does it authorize any representative of the state of Michigan who may participate in such convention to consider or to agree to the proposing of any amendment other than the one made a part hereof; and be it further

Resolved, That by its actions in these premises, the legislature of the state of Michigan does not in any way limit in any other proceeding its right to exercise its power to the full extent; and be it further

Resolved, That the Congress, in exercising its power of decision as to the method of ratification of the proposed article by the legislatures or by conventions, is hereby requested to require that the ratification be by the legislatures.

Adopted by a majority vote of the Representatives-elect, April 7, 1949.

Adopted by a majority vote of the Senators-elect, April 11, 1949.

Fred I. Chase, Secretary of the Senate

Norman E. Philleo, Clerk of the House of Representatives

I, F. M. ALGER, JR., Secretary of State of the State of Michigan, do hereby certify that Fred I. Chase and Norman E. Philleo, whose names are subscribed to the foregoing concurrent resolution, were at the time of such subscription the duly qualified Secretary of the Senate and Clerk of the House of Representatives of the State of Michigan respectively, and as such officers authorized to execute said concurrent resolution.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State at the Capitol, in the City of Lansing, this twentieth day of April, A. D. 1949.

F. M. ALGER, JR.
Secretary of State.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
Michigan Legislature

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 18

offered by

Senators Tripp, Bonnie, Hittle and Martin and Representatives Anderson, Christman, Carroll and Hutchinson

A concurrent resolution requesting the several States of the United States to adopt a resolution making application for a convention to propose an amendment to the Constitution relating to Taxes.

When in the course of human events it becomes evident that the federal government of the United States of America:

1. Has progressively invaded most of the lucrative fields of taxation.
2. Has multiplied its levies of taxes.
3. Has used the taxing power to bring about a veritable revolution in the economic structure of the nation.
4. Has collected taxes far in excess of its just or reasonable needs.
5. Has utilized the excess tax revenues to create controlled doles to the states.
6. Has by such doles more and more completely controlled through a centralization of government the lives and affairs of the people.
7. Has created an ever increasing number of bureaus.
8. Has granted power to bureaucrats to make rules having the effect of law, and subjected the people to them.
9. Has created waste and fostered inefficiency in government.
10. Has, by inducement of matching funds, lured legislatures into participating in such waste.
11. Has depleted federal trust funds and thereby caused the need of new taxes to restore broken guarantees.
12. Has wasted, according to recent reports, 3 billions of dollars per annum by inefficient methods in civil government.

13. Has wasted more billions by permitting continued inefficiency and disunity in the operations of the armed forces.

14. Has fostered dissension and the creation of classes, special interests and pressure groups.

15. Has in large part destroyed the balance of government as created in and intended by the constitution of the United States.

It becomes necessary for the state to take cognizance of the dangerous trends of government and utilize the safeguards in the constitution provided for the states in the wisdom and forethought of the framers of the constitution; and,

Whereas, The state of Michigan has adopted a resolution making application under Article V of the constitution for the calling of a convention to propose to the states a specific amendment to the constitution to limit taxing power and to return to the states a portion of money collected in federal taxation and to authorize the expenditure of such funds in fields in which the Congress has more and more invaded the states, thereby preventing further invasion of basic functions of the states and recapturing some functions heretofore lost; and,

Whereas, In order to exercise the rights and powers of the states under Article V it is necessary that a minimum of 32 states adopt an identical resolution in order to control the operation of such a convention when called; and,

Whereas, The legislature of the state of Michigan has considered the various problems involved in the suggested procedure and has arrived at what it deems an acceptable resolution containing sufficient safeguards; and,

Whereas, If amendments thereto are adopted, the validity and effect of the entire proceedings may be jeopardized and brought to naught; and,

Whereas, Because of the foregoing, the legislature of the state of Michigan believes the principles of government affected thereby and the purposes to be accomplished may be acceptable to at least two-thirds of the states; now therefore be it

Resolved, by the legislature of the state of Michigan, That copies of this resolution be sent, together with copies of the resolution proposing a convention for the amendment of the constitution, to all the legislatures of the states of the Union, and that such states are hereby requested to adopt such resolution as written, in order that the principle of amendment by the states may be tested, to the end that the states may benefit from the proposals contained therein.

Adopted by a majority vote of the Senators-elect, April 11, 1949.

Adopted by a majority vote of the Representatives-elect, April 14, 1949.

Fred I. Chase, Secretary of the Senate

Norman E. Philleo, Clerk of the House of Representatives

Section 2 Definition of State As used in this act the word "State" shall mean any state territory or possession of the United States and the District of Columbia

Section 3 Interpretation This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it

Section 4 Compromise Agreement Filing Interest or

Penalty for Nonpayment of Taxes When the register of wills of any county or the Secretary of the Department of Revenue of the Commonwealth claims that a decedent was domiciled in this State at the time of his death and the taxing authorities of another state or states make a like claim on behalf of their state or states the Secretary of Revenue may with the approval of the Attorney General make a written agreement of compromise with the other taxing authorities and the executor or administrator of such decedent that a certain sum shall be accepted in full satisfaction of any and all inheritance taxes imposed by this State including any interest or penalties to the date of signing the agreement. The agreement shall also fix the amount to be accepted by the other states in full satisfaction of inheritance taxes. The executor or administrator of such decedent is hereby authorized to make such agreement. Such agreement shall finally and conclusively fix and determine the amount of tax payable to this State without regard to any other provision of the laws of this State. Unless the tax so agreed upon is paid within sixty (60) days after the signing of such agreement interest or penalties shall thereafter accrue upon the amount fixed in the agreement but the time between the decedent's death and the signing of such agreement shall not be included in computing the interest or penalties. In the event the aggregate amount payable under such agreement to the states involved is less than the maximum credit allowable to the estate against the United States estate tax imposed with respect thereto the personal representatives forthwith shall also pay to the department so much of the difference between such aggregate amount and the amount of such credit as the amount payable to the department under the agreement bears to such aggregate amount. A copy of any such agreement shall be filed in the office of the proper Register of Wills and any existing appraisal shall be deemed modified according to said agreement in the event no appraisal has been made and filed prior to said agreement the Department of Revenue shall direct an appraisal to be made and filed in the office of the proper Register of Wills in accordance with said agreement.

Section 5 Arbitration Agreement When the Register of Wills of any county or the Secretary of the Department of Revenue claims that a decedent was domiciled in this State at the time of his death and the taxing authorities of another state or states make a like claim on behalf of their state or states the Secretary of Revenue may with the approval of the Attorney General make a written agreement with the other taxing authorities and with the executor or administrator of such decedent to submit the controversy to the decision of a board consisting of one or any uneven number of arbitrators. The executor or administrator of such decedent is hereby authorized to make the agreement. The parties to the agreement shall select the arbitrator or arbitrators.

Section 6 Hearings The board shall hold hearings at such times and places as it may determine upon reasonable notice to the parties to the agreement all of whom shall be entitled to be heard to present evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses.

Section 7 Powers of Board The board shall have power to administer oaths take testimony subpoena and require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books papers and documents and issue commissions to take testimony. Subpoenas may be signed by any member of the board. In case of failure to obey a subpoena any judge of a court of record of this State upon application by the board may make an order requiring compliance with the subpoena and the court may punish failure to obey the order as a contempt.

Section 8 Determination of Domicile The board shall by majority vote determine the domicile of the decedent at the time of his death. This determination shall be final for purposes of imposing and collecting inheritance taxes but for no other purpose.

Section 9 Majority Vote Except as provided in section seven in respect of the issuance of subpoenas all questions arising in the course of the proceedings shall be determined by a majority vote of the board.

Section 10 Filing of Determination of Domicile and Other Documents The Secretary of Revenue Register of Wills of the board or the executor or administrator of such decedent shall file the determination of the board as to domicile the record of the board's proceedings and the agreement or a duplicate made pursuant to section five of this act with the authority having jurisdiction to assess or determine the inheritance taxes in the state determined by the board to be the domicile of the decedent and shall file copies of such documents with the authorities that would have been empowered to assess or determine the inheritance taxes in each of the other states involved.

Section 11 Interest or Penalties for Nonpayment of Taxes In any case where it is determined by the board that the decedent died domiciled in this State interest or penalties if otherwise imposed by law for nonpayment of inheritance taxes between the date of the agreement and of filing of the determination of the board as to domicile shall not exceed six per centum (6%) per annum.

Section 12 Compromise by Parties to Arbitration Agreement Nothing contained herein shall prevent at any time a written compromise if otherwise lawful by all parties to the agreement made pursuant to section four of this act fixing the amounts to be accepted by this and any other state involved in full satisfaction of inheritance taxes.

Section 13 Compensation and Expenses The compensation and expenses of the members of the board and its employes may be agreed upon among such members and the executor or administrator and if they cannot agree shall be fixed by any court having jurisdiction over probate matters of the state determined by the board to be the domicile of the decedent. The amounts so agreed upon or fixed shall be deemed an administration expense and shall be payable by the executor or administrator.

Section 14 Reciprocal Application The provisions of this act relative to arbitration shall apply only to cases in which and so far as each of the states involved has a law identical or substantially similar to this act.

Section 15 Estates Affected The provisions of this act shall apply to estates of decedents dying before or after its enactment.

Section 16 Repealer The act approved the fifth day of August one thousand nine hundred and forty-one (P. L. 815) entitled "An act to add section forty-three of the act approved the twentieth day of June one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. five hundred twenty-one) entitled 'An act providing for the imposition and collection of certain taxes upon the transfer of property passing from a decedent who was a resident of this Commonwealth at the time of his death and of property within this Commonwealth of a decedent who was a nonresident of the Commonwealth at the time of his death and making it unlawful for any corporation of this Commonwealth or national banking association located therein to transfer the stock of such corporation or banking association standing in the name of any such decedent until the tax on the transfer thereof has been paid and providing penalties and citing certain acts for repeal' authorizing compromise of tax claims in cases where there is a dispute as to the domicile of the decedent" is hereby repealed.

Section 17 Effective Date This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 536, as follows:

An Act to add section two thousand five hundred eleven point one to the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Act No 14) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by providing for annual payments by the Commonwealth to school districts erecting or sharing in the erection of a building or buildings or providing educational facilities under provisions of the State Public School Building Authority Act and making an appropriation

Section 1 The act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (Act No 14) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" is hereby amended by adding after section two thousand five hundred eleven thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 2511.1 Payments on account of obligations to state public school building authority The Commonwealth shall pay annually to school districts erecting or sharing in the erection of a building or buildings or providing educational facilities under the provisions of the State Public School Building Authority Act an amount to be determined by multiplying the district's standard reimbursement fraction by fifty one-hundredths (50-100) and by the annual rental charge as fixed by the State Public School Building Authority The standard reimbursement fraction used for the above purpose shall be the actual fraction as determined by the Department of Public Instruction as provided in clause (6) of section two thousand five hundred one of the act to which this is an amendment without reference to the minimum value of such reimbursement fraction

Payments to a school district shall be determined and approved by the Department of Public Instruction The amount so approved shall be included in and be payable from any future appropriations made to the Department of Public Instruction during the term that a lease exists between the school district and the Authority or so long as such school district is indebted to the Authority under said lease

Section 2 The sum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) or as much thereof as shall be necessary is hereby appropriated to the Department of Public Instruction for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this act

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading consideration of House Bill No. 980, as follows:

An Act to amend sections two and thirteen of the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P L 926) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the conduct and operation of public eating and drinking places within this Commonwealth requiring their licensing imposing certain duties on the Department of Health of this Commonwealth and on the local health authorities and providing penalties" by changing license fee provisions providing for payment of fees and fines to the various municipalities and empowering burgesses to try violators

Section 1 Sections two and thirteen of the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P L 926) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the conduct and operation of public eating and drinking places within this Commonwealth requiring their licensing imposing certain duties on the Department of Health of this Commonwealth and on the local health authorities and providing penalties" are hereby amended to read as follows

Section 2 From and after a period of six months after the effective date of this act it shall be unlawful for any proprietor to conduct or operate a public eating or drinking place without first obtaining a license as herein provided. Such license shall be issued by the health authorities of cities boroughs incorporated towns and first-class townships whenever such public eating or drinking place is located in a city borough incorporated town or first-class township and in townships of the second class by the department. No license shall be issued until inspection of the premises facilities and equipment has been made by the licensor and they are found adequate to the protection of the public health and comfort of patrons. The fee for such license shall be [one dollar ($1.00)] two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50) and shall be paid into the city borough incorporated town or [first-class] township treasury [or to the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue depending upon the location of such public eating or drinking place]. The license shall be renewed annually.

Whenever any proprietor maintains more than one public eating or drinking place within any one city borough incorporated town or township he shall be required to apply for and procure a duplicate license for each additional eating or drinking place. The fee for each such duplicate license [to be issued at an additional charge of fifty cents (50c) for each additional public eating or drinking place within any one city borough incorporated town or township] shall be two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50).

Section 13 Any proprietor who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding before any justice of the peace alderman or magistrate in the county in which the offense was committed or by the burgess if the violation is in a borough be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than fifty dollars ($50.00) to be paid [to said county] into the city borough incorporated town or township treasury and the costs of prosecution. Upon each subsequent conviction he shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) and costs of prosecution and in default of payment of such fine and costs shall be confined in the county jail for a period of not more than thirty (30) days

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1047, as follows:

An Act providing for the enforcement of foreign judgments by the registration thereof in the courts of this Commonwealth prescribing procedure for the obtaining of jurisdiction over the judgment debtor the raising of defenses thereto appeals therefrom and execution thereon and saving existing methods of enforcing the same

Section 1 Definitions As used in this act

(1) "Foreign judgment" means any judgment decree or order of a court of the United States or of any state or territory which is entitled to full faith and credit in this State

(2) "Register" means to file a foreign judgment in a court of this State

(3) "Levy" means to take control of or create a lien upon property under any judicial writ or process where-by satisfaction of a judgment may be enforced against such property

(4) "Judgment debtor" means the party against whom a foreign judgment has been rendered

Section 2 Registration of Judgment On application made within the time allowed for bringing an action on a foreign judgment in this State any person entitled to bring such action may have a foreign judgment registered in any court of this State having jurisdiction of such an action

Section 3 Application for Registration A petition for registration shall set forth a copy of the judgment to be registered the date of its entry and the record of any subsequent entries affecting it such as levies of execution payments in partial satisfaction and the like all authenticated in the manner authorized by laws of the United States or of this State and a prayer that the judgment be registered The clerk of the registering court shall notify the clerk of the court which rendered the original judgment that application for registration has been made and shall request him to file this information with the judgment

Section 4 Personal Jurisdiction At any time after registration the petitioner shall be entitled to have summons issued and served upon the judgment debtor as in an action brought upon the foreign judgment in any manner authorized by the law of this State for obtaining jurisdiction of the person

Section 5 Notice in absence of Personal Jurisdiction If jurisdiction of the person of the judgment debtor cannot be obtained a summons clearly designating the foreign judgment and reciting the fact of registration the court in which it is registered and the time allowed for pleading shall be sent by the clerk of the registering court by registered mail to the last known address of the judgment debtor Proof of such mailing shall be made by certificate of the clerk

Section 6 Levy At any time after registration and regardless of whether jurisdiction of the person of the judgment debtor has been secured or final judgment has been obtained a levy may be made under the registered judgment upon any property of the judgment debtor which is subject to execution or other judicial process for satisfaction of judgments

Section 7 New Personal Judgment If the judgment debtor fails to plead within thirty days after jurisdiction over his person has been obtained or if the court after hearing has refused to set the registration aside the registered judgment shall become a final personal judgment of the court in which it is registered

Section 8 Defenses Any defense which under the law of this State may be asserted by the defendant in an action on the foreign judgment may be presented by appropriate pleadings and the issues raised thereby shall be tried and determined as in other civil actions Such pleadings must be filed within thirty days after personal jurisdiction is acquired over him or within sixty days after the mailing of the notice prescribed in section five

Section 9 Pendency of Appeal If the judgment debtor shows that an appeal from the original judgment is pending or that he is entitled and intends to appeal therefrom the court shall on such terms as it thinks just postpone the trial for such time as appears sufficient for the appeal to be concluded and may set aside the levy upon proof that the defendant has furnished adequate security for satisfaction of the judgment

Section 10 Effect of Setting Aside Registration An order setting aside a registration constitutes a final judgment in favor of the judgment debtor

Section 11 Appeal An appeal may be taken by either party from any judgment sustaining or setting aside a registration on the same terms as an appeal from a judgment of the same court

Section 12 New Judgment Quasi In Rem If personal jurisdiction of the judgment debtor is not secured within thirty days after the levy and he has not within thirty days after the mailing of the notice prescribed by section five acted to set aside the registration the registered judgment shall be a final judgment quasi in rem of the court in which it is registered binding upon the judgment debtor's interest in property levied upon and the court shall enter an order to that effect

Section 13 Sale under Levy Sale under the levy may be held at any time after final judgment either personal or quasi in rem but not earlier except as otherwise provided by law for sale under levy on perishable goods Sale and distribution of the proceeds shall be made in accordance with the law of this State

Section 14 Interest and Costs When a registered foreign judgment becomes a final judgment of this State the court shall include as part of the judgment interest payable on the foreign judgment under the law of the state in which it was rendered and the cost of obtaining the authenticated copy of the original judgment The court shall include as part of its judgment court costs incidental to the proceeding in accordance with the law of this State

Section 15 Satisfaction of Judgment Satisfaction either

partial or complete of the original judgment or of a judgment entered thereupon in any other state shall operate to the same extent as satisfaction of the judgment in this State except as to costs authorized by section fourteen

Section 16 Optional Procedure The right of a judgment creditor to bring an action to enforce his judgment instead of proceedings under this act remains unimpaired

Section 17 Uniformity of Interpretation This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it

Section 18 Short Title This act may be cited as the "Uniform Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act"

Section 19 Repeal All act or parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

Section 4 Eminent Domain—The State Planning Board shall have the power in the name of the Commonwealth to exercise the right of eminent domain in the manner provided by law for the exercise of such right by cities or counties as the case may be of the same class as the city or county in which such board has approved the initiation of a project. Title to any property acquired by the board through eminent domain shall be an absolute or fee simple title unless a lesser title shall be designated in the eminent domain proceedings. If any of the real property in the area which is to be acquired has prior to such acquisition been devoted to another public use, it may nevertheless be acquired by condemnation. Provided That no real property belonging to a city, county, borough, town or township or to the Commonwealth may be acquired without its consent. No real property belonging to a public utility corporation may be acquired without the approval of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission.

Section 5 Cooperation of Other Agencies—The State Planning Board may request from the various State departments and other agencies and authorities of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions and their agencies and authorities such available information as it may require in its work and all these agencies and authorities shall within a reasonable time furnish such requested information to the board.

Section 6 Submission of Plans to Governor—The board at any time may submit its plans or programs or any portion thereof to the Governor with recommendation for official approval but it shall annually submit to the Governor a report on its program and activities.

Section 7 Investigative Powers of the Board—The board or any member or the Executive Director thereof when authorized to do so by a majority at any meeting of the board may hold public hearings and in conducting public hearings may administer oaths and take affidavits. Each member of the board or its duly authorized agents shall have the power to make personal inspections of all places concerned in the performance of their duties.

Section 8 Procedure and Appeal—Allocations of the board shall be taken subject to the right of notice hearing and adjudication and the right of appeal therefrom in accordance with the provisions of the "Administrative Agency Law" approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P L 1388) or any amendment or reenactment thereof relating to adjudication procedure.

Section 9 Reports from Housing or Redevelopment Authorities—The Board may require a Housing or Redevelopment Authority to file periodical reports in addition to annual reports but not oftener than quarterly covering its operations and activities. Such reports shall be in a form prescribed by the board. The board may from time to time require from such an authority or any member thereof and authorities and members are directed to give specific answers to questions upon which the board may require information in order to effectuate the purposes of this act.

Section 10 Supervision of Members of Authorities—If it shall appear to the board that any member or employee of a Housing Authority or of an Urban Redevelopment Authority has had any undisclosed interest in any property included in any project of such authority or in any contract for materials or service furnished to such authority, the board shall call the fact to the attention of the Attorney General that appropriate action may be taken to surcharge such member or employee.

Section 11 Expenditure of Money—The State Planning Board is hereby authorized and empowered to use and expend any funds coming into its hands for the purposes of this act and it is authorized and empowered to accept and use any funds provided by the United States Government or any agency thereof or of gifts made for such purposes.

Section 12 Repeal—The following acts and their amendments are hereby repealed:

The act approved the thirteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six (P L 81) entitled "An act to create a State Planning Board prescribing its powers and duties imposing certain duties upon political subdivisions and making an appropriation."

The act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P L 1705) entitled as amended "An act to promote public health, morals, safety and welfare by providing for the supervision and encouragement of housing, creating a State Board of Housing, a departmental administrative board within the Department of [Health] Commerce providing for the organization of the board, the appointment and removal of its members, enumerating its duties and powers including the powers to conduct investigations, issue subpoenas, apply to courts for punishment of contempts, make orders, rules and regulations, prescribe forms, require reports, supervise the operations of limited dividend housing companies and housing and redevelopment authorities and their members and employees, cooperate with local officials and bodies and with the Federal Government, acquire property by eminent domain for limited dividend housing companies, commence actions to prevent violations of law and to surcharge members of authorities, supervise rental charged by limited dividend companies, charge fees for services and generally to carry out the purposes of this act providing for the selection and compensation [removal] of the board's employes providing for appeals from its orders and making an appropriation"

All other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 13 Effective Date—This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I should like to make some remarks applying to House Bill No. 1052, House Bill No. 1053, House Bill No. 1054, House Bill No. 1055, House Bill No. 1056, House Bill No. 1057, House Bill No. 1058, and House Bill No. 1059, known as the Pennsylvania Housing Bills.

Mr. President, today we are required, as members of the Pennsylvania State Senate to vote on a proposal for an entirely new venture for the Commonwealth — a housing subsidy.

What is it—this new plan that would have been as foreign to Pennsylvania when I first came to our Legislative Halls in 1931 as an ice floe on the southern tip of Florida.

About three weeks ago I took several children and went on a trip to find "Billie the Buck", a deer known throughout a community bordering on the north mountain in Cumberland County—tame enough to follow school children and a very interesting creature. We went west on the Sterrett's Gap road until it crossed the iron ridge. There we left the State road, followed the township road south. We traveled slowly, for the road was stoney in places and "chucky" in others. A typical mountain road. House after house we passed, perhaps a dozen in all, where just a few years ago had been a mountain thicket and the lots had been literally chopped out of the wilderness. All the houses were new within the past few years. Here veterans, recently returned from the horrors of war caused by the planned economies and resultant dictators, and mill workers with white-collar workers, and others, had again hewed out as did their forefathers another little empire of freedom. A place they and their families could call their own. Suddenly, I realized this had happened all over Cumberland County, not just on iron ridge, and as well, all over Pennsylvania.

Would I then, today, vote to take the tax money of these enterprising Americans, to subsidize others on a paternalistic plan that has never worked even though tried, time and again, in Empires and Nations which now exist only in history.

The housing legislation now before us is a perfect illustration of the basic and fundamental differences of viewpoint between the Republican Party and the New Deal.

I am not a housing expert. My experience is limited to membership on the Board of a Bank and a Savings and Loan Company, and therefore, I cannot debate the details. I have had little opportunity to examine these bills carefully. I don't know what is in them or what hidden provisions they contain.

I believe that Governor Duff thinks that he is performing a great public service in demanding enactment of these bills. I do not believe the report which has been circulated in this Senate that the real reason we have this housing legislation before us is that U. S. Senator Myers will be campaigning for re-election on his record as a great advocate of spending the taxpayers' money on housing projects, and Governor Duff doesn't want to be outdone.

As I said before, I do not know exactly what is contained in these bills in their present form. I do know that attempts were made, when this whole project was originally suggested, to tie it into the life insurance business. I am in the life insurance business. It is common talk in life insurance circles that this legislation was planned as a subsidy to life insurance companies.

Insurance men regard this whole project as a practical joke which backfired, as some practical jokes do.

We hear that this housing program will be a great thing for the veterans of World War II. The newspapers tell us that the veterans' lobby is favorable to this legislation.

Mr. President, why not be honest about this veterans business? Thousands of veterans have borrowed money purchased lots, built small and large homes, and by hard work are paying the interest on mortgages, and are gradually paying off the principal.

Under this legislation Governor Duff proposes to permit another group—those who haven't worked quite as hard, who haven't been as frugal or had the ambition or the burning desire to own their own homes—to come in now, four years after V-J day and get a home for approximately thirty per cent less than the veteran who has built and is paying for his home.

Where is the fairness and justice in that sort of proposition?

This legislation, if enacted, will discourage the investment of private capital in home building. Why, in the name of common sense, should a man, or a bank, or an insurance company, or anyone else, put up his money to build homes with the idea of selling or leasing them, when he knows that right across the street another may be erected with the State paying thirty per cent of the cost?

Gentlemen, this legislation amounts to nothing more nor less than the confiscation of property. It amounts to nothing more nor less than state Socialism—and it is not even as good as state Socialism.

We here are asked to approve a proposition which means that one citizen of Pennsylvania can rent a place to live for $50.00 per month, while another citizen must pay $75.00 for the identical residence.

Are we to be Governor Duff's errand boys here in the State Senate of Pennsylvania to attempt to sell this bill of goods to our citizens?

All this, in the face of a most notable change in the real estate market which is becoming more pronounced daily. For example, I read from one of my favorite publications, "U. S. News", issue of tomorrow, April 29th, and I quote:

"So that you can get a picture of what's happening from the figures....

"On the downside you see these declines: New dwellings started per month: off 38 per cent from peak. Residential contracts: off 42 per cent."

It was 1849 and a vision had stirred the settled east! Families suddenly felt crowded by bustling seaboard cities; men are cramped in stone-walled fields. Ship-wright and planter, merchant and manufacturer hunger for wider horizons, for fresher scenes. So covered wagons creak over the frontier, rolling it into a map behind them. A dream moved these families. Along uncharted streams they surveyed towns yet a generation in the future. In the Great American Desert they saw another empire of Freedom—and their drive helped build this nation a continent wide from sea to sea. Their courage and daring played a great part in the development of this country. They created wealth. They became known as the Forty-Niners.

We members of this General Assembly may well become known as the Nineteen Fortyliners, but for the opposite reason. This General Assembly, upon orders from Governor Duff, has done much to destroy the American way of life. We have agreed to launch the greatest spending and taxing spree in the history of Pennsylvania.

The die is cast now—the deed is done. What I have to say will not change the situation one bit.

I again want to say to this Senate that Governor Duff and I have been personal friends for several years, and so far as I am concerned we will continue to be personal friends. I do not see why we cannot remain friends even though we have very different philosophies of government.

Regardless of personalities, I cannot let this Session end without making my position clear.

Governor Duff has prevailed upon this session of the Pennsylvania Legislature to enact a very definite program of state Socialism. He has succeeded in having us pass an almost exact duplicate of the little New Deal program brought to Pennsylvania by Governor Earle in the thirties. He has forced through the emergency taxes initiated by the Earle Administration, and a bigger and better authority plan—still constitutionally questionable. He is extending the Turnpike which was authorized and built by Earle. He has out-New Dealed Governor Earle by placing a tax on children's beverages. He has borrowed the youth camp idea from a European state. He has given local government the right to tax nearly everything.

When we adjourn we all know that Governor Duff is all ready to go on a streamlined silver-streaked spending spree, to be paid for by generations yet to come. I cannot help but think that His Excellency, Governor Duff, has been influenced by others whose motives are in direct contradiction to the ideals upon which America was founded and has grown great.

Many times during this session I have heard my Democratic friends charge that the Manufacturer's Association has done this or done that to influence legislation in this Senate. I would like to say to my Democratic friends that if what has been accomplished at this session of the General Assembly is any reflection of the political power of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers' Association, they had better find themselves a new whipping boy. If anything has been done for the welfare of business and industry, large and small, the very creature that has done most for all the people of Pennsylvania, I haven't noticed it.

My party—the Republican Party—believes in the freedom of the individual. My party is against those foreign philosophies which have, without exception, made the individual the servant of the state.

The Earle program was adopted in Pennsylvania during the depression. Those responsible may have had some justification because of the unemployment and distress throughout the State. But this spending spree is being undertaken in a period of nearly full employment. We are incurring tremendous debts to be paid back perhaps in hard times—and with interest.

Governor Duff, in his budget message, said:

"The two years ending January 1, 1949, have been the busiest and most prosperous in the history of the Commonwealth. Both income and employment have been at an all-time high."

Let's suppose that the Governor is right, and that we are enjoying great prosperity. Under what strange economic philosophy are we operating if, during a peak of prosperity, we go into debt through the authorities we have created, to the tune of 227 million dollars, to be paid back with interest when times may not be so good—when we may have to increase our appropriations for public assistance?

And while we are on the subject of going into debt, let me point out that we haven't even begun to raise money to pay for the soldiers' bonus on which the people will vote this fall.

Does the Governor or we members of the General Assembly realize that, in addition to starting to repay huge authority borrowings two years hence, we are probably going to have to raise 65 million dollars every two years beginning in 1951, to pay for the soldiers' bonus?

Where is this money coming from?

It is coming from continuation of what the State Chamber of Commerce and others call the crazy-quilt pattern of emergency and temporary general fund taxes from which we raise two-thirds of all general fund estimated revenue.

Why are we in this awful mess?

The answer is that we walked into it, or were driven into it, with eyes opened wide and with the full knowledge that we were doing wrong.

The General Assembly of 1947 created the Tax Study Committee. It directed the group to recommend to the General Assembly of 1949 "ways and means of financing the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions upon a more scientific and equitable basis and to safeguard and enhance the industrial position of the Commonwealth"

This Committee was a good committee. It consisted of Orus J. Matthews, former Secretary of Commerce, as Chairman; and Senator James A. Geltz, of Allegheny County, as Vice Chairman. The Governor appointed Frank Wilbur Main, of Pittsburgh, and Hon. Philip Sterling, of Philadelphia—two of the outstanding tax experts in Pennsylvania and in the Nation. The President Pro Tempore of the Senate appointed Senator Geltz and Senator Lloyd H. Wood. The Speaker of the House of Representatives appointed Representatives Lambert Cadwalader and Warner M. Depuy.

These men worked hard and long. They presented an intelligent program.

What happened to their report?

The Governor gave it no consideration whatever. And the Senate of Pennsylvania gave it no consideration whatever.

We accepted the recommendations of one man in preference to the mature, scientific and objective recommendations of the leading tax authorities in the Commonwealth.

That sounds incredible.

We have inflicted upon the people of Pennsylvania once more a piecemeal, crazy-quilt program of taxation, without even considering the work of Matthews, Main, Sterling, Geltz, Wood, Cadwalader and Depuy.

History has proven without question that neither the little New Deal nor the big New Deal was able to contribute anything to the recovery of American industrial development, which had brought the world's highest standard of living to workers both skilled and unskilled, white-collar workers, farmers, professional people, management, store keepers and store owners.

Only a horrible war broke the grip of depression that had continued through all kinds of planning in government controls and artificial experimentation. That war was started by those nations who had lost their individual freedom by just the identical process we are currently experiencing in Pennsylvania, and we have been experiencing for sixteen long years on a national scale.

This administration has given the people of Pennsylvania nothing more nor less than a carbon copy of New Deal government.

Not one from the front office have I heard the words economy and efficiency.

Instead we have heard nothing but tax and borrow and spend.

The Republican voters of Pennsylvania are in the position of Isaac. I refer to Genesis, Chapter 27. You will remember that Isaac sent Esau to hunt for venison, and that while he was away Jacob, at his mother's urging, impersonated Esau and obtained Isaac's blessing.

The Republican voters of Pennsylvania may well say of Governor Duff and his administration as did Isaac of old:

"The voice is Jacob's, but the hands are the hands of Esau".

The Republican voters of Pennsylvania thought they were electing a Republican governor to give Pennsylvania Republican efficiency, Republican economy and Republican good government.

The Republican Party of Pennsylvania, under the Duff leadership, has tried to outdo the Democrats in their program of using the power to tax to destroy the people's independence and self-reliance.

The Republican Party, under Duff, has fallen to such a level that it says in effect—give us the offices, the power, and we'll give you as much of what we believe to be wrong as will the Democrats themselves.

I hope two years from now the Republican Party will face the voters as real Republicans. I hope we will undo the damage to the American way of life that has been done at this Session of the Legislature. I hope we will promise—and keep our promise—to stop the trend toward Socialism and Paternalism to which the New Deal is committed.

I hope we will have candidates who will promise to give the voters what they really want—the right to build for the future, save money, build their own homes and enjoy a security they have earned, and not a security of the sort developed by Hitler and Stalin.

I recently read in the "Reader's Digest" an editorial from the "Omaha World-Herald". I find myself in complete agreement with this editorial which says:

"For 12 years the Republican Party has been a coward; the worst kind—a moral coward. . . . The Republican Party has lacked the courage to say what its rank and file believe."

"Out of hunger for the fleshpots it has lacked the patriotism, the loyalty, to stand up for the free Republic of the Founding Fathers and fight for it. Owing to that lack of moral courage, of loyalty to the American creed, the United States, almost the sole remaining bulwark against the advancing tide, finds itself without a spokesman, without a champion to proclaim and battle for its traditional, glorious creed. And it finds the once-so-firm foundation of its temple crumbling. . . ."

"What a wonderful thing it would be if Republican leaders could realize how desperately these United States need an honest brave Republican Party—how true Republicans above all others hunger and thirst for it! Opposition not alone to a misguided and recreant Democratic Party here at home, but opposition, tenacious and resolute, to all the monstrous wrongs that today menace freedom, self-reliance, the courage to adventure, human dignity, in every land and every clime.

"How joyously, with what reborn hope, men and women of the ancient faith of this Republic would rally about such a standard!"

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, when the distinguished gentleman from Cumberland stated he wanted to make a few remarks about the housing program, I did not know that we were going to get a speech that flowed like the Schuylkill River. Mr. President, you know the Schuylkill River does have a little silt in it, which I would like to take out before it is too late.

First of all, Mr. President, I would like to say a few words about this housing program. Like the distinguished gentleman from Cumberland, I am not a housing expert, and I would be at a disadvantage, as is he, in attempting to discuss the technicalities involved in the bills that are before the Senate this afternoon for action.

The gentleman from Cumberland has suggested we do not need a housing program, the gentleman from Cumberland has suggested that the veterans of Pennsylvania, whose organizations unanimously endorsed the Governor's housing program when it was announced, perhaps are mistaken, that we do not need a housing program. Mr. President it is pretty easy for those of us who are veterans of the first World War, who weathered the economic depression that followed that war and lived through the problem of living with our in-laws for years until we could establish separate homes of our own, to say very blithely, we do not see any need for a housing program.

Mr. President, there are about 1,400,000 citizens of Pennsylvania who are veterans of the second World War, and a lot of the things that are occurring in Pennsylvania today, a lot of the problems that are being visited into our divorce courts, a lot of the problems that are being taken into our magistrate courts, a lot of the social service problems that are confronting the Commonwealth today are predicated on the simple problem that there are too many young couples who are obliged to live with her or his parents, and friction results, and trouble starts, and then he says we do not need a housing program.

Mr. President, I do not know anything about Cumberland County except it is one of the grandest counties in Pennsylvania, and the folks residing there are the salt of the earth. I do not know whether Cumberland County needs a housing program or not. I have never taken the trouble to travel up and down the hills and dales and the beautiful valleys of that county, called the mother county of Pennsylvania, to find out whether or not they need it, but, Mr. President, I have covered a lot of other sections in Pennsylvania, and everywhere I have gone, there is a housing shortage, and the veterans of Pennsylvania would like to be helped out.

Mr. President, in the past eight years I have had the privilege of serving with the American Legion of Pennsylvania as the State Legislative Chairman. I also happen to be a member, Mr. President, of the Joint Veterans Council, which is an association comprised of representatives of every veteran organization in Pennsylvania, and, Mr. President, every one of those organizations has unanimously endorsed the Governor's housing program. 1,400,000 people in Pennsylvania who are looking for homes would like to have them, and, Mr. President, when this program was announced the Governor, in a message to the Joint Session of the 1947 Session of the General Assembly, very carefully said—oh, how I remember the wave of applause that rolled up when he said—"I do not want a housing program. I want to build houses, and that is the thing we are going to try to do."

Mr. President, this program has had a rocky course through this General Assembly. There have been a lot of people who, for sincere and perhaps insincere motives, have attempted to improve or monkey with this program, and at last, at long last, it has reached the Senate for determination. Mr. President, it may be that a housing expert, one who has had years of experience in the construction, the building, and the financing of houses, might stand up and point out that this is not the best program that could be presented to Pennsylvania, but, Mr. President, this is the program that is going to build houses. We are going to take these veterans out from under their in-laws and give them a chance to establish homes of their own, and, Mr. President, if that is wrong, I am willing to stand on my affirmative vote on these eight bills.

Now, Mr. President, one thing more. The gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, in his few remarks, discussed the Chief Executive of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He wants to know if the Senate of Pennsylvania is going to be an errand boy for the Governor. Mr. President, I cannot answer for fifty Members of this Senate, but I can answer for one. I have no hesitancy and I am proud of the fact that I am perfectly willing to follow a Chief Executive of this Commonwealth who is attempting to establish a progressive, liberal, constructive government in Pennsylvania. If that is wrong, Mr. President, then I am wrong, and I want to say to the gentleman from Cumberland, I have not been a Republican quite as long as he has, but I have been a Republican all my life, too, and, Mr. President, the Republican Party is never going to gain favor in Pennsylvania or in the forty-eight states of the Nation if it attempts to march backward into the future.

There are certain things that must be done in Pennsylvania, and we have got a man in the front office who is trying to do them. There may be a difference of opinion in the philosophy of government of the Governor and Senator Wade, and if it is an honest and sincere difference of opinion, then the question resolves itself into this: Does the Republican Party of Pennsylvania determine to follow the leadership of the Progressive Liberal element as represented by Governor Duff, or are we going to stand still and revert to what is commonly called the old established Republican principles?

Mr. President, I can remember when we had the old established Republican principles of government, and at that time the Democratic Party was backed clear over to the last row in this Senate. There must have been something wrong with those old established principles because I remember in this Senate when it was evenly divided, twenty-five to twenty-five, between the major political parties. We may have the best philosophy of government in those old established principles, but if we do, there must be something wrong with our salesmanship, because the people of Pennsylvania evidently do not believe in it. We had no trouble at all, Mr. President, in electing a liberal progressive Governor in 1946, and because of the marvelous record Governor Duff established in Pennsylvania, he became a nation wide figure, and because of the success of his administration, because of the progressive liberal policies that the Republican Party was standing for in 1948, we were the only state in the Nation to gain ground under the Republican banner. No where else in the world did you see the Republican Party advance except in Pennsylvania, and why? Not because we marched backward, but because Governor Duff was leading us right up the hill to a progressive liberal government.

Mr. President, those are the philosophies I believe in, and I am willing to follow the gentleman from Carnegie, I am willing to concede that I will be his errand boy as long as he stands for a liberal progressive movement, as long as he is leading the Republican Party to do the things the people want done, to give the people of Pennsylvania something that they are proud of. I am willing to be his errand boy because I think in that way I will be contributing something to making this Commonwealth a better place in which to live.

Mr. President, one thing more. This housing program is being presented to the Senate not as the Duff program, but as the program of the Republican Party. Mr. President, the last thing in the world that I would want to do, when I am a candidate for re-election in 1950, would be to be obliged to campaign in my district, and not be able to boast about the things the Republican Party has given to the people of Pennsylvania.

I remember once before, Mr. President, when a Republican candidate campaigned and attempted to avoid discussing the party, and attempted to discuss individuals. The worst thing in the world to happen to the Republican Party would be to be obliged to campaign in 1950, and point with pride to the things that the Duff Administration has given to the people. That is what licked the Republican Party when they had to go out at the end of the Pinchot administration, and attempt to deride Pinchot, and boast of the Republican Party at the same time. Governor Duff is a Republican, and he represents the progressive, liberal things that this party stands for, but if we have to go out in 1950 and campaign as a Duff candidate, the Republican Party in Pennsylvania is doomed. If we can say this as a Republican Administration, this as a Republican program, these things were performed by the Republican Party, we have a chance to keep our banners flying high. This is not a question of George Wade and Jim Duff. This is a question of the Republican philosophy of government, and I think it is about time the Republican Party was willing to be counted from a progressive liberal standpoint.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, may I make my position more clear, if possible, than I did just a few moments ago, and I was very delighted indeed to hear the announcement of the candidacy for re-election of Senator Walker, because I want to say to the Membership of this Senate and to all who are within my hearing, that my admiration for Senator Walker is second to none. He has been a great Majority Leader of this Senate, and I am heartily in favor of, and volunteer my services to go into his District to work for, his re-election.

Then, Mr. President, secondly, before I sit down, I want to say this, that I have for some twenty-three years been a member of the American Legion, and I have, too, served on the Legislative Committee. I have been a Past Commander of a Post of the American Legion, I am a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and I attended a meeting just last week of the American Legion, and twice I attempted to bring up this housing problem, and twice I realized that there was absolutely no interest among that group. It was a very substantial group, and a very representative group. As to this housing problem, they are more interested in sound fiscal government than anything else, and you know it is very easy for we who are engaged in politics, who hold public office, to blame all the ills of the family life in America, to blame all the ills of the home and of the courts and of anything else, on housing when we are talking about that particular thing at the moment. I personally do not share that opinion. I do not think the housing problem in Pennsylvania or in America is the cause of all these things. I have statistics here from Paris where 78 per cent of the homes do not have central heating in the great city of Paris, and where they have been prone to deal with this matter of housing, public housing, and where they have dropped this and taken it up again over the centuries.

Mr. President, just let me say in closing to my good friend Senator Walker that when he says he volunteers his services, and his actions indicate in the past four months that he is willing to do that, and follow Governor Duff on whatever kind of a program he may call it, liberal or whatever—and I know that he will do that because he has done it for four months, and he has done it in a very able manner—Governor Duff is not leading the way up hill. He is following the New Deal up hill or down hill, whichever you want to call it. He reminds me of one of our farmer friends over in Cumberland County, the County to which Senator Walker spoke so friendly about a few moments ago. There one of our farmers was driving along and he met a neighbor farmer, and he asked him, "How much longer must I continue on up this hill?" The neighbor promptly replied, "Brother, you are not going up hill. You have lost your two hind wheels."

Thank you very much.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would just like to say one thing. I got so enthusiastic in my discussion of Governor Duff, but I would like to just say this to Senator Wade. He suggests that this program is New Deal. I would just like to remind him of a few New Dealers that the Republican Party must have lost recently—Senator Edward Martin, former Governor of Pennsylvania, who voted for a housing program in Washington; Congressman Scott, National Chairman of the Republican Party, who voted for a housing program in Washington; Joe Martin, former Speaker of the House, a recognized Republican leader, who voted for a housing program in Washington; and Robert Taft, who, perhaps, represents what might be called the conservative side of the Republican Party, who voted for a housing program in Washington.

Mr. President, I am happy to line up with those New Dealers.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, it seems to me now that the 1950 campaign is officially opened. The gentleman from Allegheny is running for re-election, and rightfully so, and the gentleman from Cumberland, to my mind, has all but announced his candidacy for Governor. We hope that he is a candidate on that program, upon that speech which he gave this afternoon.

Mr. President, the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, speaks of the New Deal, and Governor Duff's program on the Soldiers' Bonus. I want to say very briefly, Mr. President, that I must take issue with him at this time. While he and many more of us were back home reaping the harvest for a number of years, we found thousands upon thousands of young men sacrificing their lives for a mere pittance. I must uphold the Governor because this is one part of the program which he is trying to fulfill, but that part of the program is trying to be disrupted by some of his own colleagues.

Mr. President, we are delighted this afternoon. For four months we, of the Minority Party, have tried to start a fight among you fellows. We were unsuccessful, and now you are fighting among yourselves. We are very happy over that. It proves to us beyond any doubt that there is no unity within the Republican Party. When we have those who try to disrupt, rather than go forward, we will be going back to the "Old Guard," back in the old days, those Hoover days. It appears to me very much that the gentleman from Cumberland would like to go back to those Hoover days, when people were hungry, walking the streets, and selling apples.

Mr. President, I can't see where this Administration has done so much. Looking over the program, what have we done for the indigent, for the aged, the people who have no lobbies? You don't see them on the floor of the House or Senate. They get $.86 per day to live upon. That is the State average—$.86 per day. We can't shout to the roof tops that Governor Duff has come along and helped those poor people.

Mr. President, what have we done for the school teachers we talked about so much yesterday? We gave them a two and a half cents an hour raise.

Oh, we can wave a flag, but what have we done for labor?

But, Mr. President, here comes one part of the program which the Governor of the Commonwealth is trying to fulfill. We find today thousands upon thousands of veterans living with their in-laws, living in huts, living in trailers, and because private industry has tried to rob them, and has asked exorbitant prices for homes for which they cannot afford to pay the prices, we feel this is the only solution. I spoke to the Governor, and this is one part of the program, concerning which he has the courage of his convictions. Despite the opposition of the gentleman from Cumberland County we shall go forward, and try to give housing to the people who need it.

Mr. President, Senator Wade speaks of the soldiers' bonus. The cry is out, "We can't afford to pay it". When the drums were beating, when the troops were going down Main Street, and these men were campaigning, the slogan was, "Hurrah for the bonus. We can't do too much for them." It wasn't a matter of money then. It was a matter of how many guns, how many shells, how many tanks can we build. Not one of us, be he Democrat or Republican, mentioned money when the boys were in their dugouts and foxholes. We were watching the radio, the news headlines—have we advanced or are we retreating today? It wasn't a matter of money. A lot of them never came back, and a lot of them are back, crippled for life. So, we try to give them a mere pittance, a small reward to show our deep appreciation, and now we have to holler that $500,000,000 will break the Commonwealth. Who is going to pay it?

Well, Mr. President, I simply can't agree with any man who takes that stand. This is not a partisan issue. We had Democrats as well as Republicans in those foxholes, and I say that everyone of them should be rewarded. We made that promise, we as Democrats and you as Republicans, and we also made the promise of a housing program and my hat is off to every man—will be off to every man in this Chamber who will uphold that program. If that is a New Deal program, more power to the Governor. He is smart.

Mr. President, we know that you gentlemen have stole most of our program, but we are not unhappy over it. We say, although we are in the Minority, it has been a powerful Minority. We have helped to mold this program. We have worked with you, and in many cases you have accepted our program. The General State Authority should never have been abolished, but now you see the light. We don't hate you for that, but if men like the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, occupied every seat in this Chamber, Mr. President, there is no doubt in my mind that we would go back to the dark, blue Hoover days, when people were hungry and crying for help.

Mr. President, we must go forward, and I am certain that most of my colleagues or a lot of them, will vote yes, for this housing program.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, they say that fools walk in where angels fear to tread. Witness a fool walking in.

I never expected in my happiest dreams to witness the moment when the fight that I know must go on in the back rooms of the political parties would break out into the open, particularly in the Major political party in Pennsylvania. We Democrats, of course, are not a bit disturbed over this intra-party fight because we have had them for years. We are quite expert at it, and I want to say that for a couple of amateurs, the boys on the other side are doing pretty good.

I am a little confused though, Mr. President, as to whether to take as a compliment the denunciation of the gentleman from Cumberland, or the elaborate build-up of the gentleman from Allegheny. I just wonder what are New Dealers. When I hear the name of Taft coupled with Senator Myers as a couple of New Dealers, I get a little bit confused, and I imagine some of you can understand why I would be confused.

Mr. President, we Democrats don't get excited or put out any more when people talk of the New Deal in a disparaging way. We feel that the achievements of the years have been accepted by the people on five occasions at the ballot box. We don't take too much pain in the fact that the Democratic Party in the Senate has dwindled down to fifteen Members. Those are the fortunes of political war in a state like Pennsylvania, which contains within its confines the great Republican County of Delaware, the great Republican County of Montgomery and the great Republican controlled County of Philadelphia. We have often been suspicious of the fact that if we could get the votes the way they get them in Philadelphia, we might be reaching over into the other side of the Senate.

Mr. President, it reminds me of back home in the early days when I first entered politics. We had a Republican City Mayor in a community of ours. In one election we found a split in a Republican Primary, so we had hoped that, perhaps, in the general election we could win that fight. We put up a substantial candidate, as the Democrats usually do, and low and behold, at about one-third in the morning following the election in one of the precincts, the so-called controlled and behavior precinct, they were counting the ballots, or rather they were sitting there with the ballots, and the runner came in and told them, "The Mayor's won again. Everything's all right. He won by thirty-eight votes." The fellows on the board said, "We'll close shop, and go out and hang the results on the polling place." While they were hanging up the results, the chief of police came busting up on his motorcycle, and said, "Wait a minute fellows, wait a minute. There's a wrong count some place. We lost by thirty-eight votes." Down came the results, and back up to the room they go, and some how or other they lost the light fuse. Two days later when they finally gathered all the pieces together, the Mayor had won by thirty-eight votes.

So, Mr. President, the point I am bringing out is that in the case in court, when the Democrats were contesting the thing, one of the charges made—and it always interested me—because in his charge the attorney made this statement. He said, "I am suspicious, your Honor, that in this particular precinct in this particular city they have gotten away from the requirements of the law, and they no longer count the ballots. All they do is weigh the boxes."

Mr. President, no doubt, a great many of us have heard stories about Philadelphia. In one particular precinct when I ran for office down in Philadelphia, I had more relatives in that district than I had votes.

That may be true because relatives don't always stay put, but I am little bit suspicious that somebody greased the handle on me. That is alright, that, too, is the fortune of political war, but we don't think that the record made by the Republican Party in this particular Session or any Session of the Legislature is the basis of the reelection and election of the Republican Party.

We like to compare expenditures, if you please, Mr. President. We like to say to you that if we could have had one or two paid workers in the thirty-seven counties of Pennsylvania where we had no paid workers, no election workers, perhaps the 50,000 majority that the Republicans received last year in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania might have been wiped out. We happen to know that we spent $57,000 for a total state campaign in a presidential fight, and we know that the results were very good considering the fact that the opposite party spent nine hundred eighty some thousand dollars. Were we given an even break, an even chance in the newspapers and editorial pages, we would be the majority party in Pennsylvania because we will take vote for vote and show that this party of ours has always consistently fought for things that are for the betterment of the majority of the people.

This housing program before us today, Mr. President may have a great deal of merit in it, but to those of us who know something about the need of Pennsylvania, those of us who have participated in local campaigns to gain some rentable rooms for young couples, some homes for persons moving into our communities to new jobs, and can't find places to live—yes, we have all fought over the years for a housing program, and if this Senate will remember, I suggested at the last Session of the Legislature in 1947, that there was $27,000,000 over and above the budgetary needs of the Commonwealth contained in the revenue raising measures that were before the Senate. I asked that this $27,000,000 be put into a revolving fund, without the state giving anybody anything. The only thing that I asked the state to do was to create a revolving fund in order that it could go out and loan to those who had the material and the equipment and the ability to build homes, and finance these homes, and as the money came in for the payment, it would continue to go into that fund and keep on creating more homes.

Mr. President, I think that this particular program is inadequate, and another thing, I am firmly convinced that it should have been started six years ago. I think at this moment it may be too late and too little. However, it will do one thing, as I understand it. It will eradicate some slums areas in Philadelphia and in Pittsburgh, and today we have reached that stage in public housing—and I say this on my own opinion only—I am at least convinced myself that we have reached the stage in public housing now Federally, State and Locally, where public housing must be tied in with the eradication of slum areas, because this bill, for instance—the gentleman from Allegheny speaks of the fourteen hundred thousand veterans who were out looking for houses. I hope he doesn't think he is going to get them out of a $15,000,000 housing program. We are not attempting to put a housing program in Pennsylvania at this moment except to say that we will be able to give about four and one-half million dollars to Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, which will be matched two to one by the Federal Government, or an additional $9,000,000. There will be approximately thirteen and one-half to fourteen million dollars that can be spent in these areas.

Mr. President, I do not expect to see any great housing developments in Westmoreland County. I don't expect to see any great housing developments in any of the so-called rural counties. However, there is a question raised by the gentleman from Cumberland, Senator Wade, as to whether or not they need housing in the rural counties. I am going to join the fraternity of non-experts and say that I can't answer that one, but I do know this. This bill, let us put it right out where it is, and vote for it strictly upon the merits or demerits of the bill. So far as the creation of housing for fourteen hundred thousand veterans, this bill does not do that. It is not in any sense, a veterans' housing program. It is in the main a start toward a slum clearance program in the Commonwealth, and that is all it is. I am going to vote for it on that basis, and on that basis only.

I am not confused, Mr. President, I am not kidding myself, and I am not kidding the veterans in Westmoreland County that I am creating any piece of legislation that is going to build houses for them. I intend to vote for this bill strictly upon what it does. It does one thing, and one thing only. It sets in motion a state housing program which should have been started six years ago. However, we might say that it is better late than never.

Mr. President, so far as the campaign of 1950, I haven't been nominated yet so I can't make the acceptance speech, but I imagine that when we come to that campaign there might be some of us who have served in this Senate during this Session who will bring up the fact that the housewife still has to churn the oleomargarine in the kitchen. They might even say to some folks in Pennsylvania that F.E.P.C. was destroyed and defeated in this Session. A great many people might say there weren't sufficient gains made in the way of labor in this Session of the Legislature, and that the so-called Anti-Labor Bills of 1947 are still upon the statute books. However, we are not entering the 1950 campaign as I see it, but I will say to you, all of you, very humbly, that I think that we will find a couple of good men in Pennsylvania willing to make the sacrifice and run on the Democratic ticket. I think we will find a couple of good men to stand up and fight for the things that we believe in, whether you call them New Deal, whether you call them Anti-Democratic, or whatever you call them.

I do know this, Mr. President, regardless of which political party takes power in this Commonwealth, certain progressive steps will be made, certain advancements in relationship between the governed and the governors will be made, certain expenses of every day life that we heretofore have accepted as personal charges will be wiped out and will be put upon the statute books and upon the cost of the Commonwealth. I expect to live to see the day when in this Commonwealth of ours we will make a great stride toward a higher education for every child in Pennsylvania that is born in Pennsylvania and reared in Pennsylvania, that has the ability, mentally, to go forward. I don't believe that we are a true democracy when we say to a group of children coming out of the eighth grade, or coming out of the schools in our state, "You may go on to higher education because you can afford it", and to another student, who may turn out to be the greatest scientist the world has ever known, the greatst doctor, the greatst business leader, that he will be sent to the shops to work because he hasn't sufficient money to go through.

Mr. President, a great many men in this Senate have become educated because they themselves went out and worked their way through college, and I admire them very much. I would like to have gone myself if I could, but it so happened that there were so darn many of us at home that I kind of had to help the other ones to get through, but, Mr. President, some day, whether you are a Democrat or a Republican, you will see these advancements come in Pennsylvania, and I pledge right now that the Democratic Party will be out in the forefront fighting for that type of legislation just as it has fought over the years for the very things that you now accept in your legislative program, the things that we fought for, and the things we were castigated for, and the things we were condemned for not too many years ago. There is only one difference between, as I see it, the so-called New Dealers and the Republican Party, and that is just the difference of ten or twelve years.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I would like to preface my remarks by saying that in the event this is state socialism, I probably believe in it, and since it is called New Deal legislation, I am a firm New Dealer. I believe in the political philosophy of Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry Truman.

Mr. President. In the dying days of this legislative session, we are considering one of the most important pieces of legislation that was ever considered by a legislature of this great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Housing Bills which we have before us this afternoon are so important that we would be amiss on the Minority Side if a statement were not made as to our thoughts and our intentions in regard to the passage of this legislation.

In 1947, when the need for housing was more acute than it is today, the Minority Party in the Senate of Pennsylvania recommended the sum of $27,000,000 for a Housing Subsidy Program.

Now, in the year of our Lord, 1949, the Governor of this great Commonwealth has recommended the sum of $15,000,000 for a Housing Subsidy Program.

Now, Mr. President, either the Minority Party or the Governor was wrong two years ago, and I take the position that the Governor of this Commonwealth is just two years too late with his progressive thinking, for it is perfectly obvious to all concerned that the Governor has at last become conscious of this great problem which has confronted the masses of this Commonwealth for a number of years.

We, on the Minority Side, take the position that this legislation is a step in the right direction. However, we also reserve the right to say that the amount of monies earmarked for this program is insufficient and that it is also two years too late.

Before we vote for the $15,000,000 earmarked for this legislation, we want to know whether the buyer of the home is being subsidized or the building authorities are getting something for nothing. This is a very important question, and we, of the Minority, would be guilty of a gross injustice if we failed to ask this very important question on this legislation that is a new departure in governmental spending.

If the Majority Party in Pennsylvania had accepted in toto or in part the recommendations made by the Minority in 1947, we would have been just two years ahead in this program and many homes would have been built for our hundreds of thousands of war veterans and needy families who so urgently need a place to live.

I will not say on the floor of the Senate that the Governor of this Commonwealth is using the Housing Program as a political move and that he is trying to buy votes for the 1950 election, but I do question honestly and sincerely this unusual delay in the enactment of this legislation.

Mr. President, I want to say here and now, on the floor of the Senate, that this Housing Program which has been criticized by certain newspapers and certain Republican spokesmen, that this is New Deal legislation, I want the people of Pennsylvania to know that we of the Minority Party take the position that inadequate as this program might be, it is a step in the right direction and all we are doing today is pointing out the inadequacy of the program.

I recently received a telegram from the Pittsburgh Real Estate Board, signed by Hugh A. Murphy, President and co-signed by Charles E. Horner, Chairman of the Legislative Committee of the Pennsylvania Realtors Association. I am going to quote you the contents of this telegram of April 26, 1949 and before doing so, I say to you, Mr. President, that certain pressure groups will use any means at their command to defeat the enactment of progressive legislation in Pennsylvania, and that telegram, in my opinion, is certainly a gross misstatement of the facts. It is dated April 26, 1949, "Honorable William J. Lane, State Senate, Capitol Building, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

"Housing Bills Numbers, H-1052 and H-1059, now before the House, inject into State Government undesirable subsidized housing. The first step toward costly, ever-increasing public housing. This legislature is unfair to rural communities because it imposes upon them the cost of subsidized housing for the large urban areas. It increases the already high tax burden of the state and tends toward a socialized state. It confuses slums, morals and crime with housing. It adds Washington Bureaucracy to the State and defeats its own purpose since it does not create additional housing because it drives the unsubsidized builders from the home building field. We urge your opposition to these bills."

Now, Mr. President, The National Real Estate Association was credited with killing a portion of the Housing Program in our Federal Government and it seems that the State Association is determined to do likewise, and it seems that they almost succeeded because the House had killed these bills on one occasion.

To point out to you just how wrong and how misleading the contents of this telegram are, I would like to read to you the preamble of House Bill 1055, Printer's No. 517, which is in direct contradiction of the telegram sent by these Legislative Engineers.

Section 2, of House Bill 1055, Printer's No. 517, sets forth, the declaration of Policy, as it has been determined by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth.

"(A) That in both urban and rural communities of Pennsylvania there exist inadequate or overcrowded dwellings accompanied by an acute shortage of decent safe and sanitary housing within the financial reach of families of limited incomes.

"(B) That these conditions singly and in combination are a menace to the health and welfare of the people of Pennsylvania because they encourage the spread of disease, impair public health and morals, increase the hazard of fires and accidents resulting in loss of life and property subject the young to influences which have a permanently deleterious effect on their moral standards; increase violation of the criminal laws of the Commonwealth; jeopardizing the safety and welfare of its people and necessitating the expenditure of large sums of public money for the purpose of crime prevention, punishment and correction; fire protection; public health and relief.

"(C) That the correction of these conditions requires the erection of housing projects on a basis which will provide additional housing at rentals which persons of limited incomes can afford to pay but such projects have not been erected because of the high construction costs which prevail.

"(D) That to induce the erection and maintenance of the housing needed for persons of limited incomes it is essential that the Commonwealth assumes a portion of the rental cost by paying for a portion of the construction costs of certain new housing projects.

"(E) That the governing bodies of political subdivisions may be of the opinion that their over-all housing needs can best be met by the effective operation of redevelopment authorities.

"(F) That the Commonwealth should recognize such local retermination and give financial assistance to redevelopment authorities in order to effectuate the purposes of the urban redevelopment law and of this act.

"Therefore, it is declared to be the policy of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to promote the health morals safety and welfare of its inhabitants by providing for state assistance to tenants of limited income through a contribution to the cost of housing projects to be erected and offered for occupancy at moderate rentals as a means of making such housing available to them at rentals within their ability to pay and by assisting the communities of this Commonwealth in meeting their housing needs by making grants to redevelopment authorities."

Mr. President, page 8 of this bill, under (B), provides "to make capital grants to redevelopment authorities in the furtherance of slum clearance and redevelopment with the primary objective of creating suitable sites for housing." It also provides that, "there shall be no discrimination against any person because of race, color, religion or national origin in the rental or occupancy of any housing constructed under the provisions of this legislation."

Now, Mr. President, the Real Estate Association of Pennsylvania can call this legislation socialistic and undesirable. However, I take the position, and emphatically state that this is certainly a step in the right direction, inadequate of this legislation may be. I call upon the Membership on both sides of this Senate to stand up and be counted, and prove to the people of Pennsylvania that the Senate of Pennsylvania has their welfare and well-being at heart, and that their objective it to make Pennsylvania a better place in which to live.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question

Shall the bill pass finally?
